

MURRAY

The Rieke children are numbered with those who are ill with colds this week, as is also Suzanne Boedeker.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hoschar have recently learned that their son, 2nd Lt. John Hoschar, has been transferred from Florida, to Arkansas.

Mrs. Robert Rea and Mrs. Clara Frans were shopping in Omaha Tuesday.

Mrs. J. L. Young, Jr., was hostess to their Neighborhood club last week, when six members and one visitor were present. At the close of a most pleasant afternoon the hostess served dainty refreshments. The December meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Farr Young, and will be a Christmas party.

Mr and Mrs. Fred Hild had as their dinner guests Saturday, some cousins of Mrs Hild's, they being Miss Helen Hunter and little nephew, Hunter Ingwerson of Plattsmouth, and Miss Irene Philpot of Omaha who was enjoying her Thanksgiving vacation from teaching in the Omaha schools, by visiting with the relatives here.

The teachers of the local school were spending the Thanksgiving vacation with their home folks. Miss Garrison at Union, Miss Boedeker at her home near Nehawka, and Mrs. Reed spent the Thanksgiving day with her daughter and family in Omaha and the rest of the week with the folks at Auburn, returning Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Marian Wiles and daughter Diana were entertaining at a belated Thanksgiving dinner Sunday and their guests were Miss LaVerne Shafer of Weeping Water, Mr. J. H. Davis and Miss Lea Davis of Lincoln.

Miss Margaret Moore is in Council Bluffs to attend the funeral services for a friend, and to visit for a few days with her sister, Mrs. Emil Hild and family

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hansen of Nehawka were spending Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hild, the ladies being sisters.

Earl Lantaster is making frequent visits to the Methodist hospital in Omaha where his brother Jarvis is a patient and not improving as rapidly as hoped for.

Mrs. Wm. VanAckron and son, Ronnie, arrived home Saturday evening after a few weeks in California and Nevada with relatives. Mrs. VanAckron was called to California by the death of a brother and decided to remain for a visit. They were met in Omaha by Mr. VanAckron.

Dr. Everett Haney of Sterling, Kansas, arrived in Murray Monday and is conducting services each evening this week at the U. P. church. Dr. Haney is the Synodical
