

Nehawka Holds Special V-E Day Services

Program Is Held to Mark the Event and Address Given by E. A. Webb on GI Bill of Rights

Nehawka proudly joined the observance of V-E Day Tuesday. Church bells rang merrily, as the radio brought the good tidings of surrender in Europe. Religious services and worship were held at both churches at 10 A. M., and 3 P. M., presided over by the pastors, Rev. A. B. Small and Reverend McKeown.

Tuesday evening a community program was held at the auditorium, G. C. Sheldon, mayor, opened the program as announced; Edna Marie Marler, president of the American Legion Auxiliary, led the flag salute. Invocation was by Rev. A. B. Small. Mrs. E. A. Nutzman led the group in singing a number of old familiar songs. E. A. Nutzman, commander of the local Legion post, introduced the guest speaker of the evening, Elmer A. Webb of Lincoln, who is assistant state service officer. He spoke of the seriousness of the war and said that we still have a victory to win, which will need all our efforts yet. He also told about the GI Bill of Rights and the state relief fund of the American Legion. A full house was present to hear Mr. Webb, who is a former Cass countyman, having made his home at Plattsmouth until the past few years and assisted with the Plattsmouth Journal.

District Court Notes

This morning in the office of the clerk of the district court an action was filed in which Betty Lucille Bressman is the plaintiff and Paul Bressman, the defendant. The action is one for divorce.

The petition of the plaintiff sets forth that the parties were married on August 10, 1941, and that as a result of the marriage there are two minor children.

The petition also states that the defendant is now in the armed service and also asks the custody of the minor children and for child support.

Four Mile Club Holds May Meeting

The Four Mile club held their May meeting at the home of Mrs. Joseph Bierl with Mrs. Ralph Wehrbein and Mrs. William Starkjohn as assistant hostesses.

The president opened the meeting with group singing and special V-E day prayer led by Mrs. Ralph Wehrbein.

Election of officers for the coming year to start in the fall was held and the following were named:

President—Mrs. Philip Kehne
 Vice-President—Mrs. Albert Todd
 Secretary-Treasurer—Mrs. William Starkjohn
 Red Cross Chairman—Mrs. Russell Stander

All of the members agreed to help each month with donations for the service men's canteen.

There were seventeen members and three visitors present.

The club picnic will be on Father's Day at Garfield park in Plattsmouth.

The enjoyable afternoon was closed by enjoying the lunch arranged by the hostesses.

Lt. Colonel Buell Wins Bronze Star

CHANNEL BASE HEADQUARTERS, Belgium—Lt. Col. Noble E. Buell, special and information services officer of channel base section, communications zone, who was recently awarded the Bronze Star Medal for meritorious service, has been promoted from his previous rank of major.

Col. Buell, a graduate of the University of Nebraska is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Buell, Murdock, Nebraska. His wife, Mabel, lives at Wisner, Nebraska.

In his present position Col. Buell directs an information and orientation program for the troops in the Channel Base Section and supervises the distribution of recreational and athletic equipment. He won the Bronze Star decoration for his work in England during the months before D-Day, when he was special service officer for western base section.

Despite the horse racing ban, 500 horses are in training at Sportsman's Park in Chicago.

Weeping Water

MRS. THOMAS MURTEY, Correspondent

A message from Mrs. William Wenke of Norfolk was received Monday by E. J. Boedeker telling of the death of his uncle, George Wenke, at the home of his daughter at Casper, Wyoming. Mr. Wenke is also a brother-in-law of Adam Cook, and a brother of the late Mrs. Ad Boedeker, and of the late Mrs. Billy Hale, both of the Oxford district, east of Weeping Water. He left Cass County about forty years ago, for Norfolk, where they lived until failing health caused them to give up their home and go to live with their son Harold in Idaho.

Firemen were called to the Arthur Berthold home Sunday morning, when a shed used for storage of garden tools and other equipment was found to be on fire. The fire was spreading rapidly and as it was very close to the house it was alarming at first but the quick response of the fireman saved the house from catching on fire. The fire was caused by two small children and matches.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Prall received another letter from their son, Lt. Linville Prall this week, saying that he is still in the hospital in New Guinea suffering a severe case of Yellow Jaundice.

Irving Patterson (j.g.) and wife left Thursday for Jacksonville, Miss., where Lt. Patterson is to be stationed after more than a year overseas.

Pvt. Robert Wolcott has been transferred from Ft. Leonard Wood, to Camp Beale, Cal.

Sunday visitors at the Mogensen Johnson home, and at the Ray Wiles home were Andrew Johnson, of Fremont, his son Robert Johnson, and wife, of Lubbock, Texas, and his daughter Mrs. John Horton and daughter, Barbara, also of Fremont.

Miss Helen Gorder, of Grand Island, expects to come Friday, and take her mother, Mrs. Fred Gorder, with her to Grand Island on her return home, Saturday.

We have been informed that Frank Massie, who has been at a hospital in Omaha, for several weeks, will be brought to Weeping Water, next week, and will make his home at Rest Haven in the future. His many friends will be happy to have him back in Cass County.

Here is some interesting news about the son of a former Weeping Water girl who lives in West Palm Beach, at Florida. Captain Richard J. Love, son of Mrs. Hazel Jamesen Love, is at home on furlough, after spending about two years with the air force in the south Pacific. A letter received by his uncle, Ray Jamesen, says that he is wearing the Distinguished Flying Cross, and the Soldiers Medal for volunteering, in the face of a severe storm, to go out in search for a buddy, who through his efforts was rescued by a navy boat which was directed by Capt. Love from the air. Although he has been in several crash landings he has volunteered for more service in the Pacific.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Heebner of Nehawka visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Heebner Sunday.

The fire alarm Tuesday morning, about eight-thirty, sent the firemen to the W. D. Baker home, where fire had been discovered in their laundry room, but it had been extinguished before the firemen arrived.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ranney and their two sons, John and Elwin, were guests at the home of Mr. Ranney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ranney, Sunday when a birthday dinner was served honoring Mrs. Lloyd Ranney, whose birthday occurred Monday.

Pfc. Marvin Nelson arrived home last week on furlough, after having spent three years in service, two of which were in the South Pacific. This is his first visit home. He had been in a hospital since November. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boedeker entertained at a dinner, Sunday evening, at the J. and M. Cafe, when their guests were Pfc. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. John Jochim. Pfc. Nelson reports to Florida at the close of his furlough.

Prof. and Mrs. Ray Pool of Lincoln came Saturday afternoon and remained until Sunday afternoon at the home of his brother, and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pool. Sunday afternoon they left for Wabash to visit with the Albert

Pool family, before returning to Lincoln. They expect to leave for their summer home at Estes Park as soon as school closes. Miss Eloise Pool, of Peru was also a week end visitor at the home of her parents.

J. F. Grow arrived home Sunday evening, from Bushnell hospital, at Brigham, Utah. He has received his medical discharge, and has returned to civilian life. Mr. Grow served in the European Theatre of War, and was hospitalized in England before being returned to the U. S.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Day arrived home Wednesday after spending the winter at Bradenton, Florida.

Day-Cook

Miss Jean Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seward P. Day, of Lincoln, was married to Lt. Charles Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Cook, Sunday, May 6, at 2 P. M., at the home of the brides parents, with Rev. Raymond McConnell, pastor of the First Plymouth Church, officiating, in the presence of fifty relatives and close friends. Both bride and groom are graduates of Lincoln High School and former students at the University of Nebraska, where Lt. Cook is a member of Sigma Chi Epsilon fraternity. Lt. Cook is at home on furlough after completing 225 missions in England. The bride and groom left for Florida, where he is to be stationed for the present. Those attending, from Weeping Water, were Mrs. E. E. Day, Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. George Corley, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Day, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Day, and Dr. and Mrs. A. O. Specht. Coming from Denver were Mrs. Charles Murfin, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Franklin Murfin, who is at Great Lakes Training Station, also was present at the wedding. Mrs. Charles Murfin expects to visit friends in Weeping Water, before returning to Denver.

Merton Norris, U. S. M. S. arrived home Sunday on a weeks leave of absence, after more than a years service on the Pacific. During the year he has visited the Philippines, the Mariannas, Marshall Islands, Australia, Ceylon, India and other countries. Needless to say that he is very happy to get to spend a week at home with his wife, the former Doris Wolcott, his daughter Linda, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Norris.

Arthur Berthold left Friday, after a fifteen days leave, at home with his wife and two daughters.

Mrs. Frank J. Domingo and Mrs. S. Ray Smith entertained sixteen ladies at a Luncheon, Saturday, at the J. and M. Cafe, in honor of Mrs. John Swindle, of Hardin, Montana, who was a guest in their homes, last week. Following the Luncheon the guests adjourned to the home of Mrs. Domingo, and spent the afternoon playing Bridge. Mrs. Lois Swindle, of Lincoln, was an out of town guest.

Weeping Water Welfare Club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wallace Phipot, with twenty seven present. The afternoon was spent cutting and piecing comfort tops for use next winter. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. John H. Pryor, and Mrs. Fred Gorder and W. H. Tuck.

Later in the last few months the aerie has had the lower floor of the building remodeled and made into a most attractive and comfortable club room for the members and their ladies and one as attractive as any in the state. Here the members can find a great deal of pleasure and enjoyment.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles have a large and active membership and the local aerie is one of the outstanding groups in the state.

Wednesday evening, May 9th, at 6 o'clock the marriage of Miss Charlotte Maseman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maseman, Avoca, to Walter Halm, Syracuse, took place at the St. John's Evangelical church at Syracuse. Rev. W. Bechtold officiated and the double ring service was used in the ceremony.

Improvements On Highway 34 Planned

The state highway department is planning on some extensive improvements on highway No. 34, the great east and west means of travel through this part of the west.

One of the contracts has been let for the repair and placing in first class shape of the mile and three-tenths of the roadway from Plattsmouth to the Missouri river traffic bridge. The work is expected to start soon.

From Eagle to Lincoln there are a number of culvert jobs to be placed as well as new additions to the black top on that part of the highway and into Cass county.

Maseman-Halm

Wednesday evening, May 9th, at 6 o'clock the marriage of Miss Charlotte Maseman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maseman, Avoca, to Walter Halm, Syracuse, took place at the St. John's Evangelical church at Syracuse. Rev. W. Bechtold officiated and the double ring service was used in the ceremony.

The bride wore a long white satin dress made with a beaded sweetheart neckline and long pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a tiara of orange blossoms.

Attendants were Miss Helen Heusman, Nebraska City, and Miss Clara Halm, Syracuse. Cpl. Stuart Maseman, U. S. Army Air Forces, and Paul John Halm, Ushers were Lavern Doeden and Richard Maseman.

A 4 o'clock dinner was served in the Avoca Congregational church parlors. Marilyn Maseman, Delia Halm and Evelyn Stovall did the serving. The table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake. The reception was held at Anderson pavilion, Syracuse, Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Halm will live on a farm near Syracuse.

Grandparents Receive News
 Mr. and Mrs. George Swain have received the announcement of the birth of a fine son to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Duelling of Brooks, Iowa, making them grandparents.

Mrs. Duelling will be remembered as the former Maybelle Swain.

CD of A Elect Officers for the Ensuing Year

Mr. F. I. Rea Is Elected as the Grand Regent for the Coming Year—Name Delegates

The Catholic Daughters of America held their regular monthly meeting Wednesday evening at St. John's Hall, at which time officers for the coming year were elected as follows:

Grand Regent—Mrs. F. I. Rea
 Vice Grand Regent—Mrs. W. A. Swatek
 Prophetess—Mrs. Walter Smith
 Lecturer—Mrs. John Hadraba
 Historian—Mrs. Frank M. Smith
 Financial Secretary—Mrs. J. L. Langer
 Treasurer—Mrs. John Bergman
 Monitor—Mrs. Hermie Svoboda
 Sentinel—Mrs. Fred Feldhausen
 Trustees—Mrs. Cyril Kalina, Mrs. John Kubicka
 Organist—Mrs. E. J. Doody

Plans were made for the sponsoring of a Day of Recollection for all Catholic women of the community to be held on Sunday, June 3rd at the Holy Rosary church.

Delegates to the state convention to be held at Norfolk on May 19th and 20th were named as follows: Mrs. F. I. Rea, State Vice Grand Regent; Mrs. W. A. Swatek, Mrs. Wm. Woolcott, alternate.

Plans were made for the sponsoring of a Day of Recollection for all Catholic women of the community to be held on Sunday, June 3rd at the Holy Rosary church.

Rosbrough Is Named Head of Local Eagles

Edward Kohrell Selected as Vice-President of Plattsmouth Aerie No. 365.

The members of Plattsmouth aerie No. 365 of the Fraternal Order of Eagles held their election of officers Thursday evening at the lodge rooms in the Eagle building with a large attendance and the following were selected:

President—Clyde Rosbrough
 Vice-President—Edward Kohrell
 Treasurer—William H. Woolcott
 Secretary—B. G. Wrrl
 Conductor—Wm. C. O'Donnell
 Inner Guard—Marion Barnard
 Outer Guard—Garold Garrett
 Trustees—George Monroe, one year; John Sutton, two years; Tony LaHoda, three years.

The aerie has had for the past two years the services of William C. O'Donnell as the worthy president and during his regime the aerie has had a most successful two years. The order has paid off the mortgage on the building and the occasion was fittingly observed by the aerie with appropriate ceremony.

Later in the last few months the aerie has had the lower floor of the building remodeled and made into a most attractive and comfortable club room for the members and their ladies and one as attractive as any in the state. Here the members can find a great deal of pleasure and enjoyment.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles have a large and active membership and the local aerie is one of the outstanding groups in the state.

Maseman-Halm

Wednesday evening, May 9th, at 6 o'clock the marriage of Miss Charlotte Maseman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maseman, Avoca, to Walter Halm, Syracuse, took place at the St. John's Evangelical church at Syracuse. Rev. W. Bechtold officiated and the double ring service was used in the ceremony.

The bride wore a long white satin dress made with a beaded sweetheart neckline and long pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a tiara of orange blossoms.

Attendants were Miss Helen Heusman, Nebraska City, and Miss Clara Halm, Syracuse. Cpl. Stuart Maseman, U. S. Army Air Forces, and Paul John Halm, Ushers were Lavern Doeden and Richard Maseman.

A 4 o'clock dinner was served in the Avoca Congregational church parlors. Marilyn Maseman, Delia Halm and Evelyn Stovall did the serving. The table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake. The reception was held at Anderson pavilion, Syracuse, Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Halm will live on a farm near Syracuse.

Mr. and Mrs. Halm will live on a farm near Syracuse.

Mr. and Mrs. Halm will live on a farm near Syracuse.

Mr. and Mrs. Halm will live on a farm near Syracuse.

Mr. and Mrs. Halm will live on a farm near Syracuse.

Mr. and Mrs. Halm will live on a farm near Syracuse.

Mr. and Mrs. Halm will live on a farm near Syracuse.

Mr. and Mrs. Halm will live on a farm near Syracuse.

Avoca

LEONE EVERETT, Correspondent

S. Sgt. John Maseman of Lexington, Va., and Cpl. Stuart Maseman of Lake Charles, La., are home with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maseman. Sgt. Maseman has been attending school at Lexington, Va., and is enroute to his new assignment at the Fitzsimmons Hospital, Denver, Colo. Cpl. Maseman will return to Lake Charles, La., after spending a 15-day furlough at home.

Miss Corrine Hallstrom is visiting relatives and friends in Plattsmouth.

Mrs. Tom Akeson and Marilyn, Mrs. Caroline Marquardt, Mrs. John Penny and Mrs. Lois Tefft were in Lincoln Saturday.

Avoca Cemetery Kensington met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Annie Harshman.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marquardt and Robert were in Omaha, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Greenrod and family of Syracuse were dinner guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCann, Sunday.

Mrs. Herb Edwards and daughter of Louisville are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Freudenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sudman of Omaha, visited relatives in Avoca Saturday. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heine, returned home with them Sunday for the week's visit.

A large number of out of town relatives and friends attended the funeral services for Gus Ruhge, that was held at the Congregational church in Avoca, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. John Ehlers of Bertrand and Mrs. Julia Kokjer of Kearney are visiting relatives and friends in Avoca.

Sudman Tavern and McDonald Grocery sponsored a free dance in Avoca, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Elmer Kepler of Little Rock, Ark., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Edith Wessel.

Mrs. Charles McFadden, suffered a light stroke on her left side Sunday morning. Her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George McFadden of Nehawka are caring for her.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel were in Lincoln Tuesday.

Obituary

Gus Ruhge was born March 8, 1882, the third son of Fred and Wilhelmina Hillman Ruhge, on a farm three and one-half miles southwest of Avoca, where he lived until moving to Avoca with his parents. Six years later he attended the Avoca Public School and was confirmed in the Lutheran faith when a lad and remained true to that faith by deed and actions all his life. He was a real man of the soil being a farmer all his life, giving generously of his experiences to his fine family of which no man was ever prouder nor loved more. His every thought was for that family and Mama. His grandchildren were the richest reward of his life. He passed away May 3, 1945, being 63 years, one month and twenty-five days, leaving to mourn his untimely passing his wife, Maude, two sons, Fred Ruhge of Weeping Water and John Ruhge, Avoca, four daughters, Mrs. Noel Johnson of Unadilla, Mrs. W. V. Johnson, Mrs. Lynn Hoback and Mrs. Harold Gregg of Avoca. Twelve grandchildren. Also remaining are one brother and four sisters of a family of eight. Many other relatives and a host of warm friends and neighbors.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Congregational church in Avoca, with Rev. A. E. Bashford of Exeter, officiating. Pallbearers were Robert Mickle, John Mohr, Elmer Hallstrom, Marion Pittman, Roy Gregg and Frank Greenrod.

Music was by the men's quartette, Lloyd Ganzel, Henry Maseman, Dr. J. W. Brendel, and Albert Sill, accompanied by Mrs. Henry Smith.

Burial was in the Avoca cemetery.

Burial was in the Avoca cemetery.

Burial was in the Avoca cemetery.

Burial was in the Avoca cemetery.

Burial was in the Avoca cemetery.

Burial was in the Avoca cemetery.

Burial was in the Avoca cemetery.

Burial was in the Avoca cemetery.

Burial was in the Avoca cemetery.

Eagle

Mrs. Charles Palmer and children came the middle of last week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Palmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ransford of Napa, California arrived in Nebraska the latter part of last week and are visiting their son, Ralph Ransford and Mrs. Ransford and other relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Ransford lived near Palmyra before locating in California.

4-H Club Notes

The Eagle 4-H Victory Garden Club held another meeting at the home of Bobby Chase, Monday evening.

All members were present and also their leader, Mr. Anderson. They discussed when to plant seeds and how to take care of the plants.

After the meeting a wonderful lunch was served by Mrs. Chase. Next meeting will be held at Leland Folken's home, May 14.

News Reporter, Leland Folken

Boys In Service

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde S. West heard from their son, Capt. Clyde S. West Jr. that he is now stationed somewhere in France.

Pvt. Vincent Phillips, who was seriously wounded while serving with Gen. Patton's army in Germany, was cared for in several hospitals in Europe and was later transferred to a hospital in England, where he was located when he wrote to his wife, who lives at Elmwood. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Phillips of Eagle.

Methodist Ladies Meet

Mrs. Edward Gerhard was hostess to the ladies of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and a number of guests at her home last Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Morey had charge of the devotionals and also gave a report on the district meeting held in Lincoln in April.

During the business meeting the members voted to serve a dinner May 22 for the Rotary Club members of Lincoln and their guests in the church basement. A special May Day offering was taken for the missionaries in China. A report was given by Mrs. John Peterson on the progress of the new cupboards which are being constructed for the basement kitchen and Mrs. Elmer Frohlich gave both a financial report and a word of the progress toward the redecorating of the church basement.

Mrs. Clinton Westlake became a welcome member.

The guests included Mrs. Russell Colbert and daughter Cedelia Ann, Mrs. Perry Colbert and Mrs. Frank Francis of Lincoln, Mr. and L. D. McKay of Palmyra, Mrs. Anna Jacobson of Corpus Christi, Texas, Miss Thelma Doran, Mrs. Miss Jennie Gerhard, Mrs. Harvey Gerhard and Shirley, Mrs. Herman Kirchoff, Mrs. Henry Fleischman, Mrs. George Winkler, Mrs. Henry Wetenkamp, Mrs. George Trunkenbolz, Miss Caroline Reitter, Mrs. R. B. Morgan, Mrs. Frank Clements, Mrs. Clarence Westlake and son and Mrs. H. L. Scattergood.

A lovely lunch was served at the close of the afternoon.

Mrs. Dewey Headley of Seattle, Washington, arrived the first of last week and is visiting her mother, Mrs. Etta Trunkenbolz, a sister, Mrs. Albert Frohlich and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Jo Rudolph and other relatives and friends.

Callers at the Keil home last Sunday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Been Muenchau of Alvo and Mrs. Elmer Frohlich and daughter, Betty Jo.

Raymond Palmer of Kansas City was in Lincoln on business and stopped in Eagle last Sunday for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Palmer.

Ensign Ruth Caddy, who is now stationed at the Great Lakes Naval Training Base hospital near Chicago, spent last week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Caddy and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rudolph entertained at dinner last Monday evening, Mrs. Dewey Headley of Seattle, Washington, Mrs. Nell Hursh Trunkenbolz and Mrs. Nell Hursh.

Mrs. Anna Earl went to Weeping Water last Sunday morning with her daughter, Mrs. George Hoffmeister, who drove up for her.

Mrs. Anna Earl went to Weeping Water last Sunday morning with her daughter, Mrs. George Hoffmeister, who drove up for her.

Mrs. Albert Frohlich entertained the Trinity Lutheran Aid Society at her home last Thursday afternoon.

G. H. Palmer left last Sunday for St. Louis, Mo. to visit his mother who was very ill at her home near there. She passed away the first of the week.

Seaman Charles Bird arrived the first of this week and will spend his furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Bird and other relatives.

School Calendar

May 4—Junior-Senior Banquet
 May 13—Baccalaureate
 May 14—Senior Class Night.
 May 16—Commencement.
 May 18—End of School and School Picnic.

Family Gathering

A number of relatives of Mrs. Dewey Headley, who was to leave the first of this week for her home at Seattle, Washington gathered at the home of her mother Mrs. Etta Trunkenbolz last Sunday for a farewell visit with her and also enjoyed a fine dinner together. Others who were there were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Trunkenbolz and Velma of Council Bluffs, Iowa, Mrs. Loren Frohlich of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Frohlich and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Trunkenbolz.

Family Dinner

Sunday, May 6, a number of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scattergood. The honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ransford who arrived Friday from Napa, California formerly from Palmyra, Nebraska.

Everyone enjoyed the bountiful dinner, after which the men folks spent the afternoon playing horse shoe, the ladies in social conversation, and the children went fishing returning with a good catch.

In the evening the group sang the favorite songs closing with Star Spangled Banner and Home Sweet Home.

Everyone wished Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ransford a pleasant visit here and with other relatives in Kansas and Iowa.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ransford of Napa, California, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Scattergood and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Graves of Palmyra, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Morrison and family Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. West and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Scattergood and LeRoy from Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde West and Lawrence Mennenbroeker.

Appreciation was expressed to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scattergood and family for making it possible to have this family association.

Family Gathering

Honoring Ensign Ruth Caddy who is stationed at Naval Training Base hospital at Great Lakes, a family dinner was enjoyed at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Harry Caddy last Sunday. Those present were Ensign Ruth Caddy, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Caddy, Mrs. Lester Robertson and family of Eagle, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Thompson and Dean and Mrs. William Caddy of Palmyra, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schnradler and Dickie of Lincoln. Ruth left for Chicago late Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Caddy have received word from their son, Ensign Arthur Caddy that he is back in California after having spent more than nineteen months at a naval base in the Pacific. He is in radio work. Arthur has been in the navy thirteen years.

John K. Rockenbach Sr. recently returned from Alvo, Oklahoma where he visited his brother, Andrew Rockenbach, who is ill.

Sewing Club Meets

The Happy Go Lucky sewing club met at the school house last Monday. Mrs. Swarts handed out manuals and directions to the members, which are to be made into booklets. We discussed the things we will make during the summer. We are to have our pin cushions and needle cases for the next two meetings. Our sewing boxes are to be fully equipped by that time and we shall be ready to do some sewing.

Juniors Entertain Seniors

The annual Junior-Senior Banquet was served in the parlors of the Immanuel Lutheran church by the members of the Dorcas Society on Friday evening, May 4.

Menu:

Fruit Cocktail
 Southern Fried Chicken
 Mashed Potatoes
 Peas in Swedish Timbales
 Buttered Carrots
 Surprise Salad
 Rolls
 Angel Cake
 Orange Sherbert
 Coffee

The Big Broadcast

Richard Anderson—Announcer
 Meet the People—Arthur Halverson

We the People—Wilma Wheatley
 Johnny Presents—Milton Brown
 Take It Or Leave It—Lawrence Weyers
 Truth or Consequences—Ruth Rodaway
 Beyond Victory—Marjorie Root
 Finders Keepers—Ruth Morrison
 Thanks to the Yanks—Hazel Rudolph

near there. She passed away the first of the week.

Seaman Charles Bird arrived the first of this week and will spend his furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Bird and other relatives.

School Calendar

May 4—Junior-Senior Banquet
 May 13—Baccalaureate
 May 14—Senior Class Night.
 May 16—Commencement.
 May 18—End of School and School Picnic.

Family Gathering

A number of relatives of Mrs. Dewey Headley, who was to leave the first of this week for her home at Seattle, Washington gathered at the home of her mother Mrs. Etta Trunkenbolz last Sunday for a farewell visit with her and also enjoyed a fine dinner together. Others who were there were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Trunkenbolz and Velma of Council Bluffs, Iowa, Mrs. Loren Frohlich of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Frohlich and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Trunkenbolz.

Family Dinner

Sunday, May 6, a number of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scattergood. The honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ransford who arrived Friday from Napa, California formerly from Palmyra, Nebraska.

Everyone enjoyed the bountiful dinner, after which the men folks spent the afternoon playing horse shoe, the ladies in social conversation, and the children went fishing returning with a good catch.

In the evening the group sang the favorite songs closing with Star Spangled Banner and Home Sweet Home.

Everyone wished Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ransford a pleasant visit here and with other relatives in Kansas and Iowa.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ransford of Napa, California, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Scattergood and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Graves of Palmyra, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Morrison and family Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. West and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Scattergood and LeRoy from Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde West and Lawrence Mennenbroeker.

Appreciation was expressed to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scattergood and family for making it possible to have this family association.

Family Gathering

Honoring Ensign Ruth Caddy who is stationed at Naval Training Base hospital at Great Lakes, a family dinner was enjoyed at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Harry Caddy last Sunday. Those present were Ensign Ruth Caddy, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Caddy, Mrs. Lester Robertson and family of Eagle, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Thompson and Dean and Mrs. William Caddy of Palmyra, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schnradler and Dickie of Lincoln. Ruth left for Chicago late Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Caddy