

Two Scout Cub Packs Assured For The City

Over Fifty Parents Attend Meeting Held at the Central School Monday

Over fifty parents attended both the afternoon and evening sessions of the Cubbing School held yesterday at the Central school lunch room. Mr. Frank Chase and Mr. Ray Aringdale of the district office in Lincoln, conducted the school. Father Tuckek and Rev. Tenzler assisted at the evening meeting in setting up local organizations, will have charge of the next two meetings necessary to complete registrations and school for Den Mothers.

Only boys age 9, 10 and 11, whose parents attended one of the two parents will be registered. Other parents will have to contact the Den Mothers or Cub-Master and a special school for them will be held if their sons are to become cub-scouts.

The Holy Rosary church will sponsor one pack. The Cub-master elected last evening will be Richard Otterstein, his assistant, John Bergman. They will start with two Dens. The Den Mothers, will be Mrs. John Bergman and Mrs. Loren Todd. The Den Dads will be Carl Ulrich, and Loren Todd.

The Christian and Methodist churches sponsoring the other two Scout troops of our city will sponsor one cub-pack between them. Leslie Hutchinson was elected Cub-Master and Sam Hatcher his assistant. They have divided the boys into five Dens. The Den mothers will be Mrs. John Glaze, Mrs. Gene Burdick, Mrs. C. B. Pearson, Mrs. C. E. Shellenbarger and Mrs. Roy Aylor. The Den Dads will be Mr. Ahrens, C. J. White, Arthur Ofe, Geo. Ebersole, and Roy Aylor. The Den Chiefs will be selected from the Boy Scout troops. Each Den of Cubs will meet one afternoon a week with the Den Mother and Den Chief as their leaders. The Den Dads serve on the Cubbing Committee and will provide necessary equipment for the various types of hand work the boys will do.

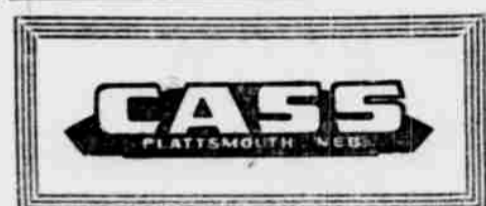

Next Tuesday at 7:45 the Den Mothers, Den Dads, Den Chiefs, Cub-master and assistant will meet at the Christian church choir room. The dates then will be set for the first meetings of the boys.

Former Residents Given Surprise

Old friends here will be interested in learning that Mr. and Mrs. Elmer A. Webb, former residents, now in Lincoln, celebrated their silver wedding the past week.

The event was a surprise arranged by their daughter-in-law, Mrs. James L. Webb, who invited a group of the former Plattsmouth residents now living in Lincoln.

The friends presented Mr. and Mrs. Webb with gifts appropriate to the occasion.

Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. John E. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Devoe, Mrs. Lora Lloyd Kieck, Genevieve Whalen, Judge and Mrs. A. H. Duxbury and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Creamer of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Marsh, as well as Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Evers, old friends who were visiting in Lincoln at the time.

MYNARD COMMUNITY CLUB

The regular monthly meeting of the Mynard Community Club will be held at the Community Hall on Friday evening, February 23, 1945, at 8 o'clock.

A full evening of wholesome entertainment has been planned by the new program committee for the west side, Richard Cole, chairman; Ruel Sack and Mrs. Noble Kiser. The program will incorporate the theme "Dr. I. Q." as part of the entertainment.

Hold Drawing For Tecumseh Tourney

Saturday the drawings were made at Tecumseh for the class B basketball tourney that is opening on March 7-8-9th and in which the Plattsmouth Blue Devils will be entered.

Coach Merl Stewart was at the scene to represent the local team. The seeded teams were Tecumseh, Crete, Plattsmouth, Auburn.

In the opening rounds, Tecumseh has a bye, Pawnee City plays Crete, Auburn plays Teachers College high of Lincoln, Plattsmouth has a bye.

Plattsmouth in the second round will be pitted against the winner of the Auburn Teachers high battle. Tecumseh will play the winner of the Pawnee City, Crete battle.

Now in Hospital At Camp Carson

Camp Carson, Colo.—Cpl. Lowell S. Devoe, Jr., son of Mr. Lowell S. Devoe, Sr., 734 Marshall St., Lincoln, Nebraska, is now at the Army Service Forces Convalescent Hospital at Camp Carson. He fought at Aachen, Germany and wears the purple heart.

The convalescent hospital is situated in an ideal spot for outdoor recreational activities. Sight seeing trips to the various scenic places in and near Colorado Springs are arranged for patients.

Emphasis is placed on pre-occupational training so that convalescents can find what skills they have and thus discover what type of occupational training they may want in the veterans' administration program after returning to civilian life. Practical arts are some of the most popular subjects taught.

Cpl. Devoe graduated from Plattsmouth high school and the University of Nebraska.

NEHAWKA LEGION AUXILIARY

The members of the American Legion Auxiliary of Nehawka enjoyed a fine program Tuesday afternoon, February 13, at the Auditorium. Due to the absence of the president, Miss Edna Marie Marler, Mr. William Ost presided.

The topic for the afternoon was Americanism and the leader, Mrs. Nelson Berger, presented a patriotic program. Mrs. John Hansen sang a very impressive selection, "This is Worth Fighting For", with Mrs. H. L. Kuntz at the piano.

Mrs. V. O. Lundberg presented the history and origin of "Our Flag". This was made very impressive by the use of illustrations showing the evolution of the flag.

Mrs. Nelson Berger gave a book review, "America", by Stephen Vincent Benet, which depicted the early history of America, the cornerstones upon which it was founded, and the meaning of Americanism.

Mrs. E. A. Nutzman led in group singing with Mrs. H. L. Kuntz accompanist.

Mrs. H. J. Dane of Iowa City and Mrs. H. L. Kuntz were guests. The hostesses, Mrs. Clifford Trotter and Mrs. Harvey Barkhurst, served delicious refreshments from a table decorated in patriotic colors.

Mrs. V. W. Perry Is Home From The West

Mrs. V. W. Perry, who has been spending the past few weeks at Arapahoe, Nebraska, has returned home to this city.

Mrs. Perry was called to Arapahoe by the serious illness of an uncle, Charles A. Patterson, one of the well known residents of that part of the state. Mr. Patterson is a younger brother of Mrs. T. H. Pollock of this city and was for many years in the banking business at Arapahoe.

The latest reports state that Mr. Patterson is resting easily now and is being cared for at a nursing home at Arapahoe.

Bernard Dow Named Temporary Carrier

Postmaster Edward M. Egenberger announced today that Washington has approved the appointment of Bernard E. Dow as temporary carrier on Rural Route No. 2.

William B. Arnold on Rural Route one is transferring to Wayside, Kansas and Leon K. Edson, former rural carrier at Wayside has been transferred here to replace Mr. Arnold. This change will be effective March 1st.

P H S Lettermen Form Dance Club

The lettermen of the Plattsmouth high school have formed a Lettermen's Club and will get underway with a dance at the Eagles hall on Tuesday night.

The dance will be governed under the same conditions as all school dances and the price of admission will be $50 per couple.

The Eagles, always co-operative with school affairs, have donated the hall so that this newly formed club might be organized.

Social Workers Flower Club

The Social Workers Flower club met at the country home of Mrs. George Mumm with Mrs. Sykora as assisting hostess. It was Valentine day, with red crepe paper streamers and the Valentine hearts and cupid's decorating the rooms. The center piece of the table was a huge red heart with red streamers running to the corners of the white linen covered table.

The regular business meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Robert Rea. After business was transacted, the meeting was turned into a social affair.

Nettie Mumm took charge of the first part, which was a farewell party for a member, Mrs. John Thomas, who is to leave the club and community and reside in Omaha. The club presented Mrs. Thomas with a lovely gift as a remembrance. Mrs. Albert Wheeler, as leader of the month, entertained with bingo games.

A two-course luncheon was served by the hostess. Each received Valentine candy hearts with good luck omens on them.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

Yesterday evening Mrs. Claus Boetel was brought home from the hospital where she has been receiving treatment for a heart ailment. While greatly improved she is recuperating for a few days at the home of Mrs. Frank Cheval.
