first half of the game ended with a score of 17 to 9 in favor of Elmwood. The close of the game found them with a score of 32 to 32. An overtime was played with no change in the score but the second overtime let Elmwood leading with two points closing with Elmwood 34 and Weeping Water 32.

A card received Saturday from the Clyde Fitzpatrick family who are vacationing in Florida bore a picture of a garden in Key West and said "It is very chilly here as cold as it has ever been known. Schools were closed because they have no heat."

WEeping WATER... The city plans to refinance $11,000 in water bonds at a saving of one-half per cent interest. The bonds now bearing 2 1/2 per cent interest will be callable this summer and Frank J. Domingo has agreed to refinance the indebtedness at a saving.

Taylor Jarman of Springfield has sold his lumber yard there to James P. Latham who took possession Tuesday. Mr. Latham also plans to do some extensive remodeling before restocking the lumber yard.

Saturday Feb. 15 Mr. and Mrs. Eimer Wendt took over the management of the City Cafe. Mrs. Wendt purchased the business and equipment from the Addyman family and has leased the building from Richard J. Kraft who owns it. Mr. and Mrs. Wendt recently had a farm sale and are moving to town. They will make their home in the living quarters in the back of the Cafe where Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Addyman used to live but who have moved to their own home in the South west part of town.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Addyman have been the owners of the Cafe for the past 18 years. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Addyman were also connected with it. But neither family is very well and didn't feel they could stand the strain of much steady work and long hours. Louisville is sorry to see the Addymans go out of business and hope they will find something else to do not quite so steady.

John L. Jackman left Wednesday evening of last week for a few days visit with friends in Wisconsin returning to Louisville Tuesday evening.

Dr. G. L. McClum entered a hospital in Omaha Monday when he underwent an operation. Mrs. McClum went to Omaha by bus on Tuesday morning to be with him.

The Glendale club members entertained their husbands and families at a party on Feb. 7 1947 at the I. O. O. F. Hall in Louisville. About 50 people attended the party. Harry Johnson was a guest. He helped with the games. At a late hour a delicious lunch was served.

The W. S. C. S. had a covered dish luncheon on Thursday afternoon. About 40 ladies attended. In the afternoon they held their regular meeting and also had a program which was enjoyed by all.

The farmers elevator has been made modern and in date after about six months work on it. Also about 10 thousand dollars in cash.

Frederick Schuman of near Safford passed away Feb. 1 in an Omaha hospital after an illness of about 7 years. He left a wife one son two brothers one half brother and three half sisters.
