Fighting in Java Is Less Intense

BATAVIA, (U.P.) — The British announced officially Thursday that Soerabaja has been occupied completely and that fighting in Java appeared to be confined to interior regions and the western part of the island.

At the same time, Indonesian Premier Sultan Sjahrir said he now was prepared to resume talks with the Dutch and British but that the date had not been fixed yet.

(A BBC broadcast Wednesday night said the Netherlands minister for overseas possessions told in an interview in the Hague that the Dutch are hopeful but "increasingly doubtful of reaching a peaceful settlement in Java.")

To Direct State March of Dimes

Walter F. Cozad of Omaha has been named Nebraska State Chairman of the 1946 March of Dimes to be conducted January 14-31 by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Basil O'Connor, president of the Foundation, announced today.

Mr. Cozad served for almost 40 years with the Northwestern Bell Telephone Company as General Superintendent of Traffic and, with the same company's Omaha branch, as General Manager until his retirement in 1940.

Since that time, Mr. Cozad has devoted most of his energies to activities connected with charitable, civic and church organizations. He has been president of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce and is a former president of the City-Wide Council of Churches in his city.

In accepting the March of Dimes chairmanship, Mr. Cozad said:

"The horrors of man-made war have ended, but we are continuing to fight against another enemy — infantile paralysis — whose ravages can be even more brutal. In our State alone during the first nine months of this year, 90 cases of this crippling disease were reported.

"Fortunately, however, the generous contributions of the American people through the annual March of Dimes make it possible for the fight against this disease to be continually strengthened and intensified."

Mr. Cozad announced that Mrs. Ruth Schmelkin, Lincoln, Pan-Hellenic advisor for the University of Nebraska, has been named state vice-chairman and women's activities advisor for the March of Dime campaign.

Harvester Salutes 4-H on the Air

Raymond Massey, right, star of International Harvester's "Harvest of Stars" radio program; Howard Barlow, left, conductor of the Harvester orchestra, and Lt. Don Tracy, former 4-H Club member from York, Neb., discuss the 4-H story that will be dramatized on the radio show Sunday, Dec. 2, at 2 p. m. eastern time, NBC network. The program will honor the 4-H Club organization which holds its 24th annual congress in Chicago Dec. 3-6. Lt. Tracy is in charge of a 622-acre Army Air Forces convalescent farm at Pawling, N. Y. The program will tell the story of the rehabilitation of battle-fatigued airmen.

At the Movies

As a very definite change from the usual type of "family" movie that has been ground out by Hollywood in the past, Warner Bros. have produced "Roughly Speaking." An adaptation from Louise Randall Pierson's best-selling autobiography of the same name, the film stars Rosalind Russell and Jack Carson and features Robert Hutton, Jean Sullivan, Craig Stevens, John Alvin, John Qualen, and Alan Tate in supporting roles. This roaring saga of America's coming of age, set to the singing music of a courageous woman's heart, plays Sunday and Monday at the Cass Theatre in Plattsmouth.

Here is the real American family story. Not of the tinsel variety, of rah, rah football games and shy kisses, but a lusty tale of one family's hectic happy life through the roaring twenties, the lean thirties and the fighting forties.

Instead of a sweet but unworlly mother, there is Louise, Louise (Rosalind Russell), who at the beginning of a brief but rowdy business career, kicks off the hat of her first boss (Alan Hale) and terminates it by parking cars at the New York World's Fair. In the intervening years, she raises a handful of tikes who resemble little sticks of dynamite looking for a place to explode. Standing fast in the cellar and inventing gadgets as is the custom of screen family fathers, is Harold (Jack Carson), her husband, Harold, who flies planes, sells vacuum cleaners, grows ten-thousand roses and loves Louise, all with the same reckless yet tender abandon. Just a guy with a million dreams and the same girl in every one. And the kids (played in various ages by Ann Lawrence, Mona Freeman, Mickey Kuhn, Johnny Treul, John Sheridan, Jo Ann Marlowe, Patsy Lee Persons, Gregory Muradian, John Sheffield, Robert Arthur, Andrea King, Robert Hutton, and Jean Sullivan) stricken with infantile paralysis, but who still had the guts to smile.

Here at last, is the real American family scraped clean of Hollywood's sick veneer . . . fresh and straight and strong. This is the America . . . of which we song.

Murray

MRS. OLIN E. MORRIS, Correspondent

Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich are new comers here, coming from Iowa. They are living in the apartment in Mrs. Meisinger's house.

Kenneth Redden has been transferred from Ft. Riley, Kans., to Camp Peckett, Va. He spent a few days enroute with his parents here.

A group of ladies drove to Omaha Monday to surprise Mrs. Everett Spangler on her birthday. They took a noon day lunch with them and also presented the surprised hostess with a gift of flowers. The ladies making up the party were Mrs. George Reeke, Mrs. G. H. Gilmore, Mrs. Rachael Paris, Mrs. Ora Davis, Mrs. Wm. Seybolt and Mrs. C. D. Spangler. Mrs. Nolting, mother of Mrs. Everett Spangler was also present. She is visiting with her daughter for a few days.

Mrs. James Comstock and son Charles and Mrs. Charles Mead were calling on Mr. Mead at the Methodist hospital in Omaha on Monday. Mr. Mead's health is improving rapidly and he hopes to return home soon. This was the first visit with him from Mrs. Mead as she had also been ill.

Ernest Clark has returned to Murray after making his home in Plattsmouth the past few months. He is now residing in Mrs. Hatcher's house.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boedecker and family returned Sunday from Stanwood, Iowa where they have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stewart. They found Iowa covered with a heavy blanket of snow and encountered very bad driving conditions both going and coming.

S Sgt. Dale Wahlforth, left for Camp Crowder, Mo., last Thursday where he will receive his discharge from the army.

The Jolly Sewers 4-H club is meeting on Tuesday at the home of Ann Marilyn Tyson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Noel entertained at dinner last Wednesday in honor of their son, Eugene. It was his first birthday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lancaster, Janice and Nancy Jean, Mr. Aubrey Zech, Mr. Ben Noel, Mrs. Betty Barrows and Roger and Duane Noel.

For the first time in over a year the Spangler family were all together for an hour Sunday morning. Present were Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Spangler, Mrs. Margaret Todd, Dick Todd, on leave from the Smokey Hill Army Air Field at Salina, Kans., Mr. and Mrs. Everett Spangler of Omaha, Charlene, home on a short vacation from Iowa State college and Charles, who had arrived a few hours before to spend a few hours at home. Charles is stationed in Chicago at Navy Pier attending a radar school. Dinner guests that day also included Mr. and Mrs. Verner Perry of Big Springs and Mrs. W. A. Cook of Elmwood who later visited with Mrs. Addie Perry.
