Weather Gets Nippy As Fall Heatwave Ends

Cass county's prolonged Indian summer was drawing to a close Wednesday as the mercury gradually descended to customary fall temperatures after showers Tues-

Rainfall was heaviest in the southwest part of the county and motorists leaving thte Weeping Water Legion convention encountered slippery roads. Precipitation of .08 of an inch was measured at the Roy O. Cole farm south of Plattsmouth. Only a trace of moisture was received in the city pro-

Thirty degree temperatures are forecast for this section tonight. The week long fall heat wave reached a zenith with an unseasonal warm of 80 degrees in Plattsmouth Tuesday. The balmy weather for a time puzzled meteorologists but they've come up with an explanation that the warm breezes were an importation from the southland. The winds came in from thte South because of an atmospheric pres. northwest this time of year.

It's often said that a long, severe winter usually follows a but they're not willing to make as Sterling, Illl. a prediction.
