

Plattsmouth Personals

John Wolf, former Plattsmouth resident, was visiting here in town Wednesday. Mr. Wolf was a prominent business man in Plattsmouth until some time ago when he moved to Omaha.

Mrs. Coleman O'Bryan called her son, James O'Bryan, long distance Wednesday at his base on Parris Island. S. C. James is a hospital apprentice 2e and works in the Navy hospital on the island. He received his hospital training at San Diego after entering the service in February. He had been stationed at Parris Island since July. The O'Bryans are also expecting their oldest son, Cpl. Coleman O'Bryan, home at any time on leave. He writes that he expects to be home for Christmas as he has been overseas for 18 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Newton and son, Richard, are planning on leaving Saturday evening for Akron, Indiana. While there they will visit Mrs. Newton's sister. The Newtons will be gone for a week's vacation.

Tom Walling returned home from Immanuel hospital in Omaha Tuesday afternoon, after being there twelve days recovering from an operation on his shoulder. He is reported to be feeling fine but his shoulder must remain in a cast for eight weeks. Mr. Walling was injured last spring while working at the BREX shops.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hopkins, Sr. received a letter from their son, Benjamin, who has been a prisoner of war for the past three years. He says that he is well and on his way home. Benny was captured on Java and the story of his adventures were described in the picture "The Story of Doctor Wassell." This is the first letter received from him in a long time. The last message was a radiogram in January and a postcard received four months ago, which was written in October. His brother, Lowell is home on leave now after service overseas.

S-Sgt. Marvin Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hill of Union, was in Plattsmouth Thursday. Sgt. Hill was discharged recently from the army after 10 months overseas serving with the 63rd division of the 7th army infantry. One of the Hill's other sons, Pfc. Albert Hill, is still in Germany with the 36th division.

The Sattler ambulance made an emergency trip to the Methodist hospital in Omaha Thursday when Mrs. Harry Shiffer was taken seriously ill.

Miss Anna Leach was visited last Sunday by a group of her former pupils from Omaha. They had heard of Miss Leach's illness and came over to visit her. Miss Leach has been ill for some time and is staying with Miss Alpha Peterson.

Mrs. Charles H. King is visiting here in town called by the illness of her sister, Mrs. T. H. Pollack. Mrs. King's home is in Los Angeles.

T-5 George A. Hull of Plattsmouth has been awarded the Bronze Star for valorous conduct in action against the enemy while fighting with the Third Infantry Division in France. His mother, Rose B. Hull lives at RFD 1, Plattsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Phillips went to Omaha last Sunday to welcome home his brother, S. Sgt. Duane Phillips of the fifth ranger battalion, who is home on leave after service in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Pickering entertained guests from Unadilla and Palmyra last Sunday. Those from Unadilla were Mr. and Mrs. Will Kruse and daughter, Gladys, who teaches school in Unadilla and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Seeman with their niece, Betty Stoner. From Palmyra came Mr. and Mrs. Holly Stoner and daughter, Wau-neta.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pickering are planning on selling their home in Arkansas and moving to the vicinity around Plattsmouth. While they are here they will stay with their son and his family. Mr. and Mrs. Claud Pickering until they are able to find a home of their own.

Therkildsen Held On $1000 Bail Bond

Henry Therkildsen was arraigned before County Court Judge Paul E. Fauquet Wednesday and entered a plea of guilty to a charge of breaking and entering. Judge Fauquet accepted the plea and ordered Therkildsen to appear before the District Court at the next session to answer the charge. Bail bond was set at $1000.

Therkildsen admitted breaking in to the Brubacher Store in Murray on January 28, 1945.

Dick March Discharged
Dick E. March, Plattsmouth, has been released from naval service at the U. S. Naval personnel separation center in Great Lakes, Illinois.

MERCHANT MARINER STARTS OWN LEGION
NEW ORLEANS (U.P.)—The port of New Orleans, where many men go down to the sea in ships, may become the headquarters of a new nation-wide Legion of Merchant Mariners.

Still in the formative stage, the league is being whipped into shape by N. T. Bever of New Orleans, who spent two years with the merchant marine.
