Paul B. Johnson was able to return home from a Lincoln hospital the latter part of last week, where he was taken the previous Sunday for medical treatment. On examination it was found he was suffering from a broken cheek bone which occurred when he was kicked by a cow while doing his chores. We are glad to report his condition is said to be improving as well as it should.

Mrs. Meyer fell Monday morning while up town and was seriously hurt. Her daughters, Mrs. Rudolf Wulf and Mrs. George Wulf and their husbands helped her home and made her as comfortable as possible. She was later taken to a Lincoln hospital in an ambulance. The examination showed her hip had been broken.

Captain Hubert Stewart, son of Mrs. Hallie Stewart, is located somewhere in Holland. He is serving with a medical group and writes that it is an active area. He also says he finds Holland much as one has read about it in books. For the most part the houses are modern, clean and neat. Dutch windmills are in evidence here and there and are often working.
