

ELMWOOD

Mrs. Frank Bucil arrived home from her California trip some days ago. She reports a fine visit with her sister and family, Mrs. Verna Perry, and that her nephew, Neal McCroly, is especially well and robust in appearance.

Lt. Marvin Rudolph, who has been spending his furlough with his parents at Eagle, visited his sister, Mrs. Howard Stege, and other relatives here.

Rev. J. A. Adams attended the annual District Fellowship meeting of the Evangelical ministers in Lincoln last week. He led the devotions at one session, as did also our former pastor here, Rev. Stevens, at which time Miss Lucille Stevens rendered a vocal solo.

Mr. and Mrs. Verle Fleischman, are rejoicing over the recent arrival of a son. Mrs. Fleischman is the former Clara Dennis.

Sharon Cook is staying in the Bryan hospital for a time, having her cast changed and other care needed.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Miller and children of Geneva visited the homes of their parents over the week end.

This observance was different. It was just a group of ladies, friends and neighbors, who with the tin pan music approached the premises of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wade. They were soon invited in last Friday, and the evening was spent in singing songs and playing games.

From Lincoln on Saturday afternoon came Mrs. Viola Long, and Mrs. Gertrude Davis for a visit with friends until Sunday evening.

On World Prayer Day the WPCS sponsored a service at the home of Mrs. Nettie Mendenhall. Mrs. Plybon led the meeting, with all present taking some part, fifteen in all. Mrs. Opal Clements sang a prayer song.

Mrs. C. H. Lind has been missed from the meetings for some time because of illness, but she is much better now.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fleischman of Manley visited on a recent Sunday with their old time friend, Alex Miller.

The State Journal records that Mr. and Mrs. Ekwall of Columbus, Ohio, are the parents of a daughter. Mrs. Ekwall was Miss Frances Spence, a former music teacher in our school. She also taught at Weeping Water.

For the first in the series of six Lenten services was held on Sunday evening in the Christian church, with Rev. J. A. Adams as minister.

Elmwood and Louisville basketball teams met with games on our floor on last Friday night, in which Elmwood was winner.

Darlene Hollenbeck was another welcome visitor from Lincoln from Friday until Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hollenbeck.

The financial part of the Methodist Crusade went over big in this community, when the quota was far over subscribed, and a large percentage was cash. It is hoped that this fund will do great work among the refugees and needy ones, and with the army chaplains.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fleischman are taking a pleasant vacation before moving to their town home. They visited her sister, Mrs. Ralph Reeve and family at LaSalle Colo., then went from there to be present at the wedding anniversary celebration of her sister, Ruth and husband, in Nyssa, Oregon.

Several of our families enjoyed a dinner at the Carl Richart home in Murdock last Sunday, when their son Orris was at home from his navy duties in Norfolk, Virginia. He surprised the folks very much when he came and he went back on Monday night. Those attending were Ed Bornemeier and Viola, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rosenow and Lester, the families of Emil, Norman, and Omar Bornemeier from here, Dan Bornemeier and family of Lincoln, and the Louis Smith's of Murdock.

Noel Golden was fortunate in having a large part of his corn shelled the day before the storm. Because the ears could not be obtained they could not finish the crib. Noel still has some corn in the field yet as he had a large crop this year.

Eagle basketball team defeated Elmwood players on Tuesday evening. Elmwood will play Louisville in the district tournament to be held here soon.

George E. Miller went to Ashland on Sunday for a visit at the home of his son Floyd, who is superintendent of schools there. George then went on to Lexington for a few days with his brother-in-law, Mr. Kramer.

School was dismissed Wednesday and Thursday because of the heavy snow. Herbert Hulfish, the caretaker, worked hard clearing the premises and four of the school boys formed a spade brigade for people unable to scoop their walks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bowers of Iowa City, Ia., visited their nieces, Mrs. Ruth Monning and Mrs. Emily Gonzales, early this week. They got to see our snow storm also.

Community Kensington met on Thursday with Miss Minnie Kunz. A good time and Washington program, and discussion, was enjoyed. Mrs. Ralph Reeve and daughter Emily spent a few days with relatives here this week, coming from LaSalle, Colo. Emily had two years of her high school work here, and she is now in college, but she came for some treatments at Bryan Memorial hospital, and was glad she didn't need to remain for long.
