MRS. GRACE PLYBON, Correspondent

Mrs. Ella Boyles was quite ill on Sunday, but is better at this writing.

The November meeting of the Bluebird Club was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Marshall. Those present report than an especially fine lunch was enjoyed.

Mr. Fred Wilkens was operated upon at Bryan Hospital on Saturday. He stood the test quite well, and it is hoped that his health may return to normal in the near future.

Peter and Roland Spath of Aurora, Nebr., were Friday overnight visitors at the home of Frank and Amy Hoffman.

Mr. Jay Stanton has sold his car to Mr. Stabendeck, and now has his order in for a new one.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lind of Lincoln were Thanksgiving day guests at the Methodist parsonage.

Sunday guests with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hollenbeck were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Miller and Mrs. Ruth Manning and Rachel.

On Monday Mr. Charles Miller had an appendectomy at Bryan Memorial. Since the ailment had become chronic with him he decided it was best to have it while it was not so bad.

Mrs. Hattie Royer Shepherd writes from Lexington that her daughter Mary is now a nurse in Olathe Hospital in Hawaii. She completed a cadet nursing course in Denver some months ago.

The Evangelical Ladies Missionary group met with Mrs. Nora Kunz on Wednesday November 14.

Miss Elsie Kunz drove to Lincoln on Thursday to meet her father, Mr. Cape who had been out-state visiting his two sons.

Mrs. Muench and Miss Lillie are planning to live in an apartment at the Douglas home until they purchase a house.

A Thanksgiving family dinner was held with Mrs. Douglas and Mrs. Gerbeling.

Mr. George Trull is shingling on the roof at the Frank Gustin residence.

Miss Leona Wilkens is again acting as nurse in Bryan hospital after being at Hastings working for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Irons have a fifty fifth wedding anniversary Tuesday.

Mrs. Theo Thimgan passed away at Wabash while visiting her sister Mrs. Richards, on Tuesday. Funeral services are to be at Elmwood Methodist church on Friday. Mrs. Thimgan had been living at Lincoln with her daughter, Opal, since the death of Mrs. Thimgan.

Kitchen Fat Will Have to be Saved For Long Time

NEW YORK . . . Confusion and destruction in the Philippines as the main cause of scarcity of industrial fats and oils is pictured by Kenneth B. Day, formerly manager of two of the largest oil processing mills in the Islands.

Mr. Day, who has recently returned to this country after three years of internment by the Japanese, points out that until the coconut oil of the Philippines is again coming into this country at the prewar rate, kitchen fat salvage will continue to be needed in the United States.

"The whole inter-island transportation system, those small boats by which the copra was picked up from the outlying districts, has been shot to pieces. The boats were sunk by the Japanese. And it takes time to reorganize and to rebuild. It doesn't do any good to start making copra unless you've got trucks to haul it, and vessels to carry it to market."

"Our own bombs did a lot of damage and the retreating Japanese burned all they could. We can rebuild our mills, but we must first be able to get machinery, supplies and men. And even if they were in working condition, up to now we can't get any elec-trio power in Manila to run the space for trade goods—shoes, cotton goods, canned milk, canned fish and rice—things that are still short in the States. Commodities are still the only real bargaining power. Money can mean nothing to a Filipino or to anyone else, unless he can buy what he needs with it."

Every pound of used cooking fat turned over to the meat dealer helps make up the deficit, and enables American industry to turn out greater quantities scarce personal and household needs.

"Shipping space to the Islands is at a premium, and we need
