

PLATTSMOUTH PERSONALS

EAGLE COUPLE MARRIED AT MARYSVILLE, KANSAS

EAGLE, (Special)—Miss Marjorie Root, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Root of Eagle, became the bride of Howard E. Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Collins of Bremerton, Wash., and formerly of the Eagle and Alvo communities, in a ceremony performed at Marysville, Kans., June 14.

The couple was attended by the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Moore of Aurora. Also present at the wedding were the bride's parents and Gary Moore.

Returns from Two Week Vacation in California

Miss Geraldine Maasen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Maasen, returned home Saturday morning from a two week vacation in Fairfield, Calif., where she visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Hatfield and the Woodruff family. While there, she also visited in San Francisco.

Miss Maasen has been employed at the United States employment service in Omaha as a statistical clerk since she graduated from high school two years ago.

Missionary Circle Meets Thursday Afternoon

The Women's Missionary circle of the First Christian church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. G. Ofc. Ten members were present.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Clovis Day, who also gave the financial report as treasurer for the year. Program chairman was Mrs. Ed Thimgan. Refreshments were served.

Circle One of Methodist Church Meets Thursday Afternoon

Circle One of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Bourck with Miss Ethel McCamley and Mrs. McCamley and Mrs. C. E. Welshmer as assistant hostesses. Seventeen members were present.

The business meeting was presided over by Mrs. J. B. Rishel, chairman of the circle. Mrs. Ralph Wiles was in charge of the devotional program. Excerpts from the Christian Advocate, church publication, were read by Mrs. R. B. Hayes.

Sustains Injuries When Thrown from Horse

Alfred Natress of Plattsmouth is in the University hospital in Omaha recovering from injuries sustained when he was thrown from a horse a few days ago.

Circle Meets at St. John's Hall Wednesday Evening

Circle Two of St. John's Altar society met Wednesday evening at St. John's hall. Hostesses were Mrs. Josephine Ulrich, Mrs. Albert Ulrich, Mrs. Carl Ulrich and Mrs. Warren Wheeler. Twelve members were present.

Wipf Granted Divorce

Roy J. Wipf was awarded a divorce from Hazel V. Wipf in district court Friday on a cross-petition. Custody of the minor child was awarded to Hazel Wipf and Wipf was ordered to pay $25 a month for support and all costs. Property settlement was made to both parties.

Returns to Chicago

Mrs. Thomas Root of Chicago left Wednesday after visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bourck for a few days.

Recovering in Indiana Hospital

Rose Marie Lillie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lillie, former residents, is in St. Margaret's hospital in Hammond, Ind., where she is recovering from an operation following a nose and throat infection.

Legion Auxiliary at Union Holds Election of Officers

UNION, (Special)—Members of the American Legion Auxiliary met at the Legion hall Tuesday evening for a business meeting and election of officers. A report was given by Virginia Attebery, who had been chosen to attend Girls' State in Lincoln.

Officers Elected were Mrs. Charles Attebery, president; Mrs. Bruce Wolfe, vice-president; Mrs. Harry Gobleman, secretary; Mrs. Eugene Scodes, historian; Mrs. L. R. Upton, chaplain and Mrs. Winnie Crawford and Mrs. Gallant Rakes, sergeants-at-arms.

Union Women's Club Attends "Breakfast at the Arbor"

UNION, (Special)—The Union Women's club attended "Breakfast at the Arbor" at Nebraska City Thursday at 8:45 a. m. Two of the members, Mrs. Delbert Lindsey and Mrs. George Stine entered "the craziest hat contest." Mrs. Lindsey modeled a creation centered around a large salad ring mould, and Mrs. Stine wore a hat consisting of a sieve covered with an abundance of ribbons.

The movie, "Breakfast in Hollywood," was shown to the group after which they had lunch at the coffee shop.

Those attending from Union were Mrs. Delbert Lindsey, Norma and Freddy; Mrs. Norris, Mrs. Harry Gobleman; Mrs. L. B. Morsey; Mrs. Oscar Smith; Mrs. L. R. Upton Mrs. Ivan Balfour; Mrs. Earl Upton; Mrs. Lee Farris; Mrs. Herman Comer; Mrs. D. Ray Farris; Mrs. George Stine; Mrs. Carl Cross; and Mrs. L. G. Todd.

Wedding Gown Pageant To Be Feature of Luncheon Thursday

UNION, (Special)—The women's Society of Christian Service of Union Methodist church will serve a one o'clock luncheon at the Legion hall Thursday, June 27.

The luncheon will be followed by a pageant of wedding gowns modeled by the members of the organization.

Leave for Chicago Sunday Evening

Miss Mary Altschaff left Sunday evening to return to Chicago after a week's vacation spent here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Altschaff. She is employed at Carson, Pierce, Scott and Co., one of the largest department stores in Chicago.

Miss Altschaff was accompanied by her sister, Betty, who will spend a week in Chicago before going on to Kearney, N. J., where she will spend the rest of the summer with another sister, Mrs. Anna Norris.

Attend Picnic in Nebraska City Sunday

John Royer of Corning, Calif., who is here visiting relatives, was an honored guest Sunday at a picnic in Nebraska City. Those attending from Plattsmouth were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Royer and children, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Royer and Patty, Mr. and Mrs. George Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Porter and children, Mrs. Nellie Dalton, and Mrs. Thelma Royer.

Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lancaster and children, Mr. and Mrs. Malvern Read and children, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Farris and children, Ida Hoschar, DeWayne Noell, Minnie Mae Hoschar of Murray; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Royer and children, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kahn of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. William Royer and children, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dalton and children of Nebraska City; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Garrett and children of Dunbar; Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Dalton and children of Union; and Mrs. Harry Bickett and children of Nehawka.

Attend Job's Daughter Meeting in Alliance

A group of Plattsmouth people attended the meeting of Grand Council of Job's Daughters in Alliance held Thursday evening and Friday. Representing the Plattsmouth Bethel were Miss Clara Weyrich, Guardian of the Bethel and Grand Guardian of the State of Nebraska, Miss Alice Weyrich, Beverly Brubacher, Honored Queen; and Edna Marie Marler, Past Honored Queen. The group left Plattsmouth Tuesday morning and returned Sunday evening.

The convention was formally opened with a banquet held Thursday evening in the dining room of Many distinguished guests were the Masonic Temple in Alliance, present, and almost every Bethel in Nebraska was represented.

The girls assembled for a breakfast Friday morning, held a short meeting to elect honor officers for the coming year. The remainder of the morning was spent in listening to reports and transacting matters of business. Memorial services for departed members followed.

Recovering from Operation

Mrs. Henry Nolting is in the Methodist hospital in Omaha where she was operated on last Thursday. She is reported to be recovering satisfactorily.

Returns from Hospital

Theresa Slatinsky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slatinsky, returned Tuesday evening from the St. Catherine's hospital in Omaha where she had undergone an emergency appendectomy last Wednesday.

To Visit in Iowa

Mrs. John Schreiner and son, John Dean, left Sunday to visit with her mother for ten days at Farley, Iowa, her former home.

Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben, are now on sale at the Plattsmouth State bank, Frank Clويد announced Monday. The air show will be held at Offutt field, Fort Crook, July 18-21. After June 29 the tickets will be increased in price.

Elmwood Girl Weds Silver Creek Man

ELMWOOD, (Special)—The daughter of Miss Margaret Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Cook, and Robert Tooker of Silver Creek was solemnized at the Methodist church Sunday evening at 8 p. m. with Rev. C. H. Lind officiating. Wedding music was played by Darlene Hollenbeck, and preceding the ceremony Norma Beryl Clements sang "Through the Years" and "Because."

Gladys Bowman of Albion was the bridesmaid, and Norman Tooker served as best man. The ring bearer was the bride's little cousin from Los Angeles.

A reception was held in the church basement following the ceremony. About 125 guests attended.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will spend the summer on a farm near Silver Creek. In the fall they will go to Lincoln, where the bridegroom will complete his university course, which was interrupted by his service in the navy.

Mrs. Tooker graduated this year from the college of agriculture with a bachelor of science degree.

Visit at Knorr Home

Guests at the Roy Knorr home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Panzer of Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Peterson of Omaha and Mrs. T. A. Wittstuck of St. Petersburg, Fla., who is visiting the Knorr family here.

Bob Tucker of Portsmouth, N. H., fiancé of Miss Jean Knorr, arrived Sunday evening.

To Spend Summer in Minnesota

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peterson left Wednesday morning for their cottage on Sanda's beach at East Battle lake near Henning, Minn. They plan to return late in September.

Receives Wings of Navy Pilot at Florida Station

Ensign Howard A. Bornemeier of Wabash recently received the gold wings of a navy pilot at the naval air station at Pensacola, Fla.

Having completed primary and basic flight training, he has been designated a naval aviator. Members of his class who elect to remain in the navy will proceed to advanced training.

D.A.R. Chapter Meets Tuesday Evening

Fontenelle chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. E. H. Wescott. The evening was spent in looking up source material relative to the Revolutionary war and the people who had a part in it. The group discovered that many unthought of sources provide information of the type the society is interested in.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Starkjohns Return Monday From Cottage in Minnesota

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Starkjohn returned Monday afternoon from a ten day stay at their cottage on Sanda's beach at East Battle lake near Henning, Minn. They plan to spend the month of August at the cottage also.

They report that the weather there has been quite cool this spring and that the crops are far behind those here.

Degree of Honor Meets Tuesday Afternoon

The Degree of Honor met at the home of Mrs. Fred Haffke Tuesday at 2 p. m. for a regular business meeting.

Games were played following the discussion of business. First prize was won by Mrs. James Bulin and consolation prize by Mrs. Hans Seivers. Refreshments were served.

Has Appendectomy Tuesday

Carol Lou Bernhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bernhardt, underwent an appendectomy Tuesday morning at St. Catherine's hospital in Omaha.

Fourth Horse Ride of Season Held Sunday

ALVO, (Special)—In spite of the terrific heat and wind Sunday, 85 persons gathered at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Grosshans on the south edge of Plattsmouth to attend the fourth horse ride of the season.

Each family brought a basket of food, and dinner was served on the lawn at noon.

The ride began at 2 p. m. with 48 horses and riders joining in. They rode east of the Grosshans home to the river, crossing the bridge to the island owned by William Rapp which is the site of the newly constructed government saw mill.

Upon the riders' return, ice cream and cake was served each guest by Mrs. Grosshans.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Angwert and Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Backenier and Sandra Jean of Murdock; Mr. and Mrs. Emil Rieke, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Heier of Alvo; Leslie Loomis and son of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. John Stapp and family of Nebraska City; Mr. and Mrs. Hebard and son, Ginger Philpot, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray and son, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Oldham and family of Weeping Water; Mr. and Mrs. Orville Noel and Alice, Ed Norris, Mr. Opal Morris and Gary of Mur-

Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stone and family, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Weick, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schaefer and family of Nehawka; Rex Young, Mr. and Mrs. Wally For-noff and family, Mr. and Mrs. Shrader Rhoden, Delbert Albion, Ray Story, Dell Godes, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wiles and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Born and family, Fred Wehrbein, June Keil, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Keil, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wetenkamp and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Davis and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Grosshans and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wile and family of Plattsmouth.

AVOCA COUPLE SPEAK VOWS IN CANDELIGHT CEREMONY

AVOCA, (Special)—Miss Margaret Merie Berner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Berner, and Glen Stubbendich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stubbendich, were married in a candlelight ceremony at the North Branch church June 5 at 7:30 p. m. The marriage lines were read by Rev. George Bergstrasser. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Harold Hauschild and Mrs. Lesly Berner sang "O Perfect Love," accompanied by Mrs. Bergstrasser. Mrs. Hauschild wore a lilac taffeta dress with net trim, and Mrs. Berner wore blue taffeta. Their corsages were pink.

The bride was gowned in a white satin dress with long sleeves and high neckline. The skirt was marquisette and fell into a three yard train. The dress was trimmed in nylon lace. Her veil was finger tip length and she carried white gardenias and a white bible with streamers. The pearls she wore were the gift of the bridegroom.

Betty Lou Stubbendich and Cheryl Berner, nieces of the bride and groom, carried the ring on a white lily.

Bridesmaids were Miss Elva Hauschild and Miss LaVerta Hillman both of Lincoln. They were dressed in white and wore white lace hats and white gloves with pink corsages. The matron of honor was Miss Dorothy Zahn of Syracuse, who was dressed like the bride's maids and carried red roses.

Best man was Carl Stubbendich, brother of the bridegroom. Other attendants were Paul Ottens and Willis Wohlers.

Mr. and Mrs. Stubbendich went to Colorado on a wedding trip. They will make their home west of Avoca.

Mrs. Stubbendich attended Avoca high school but was graduated from Syracuse. She taught school for three years in Otoe county. Mr. Stubbendich graduated from Avoca high school and has farmed in this community for several years.

Achievement Day Celebrated By Weeping Water 4-H Club

WEeping WATER, (Special)—Achievement day was celebrated Monday by the True Blue Keep Well 4-H club members when they entertained their mothers at the home of their leader, Mrs. J. M. Ranney. Benjy Olive presided and introduced the members of the club, who sang their club song, gave their club yell and their club motto, then gave short talks. Richard Gibson spoke on "Bicycles," Dean Stratton on "First Aid," Lloyd Sell on "Shoes," A. L. Bickford on "Feet," and Benjy Olive on "Clothing." This was followed by a poem by Miss Margaret Ranney after which the guests were invited to ask the boys questions.

A social hour followed the program, and refreshments were served.

Mothers who attended were Mrs. Harla Gibson, Mrs. Lee Stratton, Mrs. Ben Olive, Mrs. Henry Knaup and Mrs. A. L. Bickford. Other guests were Mrs. Charles Gibson, Mrs. Clarence Schmadeke, Mrs. Thomas Murty, Susan Hobson and Carol Ambler.

WILBER COUPLE MARRIED HERE IN QUIET CEREMONY

Miss Darlene E. Eldred and William H. Janda, both of Wilber, were married in a quiet ceremony performed at the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church Thursday at 4 p. m. by Rev. E. J. Moritz. They were attended by the bridegroom's niece, Mrs. Elmer Kohout, also of Wilber, and her husband.

The bride wore a lime green suit with brown accessories. Mrs. Kohout wore a suit of darker green also with brown accessories. Their corsages were of red roses. Mr. Janda and his attendant both wore brown business suits and white boutonnières.

The bridegroom is a brother of Mrs. Louis Swoboda of this city. A six-thirty wedding dinner was served by Mrs. Swoboda with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Carl Roessler, assisting.

Mr. and Mrs. Janda will be visiting in Plattsmouth during the next week.

Leave for Washington

Mr. and Mrs. Dode Clappool left Thursday morning for their home in Longview, Wash. They had been visiting here with relatives and friends.

They were accompanied by Mrs. William Meints, who will spend a month with them in Washington.

Rainbow Sewing Club Meets ALVO, (Special)—The Rainbow Sewing club met at the home of Mrs. Norris to organize the second year cooking club and elect officers. Eight members and one visitor, Alison Taulker, were present. Averil Clark was elected president; Brooks Schueler, vice-president; Virginia Herkman, secretary; Norma Jean Elliott, news reporter, and Jeanette Reuter, song leader.

Mother-Daughter Luncheon Held in Weeping Water

WEeping WATER, (Special)—A large group of mothers and daughters attended the annual luncheon given in their honor Wednesday at the Congressional church. Mrs. Lloyd Ranney acted as toastmaster and presented a program composed of readings, responses and musical selections.

The first toast, "Mother-in-law," was responded to by Mrs. Carl Day. Following two clarinet solos by Miss Mary Ann Pryor, the daughters were welcomed by Mrs. J. M. Ranney, with Mrs. Richmond Hobson giving the response. Jane Lorenson and Gertrude Olive sang a duet, "Mighty Lak a Rose," accompanied by Martha Jane Wallick. Readings were given by Mrs. Clarence Norris, Marie Belle, Mrs. Ben Olive, Mrs. E. E. Lorenson, Susan Woods, and Sarah Hobson. Following a duet, "Haymakers Frolic," by Mrs. C. V. Wallick and Martha Jane Wallick, the program was closed with a reading about daughters given by Mrs. Rasmus Lauritzen, jr.

The oldest mother present was Mrs. Mary Blaikie, 87, and the youngest, Mrs. Lloyd Lauritzen, 25. Having the most daughters present was Mrs. Rasmus Lauritzen, jr., with three daughters, Mary Ellen Wood, 10½-month-old daughter of Mrs. Stanley Wood, was the youngest daughter present. Three generations at the luncheon were Mrs. Helen Clark, Mrs. Richmond Hobson and Susan Hobson; Mrs. George Ellis, Mrs. Bonny LaRue and Patty LaRue. The mother coming the longest distance was Mrs. Helen Wallick.

Out of town visitors were Mrs. L. B. Gorthy of Murdock and Mrs. Harry Larkin of Troy, N. Y. One mother, Mrs. Julius Nielsen, and one daughter, June Everett, were celebrating their birthdays on that day.

Mrs. Arthur Jones was chairman of the luncheon committee.

Circle Three of Presbyterian Church Meets Wednesday

Circle Three of the Women's Federation of the Presbyterian church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Nellie Spangler with Mrs. John Vallery and Mrs. Addie Perry as assistant hostesses.

The meeting was opened by the chairman, Mrs. Anna Wiles. The group united in the Lord's Prayer under the leadership of Mrs. Kermit Schneider and sang "In the Garden," accompanied by Mrs. Frank Clويد. Devotions were given by Mrs. Schneider on the topic "Gardens of the Bible." Following the business meeting, the missionary program was also given by Mrs. Schneider on the devotional topic.

Seventeen members and one visitor were present.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Weather Changes Meeting Place of Church Circle

Due to rainy weather and the consequent condition of the roads, Circle Four of the Women's Federation of the Presbyterian church met in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon instead of at the home of Mrs. Robert Jacobs as originally scheduled. Hostesses were Mrs. R. A. Cundall, Mrs. Virgil Perry, Mrs. Ed Wehrbein and Mrs. Robert Jacobs.

Mrs. Herman Tiekotter, chairman of the circle, presided at the business meeting. Devotions and the missionary lesson was given by Mrs. William Schmidtman, jr.

Twelve members and one visitor attended the meeting.

Attend Installation of Job's Daughters in Omaha Thursday

Miss Clara Weyrich, past grand guardian of Job's Daughters, attended the installation services of the Florence Bethel in Omaha Thursday evening. She was accompanied by Mrs. G. E. Brubacher, Miss Beverly Brubacher, Miss Margaret Smith, and Miss Betty Meisinger.

Girls in charge of the dinner were Jenie Lee Spidell, Frances Mary Jane Harris, and Frances Duda.

Circle Holds Last Meeting for Summer Wednesday Evening

Mrs. Lillian Livingston was hostess Wednesday evening to Circle Four of the Women's Federation of the Presbyterian church. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Ruth Wurga, Miss Shirley Jacobs, Miss Eleanor Gilley, and Mrs. Paul Fauquet.

Mrs. Fauquet was in charge of the lesson, which was given on world peace. The missionary program was under the leadership of Mrs. Floyd Becker.

Hold Firemaker Dinner Sunday

The firemaker girls of the Odako group of Campfire Girls held their firemaker dinner Sunday noon in the parlors of the Holy Rosary church. Parents of the girls were guests at the dinner, which is one of the requirements for the rank of firemaker.

Clinkenbeard, Dian Reichstadt, Girls in charge of the dinner were Jenie Lee Spidell, Frances Mary Jane Harris, and Frances Duda.

Guests at Alkire Home

Guests at the Harold J. Alkire home during the weekend are Mrs. Alkire's brother, Arthur Harvey of Los Angeles, and her nephew, Ted Harvey, seaman first class, who is on leave from a training station in Kansas. They arrived here Thursday.

Lt. Clويد Arrives on Leave

Miss Maxine Clويد, lieutenant in the Waves, arrived home Thursday morning from the national naval medical center in Bethesda, Md., to spend a 60-day convalescent leave. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clويد.

Finced For Speeding

Marvin L. Murphy, Lincoln, was fined $14 and costs in the County court of Judge Paul Fauquet after being found guilty of speeding Monday afternoon.

Seventeen Members, Seven Guests Present at Circle Meeting

Circle Three of the Women's Guild of the St. Paul's church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ed Meisinger, with Mrs. Frank Bierl and Mrs. Donald Born as associate hostesses.

Seventeen members and seven guests were present.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Fred Lugsch. Following the business meeting, games were played.

Lunch was served by the hostesses.

Church Circle Meets at Home of Mrs. Verna Goos

Seventeen members and two guests were present at the meeting of Circle Two of the Women's Federation of the Presbyterian church held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Verna Goos. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. W. C. Soennichsen, Mrs. W. E. Rosencrans, and Mrs. O. C. Dovey.

Mrs. E. C. Giles and Mrs. Etta Gorder were in charge of the devotions and missionary lesson, which was given on home missions.

Refreshments were served.

Adult Fellowship Class Meets Wednesday Evening

The Adult Fellowship class of the Methodist church met Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carr with Mrs. Theodore Yelick as the assistant hostess. The business meeting was presided over by S. E. Hatcher, president of the class. Earl Carr was appointed devotional chairman of the class. He was also elected to serve as assistant teacher.

The next meeting will be a picnic at Mandin park in Omaha July 12. Members of the class are to meet at the church at 6 p. m.

Following the business meeting games were played.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Gleaners Circle Meets Thursday Evening

Mrs. R. C. Humiston was hostess to the members of the Gleaners circle of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church Thursday evening. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. William Highfield, jr., and Mrs. Frank Lillie.

Mrs. Charles Walden, chairman of the circle, presided over the business meeting. Miss Margaret Mapes led the devotionals, and Mrs. J. H. Davis had charge of the lesson, which was taken from the Christian Advocate, church publication.

Games were played under the direction of Mrs. Humiston. Refreshments were served.

St. John's Altar Society Meets Wednesday Afternoon

Circle One of the St. John's Altar Society met Wednesday afternoon at St. John's hall. The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. E. J. Doody, chairman; Mrs. J. J. Gleson; Mrs. Earl Hardison, and Mrs. O. Sandin.

The opening prayer was given by Msgr. Rt. Rev. George Agius. Mrs. Ed Berlet conducted the business meeting, after which the group enjoyed a social hour. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Fred Rae, Mrs. Joseph Bierl and Miss Celia Palneck. The door prize was won by Ronald Toman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Toman.

A centerpiece of roses had been arranged by the hostesses. Refreshments were served.

Visit Here from California

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jameson the past few days have been Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Fleming of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Fleming have been visiting at the home of their son, Henry Fleming, of Weeping Water. Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Claude L. Ferris, of Los Angeles, arrived in Plattsmouth two weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Fleming and Mr. and Mrs. Ferris will leave for California Tuesday by car.

Hold Firemaker Dinner Sunday

The firemaker girls of the Odako group of Campfire Girls held their firemaker dinner Sunday noon in the parlors of the Holy Rosary church. Parents of the girls were guests at the dinner, which is one of the requirements for the rank of firemaker.

Clinkenbeard, Dian Reichstadt, Girls in charge of the dinner were Jenie Lee Spidell, Frances Mary Jane Harris, and Frances Duda.

Guests at Alkire Home

Guests at the Harold J. Alkire home during the weekend are Mrs. Alkire's brother, Arthur Harvey of Los Angeles, and her nephew, Ted Harvey, seaman first class, who is on leave from a training station in Kansas. They arrived here Thursday.

Lt. Clويد Arrives on Leave