Special Journal Correspondence

A group of friends gathered at the Walter Thimgan home Monday evening to charivari Mr. and Mrs. Henry Menke. All enjoyed cards and lunch.

Due to bad roads this vicinity had no mail on Friday and Saturday of last week. Roads are nearly impassable except for old-fashioned horses and wagon transportation.

Miss Carol Streight has completed her business course in Lincoln and is at present employed in the Unicameral legislature.

Mrs. J. P. Christensen, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bernard Dill and family is now visiting relatives in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Livers have had cards or letters from their son, Pvt. K. D. Livers in Cheyenne, Wyo., Wyoming, Washington, D. C., Atlanta, Florida, Seattle, Washington, and Chicago, Illinois. He is an aeroplane mechanic accompanying pilots who deliver planes to different bases over the United States.

Thimgan-Menke

On Sunday, January 14, following the morning service at the Trinity Lutheran church, Miss Ruth Thimgan and Henry Menke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Menke, of Louisville were united in marriage in a very impressive ceremony by the Rev. P. C. Krey.

Attendants were Miss Martha Bohlsen, a cousin of the bride, and Adolph Menke, brother of the groom. A wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents to members of the immediate families and close friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Menke visited friends and relatives in Omaha for several days, returning to the home of her parents on Monday. Mr. Menke, who is serving in the Navy has returned to his ship.

Mrs. Jason Streight entertained at a birthday party honoring her husband and her sister, Mrs. Jess Fidler. Those present beside the honor guests were Mrs. Raymond Carnicle, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Haswell, Richard and Artis, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Fidler, Mr. Jess Fidler and daughters.

Mrs. Pleas Proctor entertained at her home in Ashland honoring her mother, Mrs. Nancy Streight whose birthday fell on Monday. Those present beside the honor guest were Mr. and Mrs. Pleas Proctor, Paul and Pauline, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Thiessen, Donna Lou and Gordon, Mrs. Jason Streight and Jerry and Miss Jean Thiessen and Carol Streight of Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Jones held a very successful farm sale on Jan. 17. They plan to move to Ashland soon.

Mrs. Geo. Vogel and Loran spent Wednesday evening at the Wm. Blum home.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dill and Mrs. Bernard Dill and Janice Ann were business visitors in Lincoln Friday.

The Friendly Circle met on Thursday with Mrs. Edna Fidler. After a short business meeting about 300 kit bags were finished for the Red Cross. Mrs. Esther Cordes was a guest. She was presented with an electric pin-up lamp, a wedding gift from the club. Her sister, Mrs. Ruth Leffelbiel also a recent bride, was given a gift.

Reports of the benefit card party showed a total of $20.00 was ready to be sent to the Polio fund.

Mrs. Fidler served a delicious lunch.

A nice crowd attended the benefit card party on Saturday evening. Proceeds of $20.00 were given to the Polio fund. Prizes were won by Mr. Thriher and Mrs. George Vogel having high score. Second prize Mrs. Clyde Haswell; low, Mr. Glen Kuhn and Sara Lee Kuhn. Door prize was drawn by Mrs. Carl Hoffmaster. Lunch was served and everyone reported a nice time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Frahm and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Carnicle and family were Wednesday dinner guests at the J. L. Carnicle home.

Mrs. F. J. Knecht was a Wednesday evening caller at the Geo. Braun home in Murdock.

Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Livers drove to Omaha and Council Bluffs, Friday. They were supper guests at the Lyman Hendrickson home in Council Bluffs.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blum visited Mrs. James Christensen and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Straebel near Elmwood Monday.

Mrs. F. J. Knecht met Cass Co. Red Cross officers in Eagle Wednesday and accompanied them to Lincoln where they attended a convention of district, county leaders.

Mr. H. V. Robert accompanied Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Livers to Omaha Friday. He had an appointment with his doctor and also remained to visit his daughter a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Laughlin and Wayne of Ashland were Thursday evening supper guests at the Jess Fidler home, helping Mrs. Fidler celebrate her birthday.

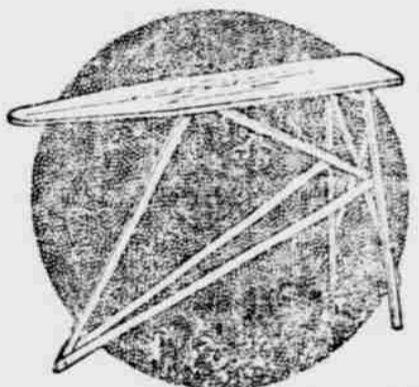

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carnicle have heard from Seaman Kenneth Carnicle who has reached California. His ship is still being repaired so has not yet been sent out to sea. Another son, Tom, on an island in the South Pacific says that he has not yet received his Christmas packages nor letters from home folks. He was stationed in New Guinea but has been transferred.

Mrs. Orville Cordes has received word that her husband has been sent overseas.

Knowing his grandmother's love for flowers Wayne Thiessen bought a small brightly flowered package to send to Mrs. Nancy Streight, thinking it was a new and novel flower seed. Upon translating the German words "mottenkrauter" she found he had sent moth chaser, a powdered moth ball.

OBITUARY

Charles Moses Cole, 66, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cole, was born September 16, 1878, and died January 24, 1945, at his home at Hamlet, Neb. He grew to manhood in the vicinity of Murray. At the age of eighteen he was baptized and joined the Methodist church, where he still held his membership. January 28, 1903 he was united in marriage to Miss Mabel Long of Manly. To this union was born seven children.

In the year of 1920 he moved his family to Oconto, where they remained until the year 1928 when they moved to Enders, then to Hamlet, where he has resided as a business man, until ill health caused him to retire.

Surviving him are his wife, Mabel Cole, three sons, Vernard Cole, Stratton, Neb.; Vincent Cole, Gerling, Neb.; and Sgt. Victor Cole, Ft. Bliss, Texas, and three daughters, Mrs. Myrtle Hansen, Oconto; Mrs. Florence Hagan, Madrid, Neb.; and Mrs. Iona Mahaffey, Kearney, Neb. Fourteen grandchildren; five brothers, Earl of Weeping Water; Roy C. Plattsmouth; Eugene, Omaha; Ora, Lincoln; and Glen, Chester, Illinois. Three sisters, Mrs. Dan Sudduth and Mrs. Eihel Embury both of Weeping Water, and Mrs. Fannie Dean, Omaha, and one uncle, L. D. Hiatt, Plattsmouth. One daughter, Fay, preceded him in death August 18, 1914.

During the time he had lived at Hamlet he had made many friends, both young and old, and he will be greatly missed by his family and his many friends.

Funeral services were held at the Union church at Hamlet, January 26, 1945, with Rev. Karl Zieman officiating, after which the body was brought to Weeping Water, where services were held at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon, January 27, with Rev. Samuel McKeown in charge of the services. Burial was in Oakwood cemetery. His family were all present at the funeral, with the exception of one brother, Ora, who was in California, and was unable to reach here on time. "I cannot say, and I will not say that he is dead, he is just away. With a cheery smile, and a wave of his hand He has wandered on into that unknown land.

And left us dreaming how very fair It needs must be, since he lingers there.

And you, O you, who so wildly yearn For the old-time step and the glad return.

Think of him faring on, as dear In the love of there as the love of here; Think of him still as the same,

I say. He is not dead—He is just away."
