

Weeping Water

The second War Wives club has been organized in town. This one met for their first meeting at the home of Mrs. Gerald Stovall, with ten members. They decided not to have officers. The time will be spent with sewing and in a social way. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Melvin Bickford.

Mrs. Frank Ronne and son, S/Sgt. Robert Ronne, arrived here Saturday evening and early Sunday morning they left for Freeman, S. D., accompanied by Mr. Ronne, and returned here Monday evening, when Frank Ronne sold his livestock and household equipment, and was ready to accompany Mrs. Ronne and Robert back to Sacramento this (Thursday) morning.

S/Sgt. Robert Ronne entered the service three years ago in October, and has seen duty in the south Pacific area. He has been with the famous 49ers, and has so many decorations that it is hard to mention them all. He has a citation from the president, two oak clusters, three campaign stars, five overseas bars, one chow bar, good conduct bar, and bar for southern Pacific, are some of them.

Lt. Lowell Ronne is stationed at McLehlan Field, in the administration department. These young men are both sons of Frank Ronne, of Weeping Water, and are both graduates of Weeping Water High school.

More news about the Ronne family is that the daughter, Rose May, graduated from the Sacramento High school last spring, and she is now employed by the Signal Air Corps, doing clerical work.

Sgt. Gerald Stovall has been transferred from aerial gunner to photographer on a B-24 in Australia.

Fire broke out in the large grain elevator, recently sold by E. E. Lorenson, to Hart, Bartlett and Sturdevant of Kansas City, early Saturday morning and for a while fears were entertained for the business houses on the north end of the same block. Louisville and Elmwood fire companies responded and due to the fine work of the fire company, no other building was burned, but the elevator burned to the ground. As far as we have been able to learn, combustion seems to be the cause of the fire. The valley was filled with smoke until nearly noon. Wm. McConnell is the manager.

A sledge hammer accidentally dropped into the crusher at the Olsen Stone Quarries, held up work last Saturday.

Honoring Mrs. W. D. Lenker, who is leaving soon for the western coast, the Cheer-A-Bit club had a covered dish dinner at the home of Mrs. C. E. Tefft, Monday evening, with fourteen members present.

Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Herman made a trip to Savannah, Mo., last Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Snell was buying new goods for her Dress Shop, in Omaha, Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Groesser took her to Mynard Monday evening where she spent the night at the home of her son, Albert Snell, leaving for Omaha Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Rehmeier were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Groesser.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Raines received a letter from their son, Lt. Max

Raines, of the medical corps, who has been stationed at Carlisle, Pa., for the past six weeks, that his schedule has been changed, and that he is being sent to Lincoln Air Base to the medical department. This is good news to his parents and friends in this community.

We hear of strange things happening during this war. Mrs. Ole Olsen received a letter from her nephew, Lt. Howard Brown of Omaha, who is in charge of one of the Flying Fortresses over in England. Before going overseas he was stationed in Florida, and while there became very good friends with Lt. John Christensen of Pilger, Nebr., and after being sent overseas, he met his buddy again in Iceland. While talking with Christensen one day he spoke of his visit to Weeping Water to visit his aunt, Mrs. Ole Olsen, on his last furlough, before being sent overseas. When Christensen said, "Why, Ole Olsen is my uncle. He is my mother's brother." Lt. Brown is Mrs. Olsen's sister's son. It's a trite old saying, but how true—"This is a small world after all," and especially so since the war.

Mrs. Tony Sudduth of Omaha spent Tuesday night with her daughter, Mrs. James Wiseman.

Mrs. Clifford Cooper has been confined to her home by illness for the past week.

Saturday evening, Mrs. Art Taylor and children and Mrs. Virgil Rhodes and family spent the evening with Mrs. Cooper while their husbands were in Weeping Water attending the football game.

Saturday evening found a large crowd at the football grounds in Wolcott's Field, and there was plenty of excitement. This was the last game of the season and each side was out to win. The first half of the game found the score a tie, with a touchdown on each side, and then the Weeping Water boys began to get busy, leading the way in the last half with two touchdowns and one extra point. Weeping Water touchdowns were made by Leon Cherry, Gene, Schmaier and Dick Bickford and Nehawka touchdown was made by Bob Johnson. Dick Bickford plunged for Weeping Water's extra point. Total score was 19-6 in favor of Weeping Water.

Guests at the home of Mrs. Fritz Grow over the week end were Mr. Grow's father, Mr. A. J. Grow and daughter, Mrs. Thelma Petersen, both of Lincoln.

Dennis Philpot spent the week end in Omaha with his mother, Mrs. Annabelle Philpot.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ruby of Council Bluffs, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Ruby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ruby.

Mrs. Minnie Brooks plans to leave Friday for her home at Ambia, Ind., after a two weeks visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pool.

Six new members were initiated into Elizabeth Chapter of O.E.S., Tuesday evening, and one transferred from another chapter, making seven new members. Initiations were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Little, Mrs. W. D. Lenker, Mrs. Frederick Lindgren, Earl Oldham, Chris Rasmussen, and Mrs. Oldham's membership was transferred from Plattsmouth chapter.

War Wives club met this week with Mrs. Orville Kracht, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Elgaard, with one new member, Mrs. Lloyd Lauritzen.

Miss Doris Marshall spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marshall.

Monday was Mrs. Bert Philpot's birthday, and her daughter, Mrs. J.

F. Grow entertained at a dinner in her honor, with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Philpot and two sons, Skippy and Dennis, and Mrs. Grow and son, Topper, enjoying the dinner.

Mrs. Art Berthold entertained the Idle-A-Wile Bridge club, Wednesday at the J and M Cafe, with one invited guest, Mrs. Thomas Stacey.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Berthold and Mrs. Walter Berthold and two children, all of Nebraska City, were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Arthur Berthold.

Mrs. O. C. Hinds and her daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Long went to Salt Lake City to spend the week end with Major Harold Hinds. There they were joined by Mrs. Harold Hinds, Miss Betty Hinds and Miss Dorothy Everett, who came from Las Vegas, Monday the ladies all went on to Las Vegas and on Mrs. O. C. Hinds and Mrs. Longs return home they will be accompanied by Mrs. Harold Hinds, Miss Betty Hinds and Miss Dorothy Everett. Mrs. Harold Hinds is returning to Lincoln to make her home and the other young ladies will return here for the present. Tuesday morning Major Harold Hinds called his father over long distance from Salt Lake City, as it was his father's birthday. As Major Hinds is in a replacement camp, he expects to leave soon for overseas.

John Ladin
John Ladin, 66, who has made his home at Rest Haven, the old peoples home, for the past two years, passed away early Monday morning at Rest Haven. Before coming to Weeping Water several years ago, he lived at Nehawka and was employed on the Frank Sheldon farm for a few years. Two years ago he had one leg amputated and was in the Nebraska City hospital for several weeks. As far as is known he has no relatives living except perhaps a nephew or niece, but their whereabouts are unknown. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Hobson Funeral Home, with Rev. John H. Pryor in charge of the services. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery.

Weeping Water Business Men's Luncheon club entertained the members of the high school football team at a luncheon Wednesday, at the J and M Cafe. Supt. T. R. Dappen, who is also coach, was also a guest, and was called upon for a talk. Supt. Dappen showed his pride in the team, when he said that the team only lacked four of scoring twice as many points as all their opponents put together. Other special guests at the luncheon were Pvt. Jack Hays, recently returned from the battle area, and recently from a hospital in Topeka, and Sgt. Ivan Baker, who is with the ground force of the Air Corps, doing photographic work.

Wabash Kensington met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Ruhga, with sixteen present. The afternoon was spent with handwork and visiting. Mrs. Ralph Richards is president of the organization. Later word came that they held a handkerchief shower for one of the members, Mrs. Wm. McBride, and that they voted to give $5.00 to the Home for Crippled Children in Omaha, and also voted to take up a collection at their next meeting for Xmas treats for the children.

Canning and Packing Hearing
CHICAGO, Nov. 14. —(U.P.)— A public hearing to consider a new definition of "area of production" as it applies to minimum and overtime wage exemptions in the fruit and vegetable canning and packing industries will open in New York Dec. 12.

The industries' employers and unions in Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin were notified of the hearing today by regional director, Thomas O'Malley, of the department of labor's Wage and Hour and Public Contracts divisions. O'Malley pointed out that the fair labor standards act exempts employees engaged in canning and packing fruits and vegetables within the "area of production," as defined by the administrator, from its minimum wage and overtime provisions. The supreme court, he said, declared the existing definition invalid last June. More than half the million and a quarter workers affected by "area of production" are in the fruit and vegetable industry, O'Malley added.
