St. Paul's Guild Holds Annual Christmas Party

The Woman's Guild of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church held their annual covered dish dinner in observance of the Christmas holiday at the church parlors, the past week.

Many attended this meeting which was opened with the regular order of business and it was decided to retain the present officers for the ensuing year.

Decorations were in keeping with the holiday season, very beautiful in every way.

Circle No. 1 met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. William Ofe, assisted by Mrs. Mike Kaffenberger, Mrs. Olga Sturm and Mrs. Cora Hirz. Sixteen members and thirteen visitors were present. Mrs. Raymond Hild gave the devotions and Mrs. Mike Kaffenberger gave the reading of the Christmas story. The regular business meeting was held and also the gift exchange.

Circle No. 2 met at the church parlors, Tuesday for a covered dish luncheon. A short business session was held. Mrs. Otto Pitz gave the devotions. "The Unlocked Door." There were sixteen members and fourteen visitors present. The entertainment was games and the exchange of gifts.

Circle No. 3 met at the home of Mrs. Louis Hunker with twenty-two members and three visitors present. Miss Amelia Martens and Mrs. Martha Meisinger gave the devotions. A short business session was enjoyed and the secret sisters were revealed, followed by the gift hower. Games were also played and followed by ice cream and cake.

Lt. Wunderlich Reported Killed In Action

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Wunderlich of Nehawka Is Reported as Killed December 1st

The message was received Thursday at Nehawka, that Lieutenant Edward L. Wunderlich, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Wunderlich, of that place, had been killed in action in Germany on December 1st.

Prior to entering the armed service, "Jack", as he was better known to the friends, was a student at the University of Nebraska. He received his commission on December 7, 1943, at Fort Benning, Georgia, and was attached to the infantry for service.

Besides the parents, a brother, Lieutenant Robert L. Wunderlich, stationed in England, survives. The young officer was well known in this city where he has often visited, and the family will have the deepest sympathy of the friends here in the sacrifice that they have been called upon to make.

A few days ago Robert Walling of this city, a friend of the young lieutenant, received a letter from Jack, the letter being dated from Germany, November 30, 1944, the day before the death of the young man.

The letter told of Lt. Wunderlich having been in service in France, Holland and Belgium and finally Germany.

Funeral Services for W. M. Barclay Wednesday

Wednesday afternoon funeral services were held at the Sattler funeral for William M. Barclay, long a prominent resident of the city and a leader in the Fraternal Order of Eagles of the state.

There were many of the old time friends at the funeral home to join in their tribute to the neighbor and associate of many years that had been called to the last long rest. Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, had charge of the services, bringing words of consolation to the bereaved members of the family and the friends.

Frank A. Cloidt gave the vocal number, "Saved by Grace," during the services, with the accompaniment played by E. H. Wescott.

The interment was at the Oak Hill cemetery with the pall bearers all past worthy presidents of the local aerie of the Eagles, William P. O'Donnell, Everett Newton, Lester Gaylord, Oliver Finnicrook, Franklin Kief, W. H. Woolcott.

Former Resident Is Married in Kansas

The old friends here will be interested in learning of the marriage on last Saturday at Marysville, Kansas, of Vern Hutchison, former resident of this city. Mr. Hutchison and Miss Lavern Mrkvicek, the bridal couple were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John L. Potter, of Ashland, the latter a sister, who witnessed the services.

The party later returned to Beatrice, where they enjoyed a wedding dinner and then motored on to Lincoln. They are to make their home in Lincoln where Mr. Hutchison is engaged with the Lincoln Telephone & Telegraph company.

Station Wagon Crashes Into Tractor Near Murray

Sheriff Joe Mrasek and Chief of Police Noah Parker were called out this morning shortly after 7 o'clock by the report of a wreck on highway No. 75, two miles north of the Murray corner.

A Watson Brothers trailer had been parked along the west side of the road, while the tractor was being bought on into this city for some repairs.

A station wagon, owned by the Swaim Bus lines of Nebraska City, that had been conveying workers from that city to the bomber plant, was going south and crashed into the rear of the trailer. The station wagon was practically demolished and the driver Edward Gress suffered several cuts and lacerations on the face that were dressed and the patient able to return on home.

Johnson Family To Have Happy Holiday

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Johnson and family are planning a very happy time for the holiday season as their daughter, Waunita Johnson, who is engaged in one of the large insurance offices in San Francisco, is here for a month's visit at home.

They have received word from their son, Ralph D. Johnson, who is in the armed service, a member of the naval construction force or the Seabees and is now back in the United States. Ralph has spent two years in the southwest Pacific, years filled with excitement and danger, that has taken a toll physically of the young man. He has been hospitalized since the last of August and is now at a hospital at Chicago where he was transferred when he arrived at San Diego, California. He hopes that he may be released in time to be here Christmas.

Judge Allen Beeson Reported as Better

Thursday evening a very pleasant surprise was given the James Mauzy family in a long distance telephone call from Long Beach, California. It was from Elizabeth Beeson, the oldest daughter of Judge and Mrs. Allen J. Beeson. She reports her father, former county judge of Cass county, as being improved from his recent illness.

Decorating Program At Court House Progressing

The redecorating of the offices at the court house that have so long been in need of attention, is still going on and Henry Lutz, who is looking after the work for F. R. Gobelman, is now starting in on the ground floor of the building, at the office of the register of deeds, Mrs. Lucille Horn Gaines.

The redecorating of the offices of the clerk of the district court, both the general office and the private office, as well as the vault, was completed this week and at once the work was started on the register of deeds offices.

Th additional of a little paint has worked wonders with the office of the clerk of the district court and the general program of improvement in the district court room makes it one of the most attractive in the state.

Knight Templars Act As Funeral Escort

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Scottish Rite cathedral at Omaha, for Charles Diehl, 54, who was for some time Missouri Pacific agent at Murray.

The funeral was under the auspices of Right Angle lodge No. 303, A. F. & A. M., of Omaha, of which the deceased was a member. Mr. Diehl was a member of Mt. Zion commandery No. 5, Knights Templar of this city, who furnished the escort for the funeral. The members taking part were Louis Friedrich, Henry Nolting, Lester Meisinger, William F. Evers.

Judge Dunbar Decides August J. Towle Will Case

Judge Thomas H. Dunbar held a session of the district court Wednesday to clear up a great many matters that demanded attention.

The court made his decision in the appeal of the Farmers & Merchants Bank of Los Angeles vs. In the matter of the estate of Augusta J. Towle, deceased. This had been appealed from the county court and the district court held against the plaintiff bank and found in general for O. C. Hinds, executor of the estate.

In the matter of the estate of Fred Emshoff, deceased, the appeal to the district court was dismissed by the contestants.

In the case of Elizabeth Frances Box vs. Walter G. Box, et al., the trial of the case was set for January 3, 1945. This is an action in partition.

The case of Ruth A. Kile vs. Louisville School District No. 32, was tried to the court and evidence given on behalf of the plaintiff and defendant and case then continued for the presentation of additional testimony to the court.

HERE FROM WEST COAST

Mrs. Florence Norris and son, of Los Angeles, are here for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kalasek, Sr., the parents of Mrs. Kalasek. They will also visit with Cpl. Frank Kalasek, who has just recently arrived home from Iceland where he was in service for some eighteen months.

Plattsmouth Eagles To Hold District Meet

Sunday, January 14th Date for District Meet and Dedication of New Club Rooms

Plattsmouth aerie No. 365 of the Fraternal Order of Eagles are planning on being host to the district meeting of the order on Sunday, January 14th and at the same time to hold the dedication ceremonies for their newly remodeled club rooms.

Plattsmouth aerie has a state wide reputation for their hospitality and entertainment that they afford the visiting brothers of the order and will live up to this reputation on the coming district meet.

Invitation has been extended to George Trunk, Davenport, Iowa, past grand worthy president, to be here and join in the dedication of the new club rooms.

It is expected that there will be representatives here from North Omaha, South Omaha, Nebraska City, Lincoln, Beatrice, Fremont and Council Bluffs, here to take part in the meeting and program. Among the state officers that will be here are "Dede" Hamilton, of Omaha, past state grand worthy president of the state.

The local aerie is now in the process of remodeling their building at Sixth and Pearl street, making it much more suitable for their uses and strictly up to date in every way.

Betty Reed Home for Over Holiday Visit

Betty Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Reed, is home for a visit over the holiday season at the home of the parents and with the many school friends. Betty is a seaman first class in the WAVES and at this time is stationed at Norman, Oklahoma, where she is engaged in office work at this training center. She enjoys the work very much, but is pleased with the opportunity of being home for the holiday.
