

Weeping Water

MRS. THOMAS MURTEY, Correspondent

Miss Grace Steckley and her brother, Gardner Steckley, are expected to arrive home the latter part of the week, from Los Angeles, where Gardner is taking a post graduate course at the Belmont High School.

Mrs. Dave Dorst, of Tecumseh, is spending this week at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Norris, Opportunity Extension Club met Tuesday, for a one o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. Clyde Patrick, when their Christmas lesson was demonstrated in the separation and the serving of the meal. Following the luncheon there was a review of the book "Now That April's Here" by Eileen Fitzpatrick.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Steckley will have a family reunion at their home, on Christmas Day, when the guests will be Mr. Steckley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Steckley, of Lincoln, Mrs. Hazel Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Steckley and two children, all of Lincoln, Miss Grace Steckley and Gardner, from Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. John Knabe, of Lincoln, were visitors at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Earl Murdock, Monday, and in the afternoon they visited the John Heeb home.

John McGrady is at the Veterans Hospital, in Lincoln, where he is undergoing treatment for a growth on his neck.

Chapter B.T. P. E. O. met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Tefft, when the afternoon was spent in Philanthropic work. Most of their time was spent in dressing dolls for Christmas gifts.

There was a meeting of scout leaders, troop leaders, of this district, and the district committee, Carl Schneider, last Thursday evening, when plans were discussed for the strengthening of the re-organized Weeping Water group, also the need of re-organizing the Cub Scouts.

Mrs. Hy Kirchoff received the announcement of the arrival of a son, December 13, to her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. William Minderman, of Hinsdale, Illinois. The son has been named Ervin William. The William Mindermans formerly lived in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wokott and two children, of Terry, Montana, are expected to arrive here, next Monday to spend Christmas at the home of Frank's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd P. Wokott.

Laurel Hill School held their Christmas program, Monday evening with a good attendance. The parents brought a fine lunch which was served at the close of the program which was given by the pupils of the school. Mrs. James Kivett is the teacher.

Mrs. Jean Jones returned here last week, after a two week visit at Valentine and at Grand Island. She reported a fine visit with her nephew, at Valentine. While there she was also the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Clippe.

District Superintendent, Dr. Arthur A. Brooks, of Omaha, was the guest speaker at the Men's Brotherhood of the Methodist Church, Tuesday evening, when the men of the Nehawka Church were their guests. The meeting was preceded by a covered dish dinner, served by the men, with R. L. Kinton as chairman of the serving committee.

The Weeping Water Community Club met Wednesday noon at the Christian Church, when they were served with roast elk. The meat was sent from Greybull, Wyoming, by a former member, Paul Peterson. Officers were elected for the coming year, with R. L. Kinton as their new president, Neil Munkres, first vice president; Walter Roberts, second vice president; Archie Crozier, secretary, and Floyd Hite, retiring president, as a member of the executive committee. Arrangements were made to hold a free entertainment at the Chief Theatre with Christmas treats, the afternoon before Christmas. R. H. Gray, Charles Gibson and Fred J. Allen were appointed as the committee in charge of the entertainment.

Henry Urish is busy re-decorating and doing some re-modeling on the home which he recently purchased from Fritz Groy.

Mr. and Mrs. Mildred Smith and daughter, Sue Ray, arrived home this week to spend the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Ray Smith. They are now living at Bellevue, Ill.

Mrs. George Domingo expects to spend Christmas week, with her sister, Mrs. Charles Ogan, at Council Bluffs.
