Junior Class Play Is Hot
For a High School production, "Seven Sisters" was handled superbly. It showed excellent direction on the part of Mrs. Alta Roede. Carol Bernhardt had the leading role of Mizel, who was a vivacious, rebellious girl.

The male lead, Terenz Horkoy as a young man, was played by Miller Hurst.

Bill Little looking as though he had stepped out of an old-fashioned tinny, almost stole the show. He played the part of the family cousin who was slightly affected with a hen. Bill's performance as well as the choruses who were promoted to Butler and added to share in the comedy.

Every member of the cast was outstanding in their own way. The cast members: Marjorie Lutz, Farnum Taylor, Donna Bishop, Donna Bishop, Glen Harsh, and sisters, Mary Jo and Jeanette. Smock and Jeanette. The credit due credit must go to the Snodgrass, Katherine Parkening, Donna Rhoden, Margaret Campbell, Margaret Heinenman, Junior Kaffenberg, Richard Wohlfarth, Leon Elliott for the production of the play. Credit should be given Senior members, Joan Grady and Mary Lou Wallace for their assistance in the production.

Baby Boy to Kenneth Schmitts
