

Weeping Water

MRS. THOMAS MURTEY, Correspondent

The annual camp meeting of the Mennonite Brethren in Christ will open Thursday, August 16, instead of the 17th, as was first planned. Rev. E. D. Young, presiding elder, of Lincoln, has been in Weeping Water making all arrangements to care for the visitors from the different states, who are expected to attend. Rev. H. E. Miller of Elkhart, Ind., will be the evangelist, with a youth meeting each morning at ten o'clock. The children's meetings will be at 1:30 p. m. under the direction of Miss Fanny Overholt and Miss Crystal French, both of Council Bluffs. There will be preaching services each afternoon at three o'clock, and at eight in the evening. Friday, August 24, is to be missionary day, when the speakers will be Miss Luella Landrey, from West Africa and Miss Bessie Cordell from China. Rev. Kenneth Robinson of Seattle, Washington, will have charge of the song services. Saturday, August 25 will be held their ministers convention, and Monday, August 27, a four day ministerial conference will open. Rev. J. K. Wipf is the local pastor.

Mrs. Stanley Wood and baby daughter arrived home Thursday evening from Bryan Memorial hospital.

Harry Woods of Albuquerque, N. M., accompanied by his wife, was in town Thursday trying to locate a house in which to live. Mr. Wood is the new superintendent of the government quarry, east of town. He is assembling equipment as rapidly as possible so that the quarry may be opened soon. Until a home is found the family is living in Plattsmouth.

The Congregational Church Women's Association met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ed Lorenson, with a good attendance. Mrs. John C. Pryor had charge of the program, with her subject being "Petty Annoyances." Plans were discussed for the fall bazaar.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Christian Church have decided to serve lunches at the County Fair again this year.

Mrs. Dick Kirchoff was in Lincoln last week where she had a tumor removed from her eyelid. Miss Ella Grafe, Mrs. Henry D. Kirchoff, Erma and Leo, visited Mrs. Anna Minderman at Otoe, Tuesday.

Gerald Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thorwald Hansen, returned home Friday evening from Seward, where he attended the 4-H Camp.

J. I. Corley left Wednesday for Denver on a business trip.

The South Side Pivocle club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Frank Wildrick to help her celebrate her birthday. Invited guests were Miss Margaret Baker, and Mrs. George Wildrick of Omaha.

The Welfare Society held their annual picnic Monday afternoon in the basement of the Methodist church.

Mrs. Jack Hall of Omaha spent last week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Andrew Olsen.

Mrs. Herbert Ratnour received word that Mrs. M. J. Wickersham, a former resident of Weeping Water, had passed away at the home of her daughter at Memphis, Tenn. Mr. Wickersham, who was in the plumbing and hardware business in Weeping Water for several years, preceded his wife in death several years ago.

Ned Wilkinson and his daughter, Betty, of Omaha, were Sunday afternoon visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clint Wilkinson.

RT1e Ermond Moore and his wife left Wednesday for Dearborn, Michigan, where Eldon is assigned to a radar school.

FC1e J. Nissley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Marshall, left Thursday for Washington, D. C., to attend a school, after a few days visit at his parent's home. He has been stationed at San Diego.

Weeping Water schools will open September third.

Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Herman entertained a group of their friends at a picnic supper on their lawn, Wednesday evening. Those invited were Mr. and Mrs. Neil Munkres, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hinds and Ruth Ann Hinds; Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Gibson and Richard; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dill, Mr. and Mrs. E. Thomas Stacey and Michael; Mr. and Mrs. Art Berthold and two daughters, Joan and Patty; Miss Imogene Van Every.

S. Sgt. Ivan Baker is at home on furlough after eight months in Germany. He has a thirty day furlough, after which he reports to Leavenworth. He is visiting his mother, Mrs. Vesta Baker.

Roberta Kunz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kunz, returned the latter part of the week from a visit at the home of her uncle, Fred Kunz, at Imperial. While she was there visiting, her cousin, Charles Kunz, was fatally burned by gasoline while he was filling a car at the garage owned by his father. He was burned from his waist up to the top of his head.

Carol Puls of Plattsmouth spent the past week at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Gray.

Mrs. Orlando Bennett of Lincoln is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kunz.

Mrs. Howard Jacobson returned home Saturday from the hospital where she has been taking the Kenny treatments for polio. She feels that her recovery is remarkable.

Mrs. T. Hugh Hanlan was the speaker at the tea given by the Woman's Missionary Society of the Avoca Congregational church, Thursday afternoon. Her subject was "The Women of the Bible." She was accompanied to Avoca by Mrs. J. M. Ranney, Mrs. John C. Pryor and Mrs. Samuel McKeown.
