Cascades

BUILDING NOTES — Building and redecorating are on the increase in Cass county. Over at Weeping Water painters are going to be busy men for the next few weeks. A new porch has been added to the Elgaard apartment house, writes The Daily Journal correspondent...

Both in Dazed Condition

Grant was reported to have had all the teeth of his upper jaw knocked out. He also suffered a broken jaw bone and leg and nose injuries. Shera sustained a leg injury and facial cuts. Both boys were said to be in a dazed condition from the shock of the accident and Shera Deputy Sheriff Emery J. Doody said Friday, was at times unable to tell what had happened.

Had Been in Lincoln

Grant left the car after the accident, he told Sheriff Mrasek, and walked down the road to a farmhouse where he persuaded the farmer to call the sheriff. Shera was still in the car with the steering wheel pinning him to the seat when the officers arrived. Neither of the boys was able to tell Sheriff Mrasek what they were doing on the Cedar Creek road or who was in the car ahead of them.

16 Candidates Initiated Into Eagles Lodge

Sixteen candidates were initiated into the Plattsmouth Aerie No. 365, Fraternal Order of Eagles, Thursday night at the Eagles hall as the local lodge observed its 43rd anniversary. The degree team from the Omaha Aerie No. 38 was in charge of the initiation.

THAT NEW BIKE

It took a little while, but T. H. (Bert) Pollock finally found a new bicycle. No, it wasn't for himself; it was for Larry Mortensen, The Daily Journal carrier boy. You'll recall Bert and Larry were involved in a minor auto-bicycle meeting. Larry came out okay but his bike was second best and Bert said he would get Larry a new bike. It wasn't easy because new bicycles are hard to come by. But Bert was determined and now Larry is the proud owner of a new vehicle, thanks to Bert.

TID BITS

The new city council stepped into office for a few minutes Wednesday night following adjournment of the old council and it was difficult to get used to all those empty chairs for a while. The countywide achievement program of the home demonstration project club will be held Tuesday at Weeping Water.

BIG SCOOP

When The Daily Journal learned about the labor riots in Butte, Mont., we had visions of a dandy eyewitness account of the upheaval because we knew E. H. (Barney) Bernhard was in Butte. Well, Barney was no riot as far as he was concerned. He saw the strikers and sensed the bitter feeling among the people but Barney did not know anything about the riot until he read it in the newspapers in Idaho, the day after the rioters had turned things topsy-turvy. He saw a Butte school building burn and he noticed lots of shattered glass near his car when he went out to get it the morning after the riots. So The Daily Journal didn't get any eyewitness story, alas and alack.

Two High School Boys Hurt When Car Strikes Bridge

Two Plattsmouth high school senior boys narrowly escaped possible serious injuries Thursday night about 11:45 p. m. when the car in which they were riding crashed into a bridge about 4 miles west of Plattsmouth.

Charles R. Shera, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shera, Rock Bluff, and Robert Grant, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grant who live near Plattsmouth, were both injured when the 1930 Ford coupe that Grant said Shera was driving west careened into a bridge west of Four Mile creek on Cedar Creek road, Sheriff Joe Mrasek reported Friday.

The boys were taken to their homes by their fathers after they had been treated by Dr. L. S. Pucelik.

WEEPING WATER NOTES

There are other activities at Weeping Water, too, says Mrs. Murty. The young people of the Christian church have leased the lot adjoining the church on the east and will use it for a community center and playground. And last night the senior class presented the play, "The Mummy and the Mumps," under the direction of Mrs. Irma Elgaard.

Rev. Tuckek Is Deanery Speaker At Dunbar

Rev. Edward Tuckek, pastor of the Holy Rosary Catholic church, was one of the principal speakers during the afternoon session of the Plattsmouth deanery of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women held at Dunbar Thursday.

Father Tuckek used as his subject, "Catholic War Relief," and spoke on it from a world-wide basis. He said that 500,000,000 people were in danger of dying of starvation and that we as Christians are obliged to alleviate the suffering in the war torn countries. He also announced that, according to a bulletin from the headquarters of Catholic war relief in Washington, D. C., there will be another collection of food made in the near future similar to the one made last fall.

Other speakers during the afternoon were Rev. Ingenhorst who spoke on "Out Lady of Good Counsel," and Rev. Orzechowski who spoke on Catholic homes.

The Right Reverend Monsignor George Agius, pastor of St. John's Catholic church and dean of the Plattsmouth deanery, gave a few words of greetings to the assembly during the morning session following the address of welcome by Rev. Edward Orzechowski of Julian and Dunbar and the response by Rev. Charles Bauer of St. Benedict's parish in Nebraska City.

Mrs. Fred Rea and Mrs. John Hadraha were the delegates in attendance from Plattsmouth.

Mrs. Rea was elected recording secretary of the deanery. Fifty Women Register Approximately 50 women registered for the meeting and six priests were present. Rev. E. C. McFadden of Syracuse was present in addition to those mentioned.

Officers Are Elected

Officers were elected during the morning session. Mrs. Ed McCord was re-elected president; Mrs. George Millar, Nebraska City, was re-elected first vice-president; Mrs. Earl Kasbohn, Nebraska City, was re-elected second vice-president; Mrs. Fred Rea recording secretary; Mrs. Carl Zaiser, Avoca, treasurer; Miss Edith Francois, Paul, chairman of organization and historian; Mrs. J. J. Cullen, Avoca, corresponding secretary; Miss Phyllis Straub, Avoca, parliamentarian; Miss Clara Kraft, Syracuse was re-elected auditor.

Delegates to the diocesan convention to be held in Lincoln May 7 and 8 are Mrs. William Siffert, Plattsmouth, and Mrs. Joe Watz, Dunbar, with Mrs. Helmer of Nebraska City and Mrs. J. L. Hadraha of Plattsmouth chosen as alternates.

The noon luncheon was served in the parlors of the Presbyterian church at Dunbar by the women of that church. Special music for the luncheon and for the afternoon session was furnished by the young people of the Dunbar parish.

A business session and discussions by various women in the group and the reading of resolutions concluded the afternoon session.

Group Will Canvass City Monday on Aid To School Proposal

Preliminary work on the organization of a group to conduct a canvass of Plattsmouth Monday to obtain signatures on a petition for the proposed constitutional amendment to provide state aid for local schools was completed at a meeting in the high school auditorium Thursday night, Supt. T. I. Friest said Friday.

A complete list of canvassers will be made up today, Supt. Friest said, and the final arrangements for canvassing the city Monday will also be completed today.

The city was divided into areas at the meeting last night when the proposed amendment was discussed at length and questions concerning it was answered.
