Foster Home is Damaged by Fire

Fire swept through the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Foster at 17th and Granite Street Tuesday night leaving the residence almost a total loss. Both trucks from the Plattsmouth volunteer fire department fought the blaze for over two hours from about 10:45 p. m. until 1:15 a. m.

The fire, which apparently started between the walls, burned nearly all of the furniture, damaged the interior of the house itself and destroyed a large portion of the roof. Cause of the fire or where it started was not determined. Jack Foster received a cut on his arm when he reached through a broken window glass to recover some valuable personal papers.

Long Hose The firemen had to lay three blocks of hose in order to get water to fight the blaze and the portable pump on the fire truck provided ample pressure. Sheriff Joe Mrasek directed traffic along the street.
