MRS. TRACE PLYBON, Correspondent

Harry Linder was taken to Bryan Hospital Sunday evening because of an attack of pneumonia. He and his son Clayton had been dinner guests at the Charles Miller home Sunday but Harry had not been feeling well for some time.

Johnny Tyler of Weeping Water was a week end visitor with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Emory Prant.

Mrs. Paul Horton was quite ill with the flu for several days last week. Mrs. Plybon acted as substitute librarian for her Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Creamer, of Osallia visited from Tuesday to Thursday of last week at the home of his mother Mrs. Clara Creamer. They had motored with a friend as far as Lincoln, and had to go back in Thursday's storm. They wrote back, however, of their safe return home, having not encountered very deep snow.

Mrs. Ruth Monning wrote her friends that she had purchased a ticket for the Hollywood Tom Breneman Breakfast program on Tuesday. She didn't get in on the question answering, but it was interesting to think of her presence there at the time, while listening.

Sunday morning sermon at the Methodist church was given by the District Superintendent, Dr. Pfutz of Lincoln. His theme was thoughts about Stewardship. He said we need a new understanding of life as a trust, and a new vision of how to live and use this trust. Faith in God should be first of all, our goal the Kingdom of God.

C. T. Chelmsworth and wife from Weeping Water spent last week visiting here. They were on the homeward journey of a motor trip to the state capital of home. The storm caused them to be here some time longer than they had planned.

David Cook, a student from Lincoln spent Sunday with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Rosenfeld returned from his father, Carson Rosenfeld, that he is enjoying sunny California very much this winter.

Dale Stall of Paoli spent Tuesday afternoon with his uncle John McFay.

Mrs. Gertrude Davis is ill with a bacterial cold this week. Mrs. Earl Elliott substituted for several days for her as worker in the school lunch program.

WHEN you think of yourself alone, that's how people ought to leave you.

A Kentucky dentist offered a woman a new set of teeth for some wooded land he wanted. She accepted—and the choppers went to work.

The cost of playing a juke box may jump from a nickel to a dime. Tough on the teen-agers, but for the rest of us, Happy Day!

Lots of people are still driving an old car because they don't owe the highest price on record for a new one.

Some writing paper is made from potato plant vines. For many notes, perhaps.
