Mary Elizabeth Hinds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hinds, and Lt. Lloyd G. Doyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Doyle, of Portland, Ore., were married Tuesday evening, December 23, at 6 o'clock, at the home of the bride's brother-in-law, and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur C. Long. Rev. John H. Pryor of the Congregational church officiated at the ceremony in the presence of the family. Out of town relatives were Mrs. Harold Hinds, Lincoln, and Mr. and Mrs. James Elgaard and two children, Robert and Jean, of Marysville, Mo. Lt. and Mrs. Doyle will reside in Denver, where he is stationed at Lowry Field.

Although our hearts are heavy, and our thoughts are with our boys in camp or overseas, there is a duty to perform on the home front. There are younger boys and girls, as well as parents, who need encouragement and also the Christmas cheer of former days, so Weeping Water people churches held their usual Christmas programs. The Methodist church had their program Saturday evening with a fine program by the member of the Sunday School. The Christian church held their Sunday evening, with a program of carols and music broadcast between the hours of seven and eight o'clock. This program could be heard in nearly every part of town, and was greatly enjoyed. This preceded their regular program. At the Congregational church a large audience gathered in the auditorium to listen to the story of "Why the Chimes Rang" with Ben Olive and Charles Wallick taking the leading roles. They were supported by Mrs. John Bender, Rev. John H. Pryor, and other members of the Sunday School, and with pictures music and chimes. Miss Mary Ann Pryor played a medley of Christmas carols on her clarinet, accompanied by Miss Martha Jane Wallick. At the close of this program all present were invited to adjourn to the primary Sunday School, where the program would continue. There, in an informal way the primary and intermediate pupils gave recitations and sang songs and played piano solos, after which Santa Claus arrived and treats were handed out to the children, and the older guests were invited to remain for a cup of coffee and cookies, so all enjoyed an informal visit for a while before returning to their homes.

The Mennonite church had their Christmas program Sunday morning at the Sunday School hour, when they had a program of songs and recitations, and a treat for the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Rich and two children, of Lincoln, spent Christmas day with Mrs. Rich's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rookstool. In the evening they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lane.

Sunnyside School pupils, and their teacher, Miss Miller, knew that little Carelle Wiles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jams Wiles, could not attend the regular Christmas program at the school house this year, on account of being kept at home with a broken leg, so they took the program to the Wiles home. They arrived at the Wiles home at three o'clock Friday afternoon and remained until five, first giving their program, and then enjoying a social hour with Carelle, and having refreshments of red and green jello, cookies, sandwiches, potato chips, and cocoa, and then Mrs. Wiles presented each pupil with a treat of apples, oranges and a box of candy to each. It proved to be a most delightful Christmas party.

The teachers of the Weeping Water public schools met at the school house Thursday evening, for a party before adjourning for the holidays. Games were played. There was an exchange of gifts, and a gift was presented to the custodian of the building, Mr. Stephen Ambler, and his wife, in appreciation of their fine co-operation in the school work. Mrs. T. R. Dappen came from Lincoln, to attend the party.

Elmwood

By Journal Field Representative

The community Kensington will meet at the home of Mrs. Barber on Thursday, December 28, for the annual holiday party. There will be exchange of gifts and a covered dish luncheon. All ladies welcome.

The district superintendent of the Evangelical church, Rev. Remboit of Lincoln, preached here Sunday evening, Dec. 17, and at Callahan church in the morning.

The Neal Dorr family have moved into the Marshall residence in northeast Elmwood. We are pleased to welcome these good people.

The grade school pupils on Thursday evening presented the operetta, "Susanna's Christmas Auction." Toy soldiers, a rhythm band, teddy bears, Santa Claus, his helpers, and his dog, Ponto, were especially interesting features. They came to Susanna's home to help her, her parents and cousins to celebrate Christmas. Much credit is due the leader, Mrs. Dorie Frolich for the musical success, along with the speaking parts. Miss Welton and Miss Kunz assisted in the work of the preparation.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gustin entertained several relatives one evening last week in honor of his brother John who was here from Wheatland, Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson have rented

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harmon and their house guests, Mrs. Gerald Stock, and her daughter, Vaughn De, went to Avoca, Christmas day, to attend a gathering of relatives at the home of Mr. Harmon's mother, Mrs. True Harmon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Domingo entertained relatives at a Christmas dinner when their guests were Mrs. John Domingo, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bender and daughter Joan, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jameson.

the rooms in the postoffice building formerly used as the beauty parlor. They will move in shortly after the first of the year when Charlie Marshall is to come to what is now the Wilson place.

School closed Friday afternoon for holiday vacation, and will take up again Jan. 2. Miss Mabel Broderick motored to Fremont that evening, taking with her Miss Agnes Marie Welch, who will go on from there to her home at O'Neill.

Everett Brockman took his cornsheller to the Ralph Krause place on Tuesday. They shelled that day and Wednesday. The corn averaged nearly 68 bushels per acre. This was on the McKay farm.

The Bluebird club held a Christmas party on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Thessie Kelley. A decorated tree and gift exchange and games made enjoyment for all. Miss Helen Kunz sang "Star of the East," accompanied by Mrs. Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hulfish came down Thursday from Lincoln and visited their parents, Mrs. Hulfish and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mendenhall.

Miss Opal Brinton returned home from the Orthopedic hospital on Friday, and enjoy a stay here until January 16. We are glad she is recovering that much.

On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hollenbeck visited their uncle, Wilson Gilmore near Nehawka. Louis enjoyed his first airplane ride that day.

On the Elmwood floor, Friday evening the high school teams of Alvo and Elmwood played an interesting game. During the first part it seemed like Alvo would win, but in the end the score stood 41 to 32 in favor of Elmwood. This makes the fifth game won by our team, under the leadership of Coach Whittemore.

Mrs. Gertrude Davis spent last week end at home and will also be here for the Christmas days. She is pleased with her work in the home of Mrs. J. T. Liston and Miss Pauline, at Lincoln.
