

Louisville Stores Broken Into Friday

Stander Hardware and Zastera Drug Store are Targets of Robbers Last Night

Saturday morning when the business houses of Louisville opened for the day, the discovery was made that two of the leading establishments had been visited sometime Friday night or early Saturday by burglars.

The places visited were the Stander hardware store and the Zastera drug store.

At the Stander store the entrance was gained through a basement window and thence into the main store. The visitors had attempted to drill into the safe but were unsuccessful in getting into the safe. Something like $4 in small change had been secured but nothing else as far as could be ascertained.

The drug store was entered by breaking in the back door but nothing was taken from the store as far as could be ascertained by the owner and the clerks.

Sheriff Joe Mrasek and Deputy Sheriff Emery Doody were called to the scene of the robbery shortly after the discovery but no trace was to be found of the robbers.

Officers Find Stolen Property

Saturday morning at an early hour Sheriff Joe Mrasek and Deputy Sheriff Emery Doody were called to north of this city along highway No. 75. It was found that two boys had broken down one of the trees at the Lloyd Holman place.

The officers arrested the boys and a search developed a wrist watch on the boys as well as several identification papers, that had been stolen from John M. White of Omaha.

The Omaha police were notified of the arrest and it is expected that they will be turned over to the Omaha police for action.

Soldier Tells Delight of His Liberation

Pfc. Charles J. Tasler Writes Home of the Thrill of Seeing the Americans at Munich

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tasler of this city have received a letter from their son, Pfc. Charles J. Tasler, who was reported as missing in action on September 28th and later was listed as a prisoner of the Germans, later released by the Americans.

This letter was written on May 2nd and tells a story of delight at once more being a free man and among friends:

"Dear Flo, Charles and Don: "Well it has been a long time since I have written a letter that I knew you would get in less than six months. Lord God, folks, you can't imagine how I felt April 30th when I saw the first tanks come rolling down the streets of Munich. We had been hearing the artillery for the last two weeks, wondering when in the hell the boys were going to get here. We were pretty worried because the air corps dropped leaflets saying that if there was any resistance when the boys tried to come into the city at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, they were going to level the city with artillery and bombers. They took the city without firing a shot, thank God. There were a thousand of us Americans inside the city.

"I never was so happy in all my life. I was about a quarter of a mile from the street when I saw the tanks coming. I covered that ground in two seconds flat. The boys didn't know what nationality we were because none of us had a complete U. S. uniform on. I have been flying high since then. I am feeling fine and send all my love to everyone at home. I expect to be home inside of six weeks at the most, they told us today that they intend to fly us to a harbor in France, then take a boat on home.

"I don't know how long we will have to stay at Munich, as they have got about fifty firms to fill out and we have to have a physical checkup before we leave here. We will get paid and outfitted at some port in France. We sure are a sad looking bunch, but there is no one happier than I am. You should see me. I raised myself a handlebar mustache since I have been a PW. You won't be able to write me until I get to the States as I'll be on the move most of the time, it won't be too long though before I am back home. I will have a lot to tell you when I get home. Boy you should hear me jabber "Jerry" if I had to stay here another six months I'd be talking like a native.

"Send word to all the folks that I am all right and safe and give them my love. Also start getting ready for a big whinging as the kid is going to pitch a big one soon. With all my love, Junior."

Three more of this year's class will leave soon to join the Navy. They are Richard Lauritzen, Dick Bickford and Stanley Miller.

Little Linda Norris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merton Norris, has been quite ill with the scarlet fever but her condition is greatly improved and she is rapidly recovering. She is at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Norris.

Weeping Water

Friday evening found the high school auditorium well filled, for the annual high school graduation exercises. The class of 1945 was unique for the reason that there were twice as many young men as there were young ladies. It was with great pride that the audience greeted the seven young ladies and the fourteen young men as they marched onto the platform, with Martha Wallick playing the processional. Rev. Samuel McKeown led in prayer, and David Olive played a flute solo, after which Supt. T. R. Dappen introduced the speaker of the evening, Glen Turner, of Lincoln, who challenged the class to rise above all difficulties that the power to win lies within ones self. To succeed he must have friendliness, perseverance, straight thinking, leisure time, active citizenship. All these will bring power. Summing it all up he said you must "know thyself."

Supt. Dappen then gave recognition to Shirley Everett for having missed only six and one half days, and having no tardy marks during her entire four years of High School. High School Principal Wm. R. Zahliman presented the class of 1945, and Frank J. Domingo, president of the school board, presented the diplomas. Supt. Dappen then presented the scholarships and awards, as follows: Regents scholarship, David Olive; Alternate regents scholarship, Shirley Everett; Business School scholarship, Joan Johnson; 3rd highest ranking in class, High school boy and girl receiving American Legion award, Shirley Everett and Richard Lauritzen; 8th grade boy and girl receiving American Legion award, brought two girls to the platform, as there was a tie, so each received a medal. They were Patricia Waincoat and Doris Lauritzen. The boys prize was won by Charles Wallick. The history medal presented by the Daughters of the American Revolution was won by Shirley Doty, of the eighth grade.

A happy surprise for most of those present was to see Aage Andersen wearing his sailors uniform enter with the class. He had arrived that morning from the Great Lakes Naval Training Center, to graduate with his class.

Weeping Water Royal Neighbor Lodge will celebrate their fortieth anniversary, Friday, May 25, when district deputy Mrs. Millie McCoy, of Lincoln will be present. The meeting will open at two o'clock in the afternoon. The chapter has one charter member still living in this community. She is Mrs. Elvira Bussell.

Another of our Weeping Water girls to be initiated into the Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority, at the State University, is Miss Marjory Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allen. The first Weeping Water girl to be initiated into that sorority, was Mabel Murtey, in the year 1911. Miss Mary Allen and Miss Grace Steckley are also members at this time.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Knud Jensen were Mr. Jensen's brother, and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jensen, of Omaha.

Victory Mothers Circle met Friday afternoon at the home of worked on convalescent robes for Mrs. Troy Jewell, when they for the soldiers.

Mrs. Russel VanEvery Arrived home from the south, where she has been with her husband, Lt. VanEvery. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Michelson, went to Omaha to meet her Sunday.

Because of the heavy rain which came during the baccalaureate service held at the Congregational Church Sunday evening many were unable to get to their homes out of town, so the young people of the Christian Church, who attended the meeting, in a body, went to their church, through the rain and there held a songfest to while away the time until they could go home. Val Johnson presided and impromptu duets and quartets proved to be very fine. Alki enjoyed the singing and the fellowship hour.

Word was received by Mr. and Mrs. Ross Raines from their son, Lt. Max Raines, which tells of his having been transferred to Alaska. He is with the Air Corps, in the medical department.

Ten of our High School boys are top receive letters this spring. Bickford, Jack Philpot, Gene Schmadler, Pat Wade, Ted Specht, Lewis Baker, Harley Rector, Sterling Amick, and David Myers.

S-Sgt. Joseph A. Graves With A Veteran Group

Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Graves; Has Long Been Overseas With 455 Bombardment Group

15th AAF IN ITALY—A power turret specialist with the veteran 455th Bombardment group, S. Sgt. Joseph A. Graves, of 909 1st Ave., Plattsmouth, was recently authorized to wear the first Bronze Oak Leaf Cluster to the Distinguished Unit Badge when his group was cited, for the second time, "for outstanding performance of duty in armed conflict with the enemy."

Commanded by Col. William L. Snowden, 43, of Denver, Colo., the group officially received its second citation when Brig. Gen. William D. Hall, deputy commanding general of the 15th air force, pinned the blue battle streamer to its standard, in a recent ceremony.

Led by Lt. Col. S. Thayer, Houston, Texas, and Lt. Col. Hugh R. Graff, Toledo, Ohio, 36 Liberators took off June 26, 1944, to lead their wing on a mission against the vital and heavily defended oil refinery at Moosebiertbaum, Austria.

his wife and young son, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Art Fitzpatrick.

A letter from Duane Reed to his wife at Hardin, Montana told of injury which he received the 7th of May in the Philippines when a .32 caliber went through his left foot. Two toes had to be amputated and the big toe received a compound fracture. The word was forwarded to Duane's aunt, Mrs. S. Ray Smith.

The story which was released this past week, telling of the terrible catastrophe which wrecked the S. S. Franklin, Air Craft carrier, off the coast of Japan, has brought the war closer to many of our people. Seaman 2-c Tom O. Stoker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon O. Stoker, of Shelby, Iowa, was one of the crew members on that ship. There was a month of worry, not knowing what had happened before word came that he was in a rest camp, on the Hawaiian Islands. He had sailed on the Franklin just after completing his training at Farragut the last week in January. He is the grandisib if tyir writer, Mrs. Thomas Murtey. Very little news has yet come, but we are hoping that when news comes hat i will be good news.

The Laurel Hill school held its annual community picnic last week to celebrate the closing of their school.

Former Residents Visit in City

Tuesday Mrs. A. M. Simpson and Mrs. George Johns, both of Spokane, Washington, were in Plattsmouth to visit and look over the scenes of their childhood home and as well to meet a few of the old friends.

The ladies were callers at the Journal for a few moments and enjoyed looking over the plant that they recalled from the past years.

They stated that their brother, Charles Wittstruck, is now located in California and is east on a visit, coming to Plattsmouth and Lincoln two weeks ago.

While residents here the family lived in a residence on South Chicago avenue and the ladies are looking over the old home today.

After the visit in Nebraska the ladies are expecting to go to Minnesota where their mother, Mrs. A. B. Cummings resides.

Sgt. Donald Wall Writes From France

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wall of this city have received a letter from their son, Sgt. Donald Wall, who was recently just released from the German prison camp where he has been for the past two years. The letter states:

"After slightly over two years of prison life, I am again in the hands of the American army.

"I was liberated along with 4,000 other air men over the Austrian-Bavarian border at a place called Braman, since that time which was May 3rd I have had wonderful treatment. We are in Epinal, France, where we are being taken wonderful care of by the men of the air force. Here we get our new uniforms and then moved onto LaHarve to board a boat for the good U. S. A.

"Everything has happened so fast the past week it is amazing. I can hardly wait to get home once again and be with the grandest parents in the world. I will be home sometime this month on a sixty day furlough so prepare for a great reunion. I will wire or call you just as soon as possible on arrival in the United States.

"Give my love to Kathryn and all the wonderful people who have helped the past two years be as enjoyable as possible. Without your never ending encouragement it would have been impossible to carry on.

Your loving son, Don."

Sgt. Dale Jackson Is Now Released

In the past several weeks since the surrender of the Germans, the relatives of boys held prisoners in the German camps, have been anxiously awaiting word from them.

A number of the Plattsmouth men have already been able to get word through of their release and being back safe in their own lines.

In this time Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jackson have been most anxious as they had no word from their son, T. Sgt. Dale Jackson, who has been a prisoner in Germany since March 20, 1944.

Thursday afternoon the Jackson family received a telegram from the war department that the son was now in American hands, also a letter from Dale, stating that he had been freed by the Russian forces on April 29th and was now safe and sound. He was expecting an opportunity to come back to the states soon.

War Bond Colonel Well Known Here

"Now I outrank the whole family," said Mrs. Lee Briggs proudly Tuesday as she sold her fiftieth war bond to become a colonel in the Women's Treasury Corps, says the Omaha World-Herald.

Mrs. Briggs, 625 South Eighteenth Street, Omaha, who represents the Service Nurses Mothers Club in the bond booth at the Medical Arts Building each Tuesday, lists her children as Lieut. (j. g.) Mary, stationed at St. Albans, N. Y., after 18 months service in New Caledonia; Ensign Patricia at Balboa Park, San Diego, Cal.; Betty, a nurse at Methodist Hospital, until her recent marriage a lieutenant in the Army Nurse Corps at Camp Crowder, Mo.; and T5 Rodney in Italy with the Signal Corps.

Mrs. Briggs estimates her sales—$4,087.50—as enough to provide 82 weeks hospitalization for Mrs. Briggs is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hartwick of this city, and daughter-in-law of M. S. Briggs.

Senior Class of High School Is Given Diplomas Friday Evening

Large Audience See Members of the Class Graduated and Ready to Take Up Future Tasks

The graduation exercises of the Plattsmouth high school took place Friday evening at the high school auditorium that was filled to its capacity by the relatives and friends to pay honor to the fine group of sixty-seven young people that were closing their high school career.

The class gowning in dark blue with their motor board caps entered as the processional was sounded by Miss Marianne Wetenskap, and took their seats on the stage of the auditorium.

The program of the evening was presided over by T. I. Friest, superintendent of the city schools, who presented the various participants on the program of the evening.

The invocation was offered by the Rev. T. Porter Bennett of the First Methodist church.

Mrs. Cora A. Reeder led the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag and the singing of "God Bless America."

The vocal number, "My Creed," was given by Mary Catherine Sporer, one of the talented young members of the class.

The salutatory for the class was given by Mary Vesta Evers, who had taken as her topic, "The Past Determined the Present," reviewing the conditions of the past that had led to the present world conditions that our nation was passing through with the other nations of the world.

The valedictory of the class of 1945 was given by Eugene Edward Hula who took as his subject, "America After the War," bringing a word painting of the new world of tomorrow that the youth of today must face and assist in carrying through.

Dr. Allen P. Burkhardt, president of the junior college and superintendent of schools of Norfolk, was the main speaker and gave a fine address on "Priorities for graduates."

Dr. Burkhardt pointed out the strenuous times in which the nation had gone through in the past forty years in wars, droughts and unemployment and into this world the class of 1945 was to make their way and help solve some of the problems that the nation would have in the coming years.

As the topic of the address indicated he gave as the priorities of the students, "Courage, Ability to Understand Friends and Neighbors, Faith in the higher ideals."

Superintendent Friest made the presentation of the scholastic honors to Eugene Hula and Mary Evers with the scholarships of the University of Nebraska, the church school award to Elizabeth Meisinger and the Regent's scholarship to Richard Sack, this being won in examination.

The Harriett Case Award was given this year to Richard C. Livingston, member of the class who is soon to enter the armed service.

The members selected for the National Honor society because of their high scholastic achievement during the four years in the high school were: Eloise Pearl Cole, Mary Vesta Evers, Donald Edwin Forbes, Eugene Edward Hula, Richard C. Livingston, Eldon Fredrick Meisinger, Patricia A. Stander, Mary Phyllis Soennichsen, Elizabeth Marie Meisinger, Norma Aileen Spidell.

Mrs. F. R. Gobelman, past regent of Fontenelle chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, presented the history award of the society to Richard C. Livingston for his four years grade in history.

The vocal selection, "God Bless This House" was given by Richard Livingston and a very beautiful number.

Principal Milo W. Price made the presentation of the class of 1945 to Dr. R. P. Westover, president of the board of education, who in turn gave to the young people the diplomas that represented their years of study and preparation in the schools.

The benediction was offered by Dr. H. G. McClusky of the First Presbyterian church.

Miss Eloise Pearl Cole, member of the class served as the accompanist for the various musical offerings on the program.

The class of 1945 comprise the following: Applegate, Dwight Atteberry, Bette M. Baumgart, Forest G. Bell, Raymond C. Beverage, Mary S. Bordelon, Joyce Brookhouser, Beverly A. Brubacher, Mary E. Buechler, Phyllis J. Carey, Eloise P. Cole, Ster-
