

Murray

Mrs. C. D. Spangler

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wolfarth, Mrs. Dale Wolfarth and Mrs. Selma Nelson were Omaha visitors Friday.

Dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Tutt Sunday were their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Staska of Nebraska City, former Murray residents. Their son, Eugene Staska, who has been in the navy about two years, expects to be discharged and at home in a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Frank Dill entertained the members of the Aid society of the Otterbein church at her home last Wednesday afternoon.

Edna Marie Marler has had as her guests some friends. They were Miss Jenny Hauck of Portland, Ore., formerly of Crete, and Raymond Gilsdorf of Inglewood, Calif. After a few days visit at her home she accompanied them to Henry, S. D., where they are spending sometime visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Ralph Sullivan, Mrs. Tomer Headley, Mrs. Arthur Hansen and Miss Margaret Moore were visiting and shopping in Nebraska City Thursday.

Mrs. Anna Rhoden was visiting at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Aleck Rhoden, in Plattsmouth Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Rhoden recently celebrated her birthday anniversary, and to help her remember the day she was presented a Bible which is printed in large type which will enable her to read since her eyes are not as good as they were. The Bible was a gift from the Women's Bible class of the United Presbyterian Church of which Mrs. Rhoden is a member.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cole of Brule arrived in Murray Friday afternoon for a visit at the Spangler home. On Saturday they drove on to Plattsmouth and vicinity where they visited Sunday with Mr. Cole's mother and other relatives, leaving Monday for their home in the west. Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Spangler are sisters.

Mrs. John Frans was hostess to her pinocle club Thursday evening. As one member was absent, Jack played for her and thought it great sport.

George Thompson and family have moved into the property which they recently purchased and are now residents of Murray again, after living on the farm the past year.

Mrs. Fred Hild was one of many who was present at the mother-daughter banquet Sunday evening at the Christ Lutheran church near Louisville. Mrs. Henry Hild went as her daughter. They had an enjoyable evening and a wonderful dinner.

Mrs. Gus Hansen and her little grand son, Bryce Hansen spent Thursday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fred Hild.

Mrs. Alice Wagner, accompanied by her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Wagner, and young son, Stevie, departed Monday morning for their home in Thorntown Ind., after a visit of several days with her mother, Mrs. Alice Creamer.

Guests of Mrs. Alameda Fleming Sunday for dinner and the day were her brother-in-law, Torrance Fleming, and Mrs. Fleming of Los Angeles and their son Lyl Fleming and family of Weeping Water.

Mr. and Mrs. Parr Young have returned from a visit of a few days with their daughter, Mrs. Townner Livingston, and family at Jefferson, Iowa.

Mrs. Jane Dill is recuperating nicely at home since her long hospitalization at the Nebraska City hospital.

Dr. Richard Brendle has now opened his office on Main street in Plattsmouth and is ready to take up his practice. Until living quarters are available he and Mrs. Brendle will continue to make their home in Murray with his mother, Mrs. Margaret Brendle.

Quite a large delegation of interested farmers from this locality joined the caravan which visited the cattle yards in eastern Cass county Thursday.

E. S. Tutt reports the completion of his job as assessor of West Rock Bluffs precinct. He finished last Saturday.

Murray is fortunate in having a barber in town again after so long a time without one. The new barber is Paul Schantell and the shop is in the brick building on upper Main street.

Mrs. Rachel Faris was visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Rieke and family near Union Saturday and upon return home she was accompanied by Phyllis Rieke, who spent the night with her grandmother.

Mrs. Ray Creamer is a surgery patient at the Methodist hospital in Omaha.

Mrs. Rose Marie Bradford of Lincoln is a guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Thompson this week.

Behind the 8-Ball
LEXINGTON, Ky. (UP) — He may have a lucky number but it certainly was not "eight" for a defendant at a murder trial here recently. After each of the attorneys had made his closing argument, and the verdict was given, the judge gave the timing on the case. Each attorney spoke for eight minutes. The jury deliberated eight minutes. The sentence—eight years.
