Death Of William Kruger, Nehawka War Veteran

Veteran of Two Wars Had Been Active in Various Veterans Groups in State
Thursday evening William H. Kruger, 65, passed away at his home in Nehawka, after an illness that has covered the past few years and in the last months his condition has been gradually growing worse.
Mr. Kruger was a veteran of two wars, serving as a youth in the Spanish American war in the 3rd Nebraska, and in world war two, was a member of the Sixth Nebraska national guard. Enlisting shortly after the outbreak of the war with Germany in 1917, Mr. Kruger was in training with his regiment at Camp Cody, New Mexico, where later he was made a member of the 109 military police, with that organization followed the close of the war.
Mr. Kruger returned to Nehawka and has since made his home in that place. He has been active in the American Legion, serving as commander of the Nehawka post, county commander and as district commander. He has been an attendant at almost all of the conventions of the veterans.
He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Pearl Kruger, two daughters and one son, Clara Kruger, with the woman's auxiliary of the Marines, now stationed in California, Alice Irene Kruger at home and William H. Kruger, Jr., in service with the Marines in the southwest Pacific. There is also surviving his mother, Mrs. Clara Davis, of Kansas City, Missouri, three brothers, John Kruger, Kansas City, Edward and Harry Kruger of Plattsmouth.
No arrangements have been made for the funeral pending word from the daughter on the west coast.

Blue Devils Lose Thriller To The NSD 30 to 28
Two Overtime Periods Necessary to Decide the Game on Friday Night at Omaha
The Plattsmouth Blue Devils battled the Nebraska School for the Deaf at Omaha Friday night in a real thriller that required two overtime periods to decide in favor of the Omaha school by the score of 30 to 28.
In the opening quarter the Blue Devils held the advantage 6 to 5, but in the second stanza the Omaha team scored effectively to mark the half time as 15 to 11 for the NSD.
The third quarter was strongly in favor of the Omaha team who advanced their margin to 23 to 15 at the close of the quarter.
The final quarter was a thriller with the Blue Devils coming behind to secure a tie at the close of the regular time. Livingston with a field goal, put the locals ahead in the first overtime, but this was tied by Hduza to force a second overtime. In the scramble and hard fighting of the two team in the second extra time, Norbert Knobbe slipped through the Plattsmouth defense for a field goal that gave his team the victory.
Cole was closely guarded during the game and the main scoring was left to Joe Gradoville and Dale Reckard. Gradoville led his team with 10 points, Reckard, 8 and Cole 6 points. Knobbe of the NSD was the high point man with 12 points.
The box score of the game:

High School Has Minute Man Flag
The city High School is flying a "Minute Men Flag" representative of the "Schools at War" movement. The significance of this flag is that it represents 90% student body participation in the bond drive so successfully completed in December. This flag will continue to fly during the month of February. If the student body continues to buy bonds and stamps up to a 90% participation the school will be entitled to fly the flag indefinitely. This is an honor to the students of Plattsmouth High and it is hoped that they will continue buying at least a stamp or a bond each month.

County Superintendent L. A. Behrends discussed the Cass county visual program and showed several interesting pictures. Mrs. Lora L. Kieck, former Cass county superintendent who is now living in Lincoln, was also a guest and extended greetings to the faculty. Committees in charge were: program, Mr. B. E. Evans, chairman, Miss Hana Doyle and Mrs. Evelyn Hermsnier. Refreshments committee, Miss Margaret Iverson, chairman, Misses Frances E. Buell and Naomi Owen.

Sheriff Receives School Recognition

Some two months ago the student council of the high school took up the matter of promoting a skating pond in the city, one that would be safe for the children, large and small. It was their suggestion that Athletic park be used for this purpose.
The matter was referred to a committee and they took the matter up with the city council.
The weather grew more favorable and Sheriff Mrasek added his force to the plans for a skating pond and with the first cold snap the sheriff and other volunteer workers were out and had the park flooded. The result was good skating for all until the snow made the ice rough.
The school council has sent a letter of commendation to the sheriff for his job of boosting.

Smith Sisters In Army Nurse Corps

Misses Eva and Ida Smith, of Bellwood, Nebraska, sisters of County Attorney Walter H. Smith, are here for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith for a few days.
The sisters are members of the army nursing corps and have been stationed at St. James hospital at Evanston, Illinois, caring for the past several weeks and are now awaiting reassignment.
They are expecting to be sent to Camp Carson, Colorado, where enlarged hospital facilities will take care of a large number of the veterans being returned home.

Clement Woster Buys Building

The negotiations for the purchase of the building occupied by the Woster shoe store was completed Friday, and the title to the building conveyed to Mr. Woster by Mrs. J. M. Patterson, of Morgantown, West Virginia.
The building is one of excellent business sites in the city for the past fifty years has been occupied as a shoe store. The building was purchased by Joseph Fetzer from the late John R. Cox and Mr. Fetzer moved his shoe stock to the building, the store after the death of Mr. Fetzer being operated by the late Henry F. Goos. Mr. Woster purchased the stock from the estate of Mr. Goos.
Mrs. Patterson is daughter of the late Mr. Fetzer and has owned the building since the death of the father.

Plattsmouth Vet Goes To Colorado

Pvt. Robert E. Sedlak, who was just recently returned home from service on the German frontier, has notified his wife and children from the Stark General hospital at Charleston, South Carolina, that he is awaiting transfer to another hospital.
Bob expects to leave the Charleston hospital on Wednesday at 3:15 p. m. on the hospital train for Colorado Springs, Colorado, where he with other Nebraska veterans will be given hospitalization.
He has suffered from the effects of trench foot contracted while in service on the front lines, that makes it impossible for his getting around as he should, it being necessary to use a wheel chair the greater part of the time. It is hoped to have this condition improved in the hospitalization.
One of the pleasant experiences at the hospital aside from being back in the United States, was the fact that he had the pleasure of meeting Captain Wilbur S. Eaton, U. S. medical corps, who is also stationed at the Stark hospital, they having a real "bull" session.

Many Groups At Service Canteen Meeting On Friday

Representatives of Twenty-seven Organizations Perfect Organization for City
Plattsmouth assistance to the Service Canteen at the Union Pacific station in Omaha, was assured Friday afternoon by the largely attended meeting staged at the public auditorium.
The meeting has as a guest speaker, Mrs. L. A. Hornberger, head of the canteen, who explained at length the work of the organization and the large part that it had filled in the aid to the service men passing through Omaha.
The members present seemed very very enthusiastic over the opportunity of joining in the aid to the service men.
Plattsmouth will be assigned one day, yet to be announced, when the community here will be called upon to furnish 500 sandwiches and also perhaps a few to assist in the handling of the service at the center.
The local committee comprises: Mrs. E. H. Bernhardt, chairman; Mrs. R. W. Knorr, secretary and Mrs. F. R. Gobelman as the treasurer, they will have the assistance of the other group boosters in carrying out the work that is so badly needed.

Don Wall Writes From German Camp

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wall have received a letter from their son, Sgt. Donald Wall, from a prisoner of war camp in Germany. Don has been a prisoner for a long period of the Germans and like all is anxiously awaiting the day when the European war will cease and be able to return to the United States.
The letter is as follows:
August 27, 1944
"Dear Mom and Pop:
"Received several letters this week from Kay. She has been very sweet about writing and always mentions you in them, in that way I hear about you, as your letters haven't been coming through so good.
"No doubt everyone over there feels the same as we do here, that is the war is drawing to an end. I am looking forward to being home before next year and that will be a happy day for all.
"The only thing I can think of is the day when I walk in the front door and shout 'Hello'.
"Tell Mrs. Mauzy I received her letter and enjoyed it very much. Tell everyone else hello and send my regards and thanks for all they have done. You Loving Son, Don."

Taking Treatment At Excelsior Springs

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Cloidt of this city, who have been at Excelsior Springs, Missouri, for the past two weeks, are reported as enjoying the pleasant western health resort.
Mr. Cloidt has been released from Dr. Ball's hospital where he has been undergoing treatment, but will have to remain at the Springs for the next two weeks.
