

Alley Oop

By V. T. Hamlin

About You... AND YOUR FRIENDS IN Plattsmouth and Cass County BY THELMA OLSON PHONE 45 or 6

Legion Auxiliary Will Have Dinner also. Members of the American Legion Auxiliary will hold a dinner Thursday at six o'clock in the Pine Room of the Bestor Coffee shop. Mrs. Clara Magnuson, of Omaha, Department of Nebraska Child Welfare chairman will be present and will also attend the meeting to the Auxiliary at the Legion rooms. Mrs. William Woolcott and Mrs. Reed Wolever are receiving reservations for the dinner.

Circle No. 3 of the Women's Guild of St. Paul's Reformed and Evangelical church served a plate lunch in the church parlors during the noon hour Thursday. A large attendance was recorded.

Former Residents Mr. and Mrs. Ames Cline and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Nelson of Omaha were here Saturday on business and visiting places of interest. Mr. Nelson and the Clines lived here several years ago.

Rural Schools Play Baseball Games Friday The pupils and the teacher of Jean school, Dist. 3, were hosts Friday afternoon to the pupils and teacher of Horning school, Dist. 2, when the schools met for a baseball game. Good sportsmanship spirit was shown throughout the game which was won by the Jean school. A return game to be played at the Horning school is planned. Mrs. Katharine Sandin is the teacher at Jean school. Neil Lancaster teaches at Horning.

Rehearsals Progressing for Senior Class Play Progress is being made daily in rehearsals of "Spring Fever," the play to be given by the senior class of the high school on the nights of April 10 and 11. Joan Gradoville, Kenny Tiketort, Edith Speck, Warren Kneer, Ray Tischer and Mary Lou Walling provide the comedy for the play. The whole cast is endeavoring to develop the characteristics of the personalities they will portray. The publicity and business managers are in full swing getting out advertisements. Tickets are now on sale. The entire stage crew will be busy all week getting the settings and stage properties in readiness for the play.

New 4-H Club Is Organized in County UNION—(SPECIAL)—A group of girls met Saturday afternoon, March 15, and organized a 4-H cooking club. Mrs. Ruth Pike was named leader and Mrs. Minnie Schiber assistant. Girls elected to office were Carol Lee Roddy, president; Carol Ann Pike, vice president; Mary Lou Morton, secretary; Bonnie Baker, news reporter; Imogene Schiber, yell leader; and Gloria Dickman, games leader. After the business session the girls played games. Imogene Schiber and her mother served refreshments.

Volk-Marshall Wedding WEEPING WATER (SPECIAL)—A large group from here attended the wedding of Miss Janet Marshall and Raymond Edward Volk which took place in Omaha on Saturday afternoon, March 22. The ceremony was performed in the Dundee Presbyterian church at 4:30 by Dr. E. A. Rowsey, pastor of the church. The altar was banked with white snapdragons, woodwardia and cathedral tapers. The bride wore a gown of white ivory satin with light-fitting sleeves, square neckline, torso and a three-yard train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was edged with lace applique. She carried an orchid and Stephanotis. Mrs. Charles W. Hanford of St. Louis and Mrs. Terrence Barton of Lincoln were matrons of honor. Miss Dorothy Archer was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Lucy McLafferty and Miss Janet Haggart. They all wore ice blue net gowns and carried American beauty roses. Edward Sklenicka was best man. G. Edward Winslade and Robert E. Gillespe served as ushers.

Miss Maasen to Be April Bride Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Maasen announce the coming marriage of their daughter, Geraldine, to S-Sgt. William Mayle of Royal Oak, Michigan. Sgt. Mayle is stationed at Ft. Crook after serving three years overseas. The wedding will take place in April.

Mrs. Guy Long Is Honored Mrs. L. A. Caldwell entertained for a group of six at a seven o'clock dinner Thursday evening at the Bestor Coffee shop honoring Mrs. Guy Long on her birthday. A centerpiece of mixed flowers and a birthday cake were the table decorations. After the dinner the group played bridge at the home of the hostess. Mrs. Long, the honoree, won first honors and Mrs. Don Arundel, second. Present for the occasion were Mrs. Walter Tritsch, Mrs. Carl Ofe, Mrs. R. F. Iverson, Mrs. Don Arundel, the honor guest, Mrs. Long, and the hostess, Mrs. Caldwell.

Danny Lockin Is Home from Hospital Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lockin have brought their young son, Danny, home from the Methodist hospital in Omaha where he had been for ten days suffering from an upper respiratory infection. Mrs. Lockin's father, Dr. A. D. Caldwell, entered Veterans Hospital for treatment of ulcers.

Visit in Missouri Mrs. Joseph Bierl and Mrs. Henry Vinduska and daughter, Carolyn Ann, left Friday morning for St. Joseph, to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Don W. Harris and sons for a few days. Mrs. Bierl is the mother of Mrs. Vinduska and Mrs. Harris.

Mrs. Heldt in Yutan Mrs. Henry Heldt was in Yutan for Palm Sunday services at the Evangelical Lutheran church where her two grandchildren, Merle Heldt and Paye Speckman, were confirmed.

Here from Minnesota Here for Easter vacation is Bill Potter who attends Brock Military school in St. Paul, Minn. He is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Potter, his mother, Mrs. Blanch Potter, is with the Veterans administration at Ft. Snelling.

Mrs. Graham in Omaha Hospital Mrs. Herman Graham is in St. Catherine's hospital recovering from a major operation Friday night. Her condition is somewhat improved today.

Return from Father's Funeral Attorney and Mrs. Richard C. Peck have returned from Falls City where they went last week to attend the funeral of Mr. Peck's father, Cleon Peck, who had long been active in the political and civic life of Falls City and Richardson county.

Students to Lincoln for Shakespearean Play About 30 high school students from the English literature classes went to Lincoln Friday evening and Saturday afternoon to see the presentation of "Macbeth" in the Temple building at the University of Nebraska. The play was put on by the University players. Miss Ethel McCamley, Miss Pearl Staats, Mrs. Robert Reade and Miss Ruth Dickinson accompanied the students to Lincoln. Of special interest to the local students were the unfamiliar dialect of the Shakespearean characters and the fact that no scenery was used, in keeping with the time the play was first presented.

Guests were the grandparents of the bride, Mrs. Emmor Marshall of Weeping Water, and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Leonard of Chinook, Mont.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Emshoff and family and Mrs. Dena Ruge were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Balfour near Union.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Busch, Hastings, and Richard Busch, Palisade, visited relatives here Sunday. They are the sons of the former Laura Witke.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenord Nutzmaff and daughters came Sunday evening and brought ice cream and cake. It was a belated birthday celebration for Elmore and Verle Nutzmaff, whose birthdays are in the same week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rippe had a 25th wedding anniversary Sunday, Mar. 23. On Monday, March 24th their children gave them a dance at Weeping Water auditorium. A buffet lunch was served to 100 guests, after which the senior girls of Avoca high school sang several songs including "In The Garden" and "Silver Threads Among the Gold." Rev. Bergastresser gave several remarks and a song by the audience. Many beautiful gifts were received by the bride and bridegroom of 25 years. They were married at North Branch church by Rev. Bergastresser and she was Elsie Kirkoff.

Mrs. Albert Carr and Mrs. John Emshoff were hostesses to the extension club Friday, Mar. 21. Mrs. Emshoff was leader and the topic was Home Improvement. Mrs. Fred Ruge and Louis Carsten went to Bertrand to attend the funeral of Mrs. John Reich, their cousin. Mrs. Carl Ztuser was a Lincoln visitor, Saturday. Robert Tefft who has been out of school for several weeks has returned. High school students went to Nebraska City Tuesday evening for a skating party. Mrs. Emma Moffet of Denver is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harlan Mapel. Silas Munn has been on the sick list.

Friday, April 4 Chapter F. PEO. will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. G. McClusky.

CASS COUNTY EXTENSION

Continued From Page 1. When Improvement" for the October and November lesson. Several clubs will mail in their selection so we will not know what the demonstration lesson will be until all votes are in. The county achievement day was set tentatively for May 28. Those present voted that the council and all club officers would meet the latter part of September from January 1, 1948 to January 1, 1949. National Home Demonstration week is May 4-11. We are asking all group chairmen to be responsible for interesting reports from their clubs concerning women's project work in their communities. These items must be submitted to the county office by April 25 in order to have them ready for the papers during the week May 4-11. Your group chairman will appreciate any help you can give her concerning outstanding accomplishments or other items of public interest. Clarence Schmadeke, County Agricultural Agent D. Eula Wintermute, Home Extension Agent

MEMORY LANE

Continued From Page 1 shops. There was a minor fire at the Kate Cummins home on the corner on Ninth and Pearl streets. Alice Dovey, Plattsmouth born actress, was a hit at Kansas City. S. D. Gibson moved to Missouri Valley, Ia.

PRECINCT ASSESSORS

Continued From Page 1 Avoca, Ed Morley, Avoca; Mount Pleasant, Lester Shrader, Nehawka; Eight Mile Grove, Tom Tennant, Louisville; Nehawka, Wm. H. August, Nehawka; Liberty, Ivan Balfour, Union; West Rock Eluff, Dale Wolfahrt, Murray; East Rock Bluff, W. A. Wheeler, Plattsmouth; Plattsmouth precinct, Mrs. Lillian Nielsen, Plattsmouth; Weeping Water city, S. Ray Smith and E. B. Taylor, Weeping Water; Plattsmouth city, Harvey Garner, Don Seiver, Mrs. Vern Hendricks, Erwin Eimers, Mrs. Elva Aylor and B. C. Hyde. County commissioners are Charles W. Stoehr of Plattsmouth, Parr Young of Nehawka and A. G. Reid of Elmwood.

AVOCA NEWS

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Yensley, Mar. 17, a daughter at St. Marys, Nebraska City. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Drury, Louisville, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rathbun Friday evening. Mrs. Mead and daughter of Fremont visited at the Albert Carr home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Emshoff and family and Mrs. Dena Ruge were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Balfour near Union. Mrs. Henry Busking and daughter of Lincoln spent last week visiting friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Busch, Hastings, and Richard Busch, Palisade, visited relatives here Sunday. They are the sons of the former Laura Witke. Dick Bollma has been on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wulf visited his sister, Mrs. Hansen of Nehawka, who has been seriously ill. Mr. and Mrs. Lenord Nutzmaff and daughters came Sunday evening and brought ice cream and cake. It was a belated birthday celebration for Elmore and Verle Nutzmaff, whose birthdays are in the same week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rippe had a 25th wedding anniversary Sunday, Mar. 23. On Monday, March 24th their children gave them a dance at Weeping Water auditorium. A buffet lunch was served to 100 guests, after which the senior girls of Avoca high school sang several songs including "In The Garden" and "Silver Threads Among the Gold." Rev. Bergastresser gave several remarks and a song by the audience. Many beautiful gifts were received by the bride and bridegroom of 25 years. They were married at North Branch church by Rev. Bergastresser and she was Elsie Kirkoff.

Mrs. Albert Carr and Mrs. John Emshoff were hostesses to the extension club Friday, Mar. 21. Mrs. Emshoff was leader and the topic was Home Improvement. Mrs. Fred Ruge and Louis Carsten went to Bertrand to attend the funeral of Mrs. John Reich, their cousin. Mrs. Carl Ztuser was a Lincoln visitor, Saturday. Robert Tefft who has been out of school for several weeks has returned. High school students went to Nebraska City Tuesday evening for a skating party. Mrs. Emma Moffet of Denver is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harlan Mapel. Silas Munn has been on the sick list.

Weeping Water

Mrs. Thomas Murty

Weeping Water firemen were called to the Steckley Hybrid Seed Company farm, Sunday afternoon, by a motorist, who was passing the farm and saw smoke issuing from the hog house. The flames spread so rapidly that six sows and forty little pigs were burned to death, before the fire was under control. Cause of the fire is unknown but it was supposed to have been caused by a short circuit in the electric wiring.

Mrs. Mary Wiles, well known and beloved pioneer of Cass county, celebrated her eighty fifth birthday, Sunday, by having all of her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren at home to spend the day with her. All took well filled baskets of food, and the afternoon was spent visiting, although Mrs. Wiles had been confined to her bed, by illness for several days, she was able to be up part of the day, to enjoy a visit with her family.

Miss Virginia Klein, of Denver, was the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Emmor Marshall, the first part of the week. Miss Klein came east to attend the wedding of her cousin, Doris Marshall, and to take part, by lighting the tapers, before the ceremony, at the Dundee Presbyterian church.

Frank Cook is having his house insulated and faced on the outside, with white asphalt shingles.

Memorial services were held Sunday morning, at the regular service hour, for Dr. Arthur Brooks, 68, superintendent of the Omaha district, for the Methodist church, whose sudden death, Saturday brought sorrow to the hearts of the members of the Weeping Water church. Mrs. Eugene Ludwick presided at the pipe organ and Mrs. Henry Rugeha sang, "Hark, Hark, My Soul." Rev. Paul W. Walker took his text from II Timothy, 4:7 "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith."

The Cass County Musical Festival will be held April 2nd, at the Weeping Water high school auditorium, with the following schools to take part: Louisville, Avoca, Elmwood, Eagle, Murdock, Nehawka, Union and Weeping Water. The program will begin at 9 A. M. Morning and instrumental and vocal soloists and small vocal groups. The afternoon session will start at 1 p. m. and bands and choruses will be heard in the evening, starting at 7:30. Following these groups, picked soloists and small groups will perform. Bands taking part will be Weeping Water and Union. Choruses will be from Nehawka, Louisville, Elmwood, Murdock, and Weeping Water. The critics will be Mr. and Mrs. Don Lentz, Lincoln. Mr. Lentz is the director of the Nebraska University band.

Weeping Water churches will hold a union service on Good Friday, evening, at 7:30 at the Christian church, with Rev. Paul W. Walker, pastor of the Methodist church, in charge of the service.

Mr. and Mrs. William Finley moved Monday into the home recently purchased by Mrs. Finley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miller Christensen, from the D. D. Walcotts.

Arch Pointer was taken to Omaha, Monday, for medical care. He expects to enter St. Joseph hospital for an operation, sometime.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thoma have moved into the Troy Jewell home, and the Jewells are visiting relatives for a short time before leaving for their new home in California.

Celebrating six birthdays in the family, a reunion was held, Sunday, at the Sterling Wiles home, with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Wiles and family; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wiles; and family; and Mr. and Mrs. Conant Wiles; Perry Wright, LeRoy Purry, Robert Clark, Agnes Wiles and her roommate, Rose Ellen Ballard of Beatrice, came from Peru to attend the reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Snell of Plattsmouth, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Snell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Philpot. George Sickman has been taken to Lincoln for medical treatment. He is at Lincoln General hospital.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Shumaker was the scene of a reunion of Trunkholz Oil Company employees; Thursday evening, with W. B. Callahan, of Lincoln, and Mr. and Mrs. Michaelis of Omaha, representative of the Socny Vacuum Company, of Omaha, as guests. Special films of the company, and their progress were shown illustrating activities of the company, and an informal hour of visiting followed, with refreshments served by the hostess. Representatives of the Trunkholz Oil Company who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rathbun, Avoca; Ed McCroff, Murdock; John Roberts, and Gene Adkins, of Nehawka, and Sam Van Pool, of Union.

CLASSIFIED ADS. If you have found it, or lost it, or want to buy it or sell it. JOURNAL WANT-ADS BRING RESULTS

THE NEW AIRWAY SANITIZER is in town. The only sanitary vacuum cleaner on the market. For free demonstration call D. C. Reed. Phone 598 J

WE WISH TO THANK ALL OUR kind friends and neighbors for their many kind expressions of sympathy and condolence during our recent bereavement. The Porter Family.

WE WISH TO THANK ALL OF our kind friends and neighbors for their many expressions of sympathy and condolence during our recent bereavement. Mrs. Stella Persinger, Geo. Persinger, Florence Persinger, Mrs. Mary Nelson, Mrs. Dorothy Janecsek, Mrs. Helen Wiatere, Mrs. Jane Wetherbee and Allen Persinger.

SALES LADIES WANTED IF NOT already represented in your community. Direct selling. Good commission. Lingerie, ready to wear, hosiery. Thogersen Hosiery Co., Wilmette, Ill. WANTED: MAN TO WORK ON turkey farm. Apply in person. Herb Hell's Turkey Farm, Louisville.

RELIABLE MAN WITH CAR wanted to call on farmers in Cass County. Wonderful opportunity. $15 to $20 in a day. No experience or capital required. Permanent. Write today. McNESS COMPANY, Dept. A, Freeport, Ill.

FOR SALE: EXTENSION LADDER, 20 to 40 ft. $13.95 up. Gambles.

FOR SALE: PURE BRED Shorthorn bulls. J. L. Young, Murray, Nebr.

FOR SALE: STRAWBERRIES. Dunlap $1.25 per hundred. Gem $2.50 Assorted shrubs 50c and 75c. Assorted perennials 25c. Raspberries 10c ea., $9.00 per hundred. Regal lily bulbs, 30c ea. 4 for $1.00. Asparagus, 50 for $1.00. Petersen's Greenhouses. Ph. 143W.

FOR SALE: STATE CERTIFIED Cedar Oats. Germination 98. Sterling Ingwerson.

FOR SALE: SCRAP LUMBER and kindling. New Electric hot water heater. Ph. 461J.

WANTED TO RENT: THREE-room furnished Apt. Army officer and wife. Call after 5:30. P. 226 W. Ask for Lieut. Gruber.

WANTED TO RENT: APT. OR house, furnished. Officer, wife and small child. Call Omaha Market 5600 Ex-2173 Permanent.

FOR SALE: HOUSE, 8 LARGE lots. Light and water connected. Chicken House and Garage. My client must sell at once. See Francis M. Casey Atty Ph. 689 or 104 W.

Knives or rough scouring materials should not be used to clean glass cooking ware. It may scratch the protective surface and make the glass less resistant to breakage.

Here Is What a Water System and Water Heater Will Do for You. Provide modern comfort and convenience in kitchen, laundry and bathroom. Eliminate back-breaking drudgery and unnecessary labor. And - - All this is done automatically, dependably, quietly and economically. Insist on a dependable system and see Dumke-Stohmann Co. when you get ready to buy a system of your own. DUMKE-STOHLMANN CO. Phone 17 - Louisville

Avoca Mrs. Henry Mateman

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Mapel announce the birth of a daughter, born March 26, at St. Marys, Nebraska City.

Mrs. Laura Stovel spent Thursday visiting her daughter, Mrs. Walter Stubbendieck.

Ladies Aid met Thursday at the church parlors with Mrs. Saling and Mathilda Madsen as hostesses. Mrs. Calvin Carsten led the devotions. Five dollars was sent to the Woman's gift.

The seniors are practicing for their class play to be given April 9, and 11. The play, "Look out for Lizzie."

Harry Wohlers who has been seriously ill at his home is somewhat improved.

A dinner honoring the girls volleyball team was given at the Elmer Hallstrom home, on Mar. 27. The school faculty and school board were honored guests.

Dr. and Mrs. Brendel and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zaiser went to Nebraska City Thursday evening to celebrate the doctor's birthday.

Henry Heine became suddenly ill Thursday noon. He is some better now.

Dr. Louis A. Amato OPTOMETRIST Ruse Bldg. 2nd Floor Phone 72 OCULAR EXAMINATION AND CARE

CASS THEATRE Last Times Tonight Monday, March 31 Errol Flynn and Eleanor Parker in "NEVER SAY GOODBYE" Also Comedy and News

Tuesday Only, April 1 Bargain Day: 12c & 20c Inc. Tax Dorothy Lamour and Ray Milland in "THE JUNGLE PRINCESS" Brought back as the most sensational of all adventure shows Also Comedy and Color Cartoon

Wed. & Thur., April 2 & 3 John Garfield and Geraldine Fitzgerald in "NOBODY LIVES FOREVER" Dramatic, action-packed story of the underworld! Night Shows 7:00 & 9:30 Also Comedy and Novelty

Calendar

Tuesday, April 1 Regular meeting of the OES at 8:00 p. m. Tuesday. Thursday, April 3 American Legion Auxiliary will meet at 8:00 p. m. Thursday in Legion hall. Wednesday, April 2 Rev. Gallon, returned missionary, will show pictures at the mid-week services of Independent Church of Christ at 7:30 p. m.