Corky Hopkins, January 26 is the tentative date set for the presentation of the play.

Mrs. John Domingo
Charlotte Louise Wiuff was born June 7, 1864 near Haderslev, Denmark, and came to America April 4, 1880 and spent a year at Gibson City, Illinois. June 7, 1881 she was united in marriage to John Domingo, who had come to Nebraska that spring, accompanied by his brother, Jacob. They were seeking a place in this new country, to establish a home. Both bought farms two and a half miles northeast of Weeping Water, and Mr. and Mrs. John Domingo remained on that farm for thirty-one years or until the tragic accident, which left their son Jessie crippled for the remainder of his life. They built a fine home in Weeping Water and moved into town in the year of 1913.

Four children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Domingo. Jessie, their oldest son died December 17, 1937. His death followed a few months after the death of his father, which occurred February 13, 1936.

Mrs. Domingo was beloved by all who knew her. Her untiring devotion to her church, and her unfailing hospitality brought many people to her home, who treasured her friendship throughout the years. She had been failing in health for several months, but had been much worse since Christmas. She died, at her home, January 19, 1945.

Surviving are one son, George Domingo, Weeping Water, and two daughters, Mrs. J. Leslie Wiles and Mrs. Homer Jamesen, both of Weeping Water. One brother, James Wiuff, Humbolt, Iowa. Her only sister, Mrs. Neilsine Johnson, died less than a month ago, December 22, 1944. She also leaves six grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Domingo has been an active member of the Weeping Water Woman's club for many years. She was active in the Woman's Association of the Congregational church, and was a member of the Cheer-A-Bit club, who helped prepare the dinner at the home preceding the funeral services at the Congregational church Sunday afternoon. Rev. John H. Pryor, pastor of the church was in charge of the services. Hobson's funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Danish Ladies Aid society met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Peter Andersen, with Mrs. Henry Snell as hostess. Invited guests were Mrs. Orville Kracht, and Mr. Alvin Groesser and son Donald. Officers were elected for the coming year, as follows: President, Mrs. Chris Elgaard; V. Pres., Mrs. Chris Rasmussen; Sec., Mrs. Mogens Johnson; Chairman of Flower Fund, Mrs. Knud Jensen.

Mrs. Arthur Jones was hostess at the regular meeting of the Knickerbocker club at her home Wednesday evening. Extra guests were Mrs. Emerson Dowler and Mrs. E. E. Moore.

Mrs. M. L. DeCraeme entertained the Idle-A-While club at her home Thursday afternoon, with one invited guest, Mrs. Thomas Stacey.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keckler were hosts at the regular meeting of the Friday Evening Dinner-Bridge club, with all having dinner at the J and M Cafe, after which they adjourned to the Keckler home for an evening of bridge. Extra guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Wainwright.

Chapter B.T. P.E.O. held a special meeting Friday evening at the home of Mrs. C. E. Tefft and her daughter, Miss Esther Tefft, with the state organizer, Mrs. C. M. Stewart of Grand Island, as their special guest. Preceding the meeting Mrs. Richmond Hobson entertained at a dinner honoring Mrs. Stewart, at the J and M cafe, with Mrs. Tefft and Miss Tefft as guests.

A non-conference game between Syracuse and Weeping Water high schools attracted the usual crowd Friday evening, and Weeping Water again led with 51 points against 6 for Syracuse. The close of the first half of the game left them with a score of 20 for Weeping Water and 2 for Syracuse. Harley Rector was high point man for the Weeping Water team with 14 points and Whitehead, of Syracuse had 5. So far Weeping Water has lost two games out of the eight conference games played this season.

Mrs. Roy Wipf entertained her group of the War Wives club, at her home Wednesday evening, when two new members joined. They were Mrs. Weaver Reckard and Mrs. Marvin Wade.

WHERE'S THE MEAT?
THE GOVERNMENT IS PURCHASING ABOUT FORTY-FIVE PERCENT OF ALL BEEF AND FIFTY PERCENT OF ALL PORK MEETING FEDERAL INSPECTIONS. IN FACT ITS GETTING MORE THAN ONE-THIRD OF THE TOTAL PRODUCTION OF THE MEAT PACKING INDUSTRY. NOT ONLY THAT, MORE AMERICANS WITH GREATER PURCHASING POWER WANT MORE MEAT.

ALTHOUGH THE ARMY IS PLANNING TWO HOT MEAT MEALS DAILY, EVEN IN WELL-ADVANCED POSITIONS, MUCH CANNED MEAT IS USED IN ARMY RATIONS FOR BATTLE ZONES AND EMERGENCIES. ACTUALLY HOWEVER, MORE GOOD FRESH MEAT IS GOING TO A HIGHER PERCENTAGE OF FIGHTERS THAN IN ANY OTHER WAR. FURTHERMORE THREE TIMES AS MUCH MEAT MUST BE SET ASIDE FOR EACH AS DURING PEACE TIME—TO ALLOW FOR TROOP MOVEMENTS, EMERGENCIES, ETC.
