YOUNG-TRIVELY VOWS

In the presence of the immediate families and a few friends in the St. John's Catholic church last Thursday morning Miss Vivian Young became the bride of Kenneth Trively in an 8:30 o'clock wedding. Msgr. George that united the lives of the Plattsmouth couple.

The bride, wearing a white street-length dress and a white halo hat, carried a nosegay of yellow rosebuds and blue sweetpeas.

Miss Virginia Trively, the bride's attendant, wore a pink dress. She wore a corsage of pink carnations and blue sweetpeas.

John Clout served as groomsman to Mr. Trively. Both men wore the conventional dark suits.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Trively, parents of the bridegroom.

The bride is a daughter of Dallas Young. She recently returned from California where she had been living with her sister.

Mr. Trively was graduated from high school in 1931. He served with the army in England and France for three years. Since his discharge he has been employed Commencement exercises for the seniors of the Union high school were held last Thursday night, May 15, at 8:00 p. m. in the Baptist church in Union.

The commencement address was given by Dr. D. A. Worcester of the University of Nebraska.

Merle Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Rogers, was valedictorian. Lorraine Balfour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Balfour, was salutatorian.

Completing the list of seniors were Phyllis Liner, Pauline Lechner, Helen Neal and Virginia Attebery.

The Rev. E. C. Williams, Plattsmouth, gave the invocation and benediction.

Harold Blount is superintendent of the Union schools.

at Ottum Field, Ft. Cook and Mrs. William Diekmann of Louisville, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lau of Murdock, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Meisinger and family, Mr. Ferris and Mr. Ferris. They will make an extended visit in the western states before returning home.

Diekmann-Alexen Nuptials

On Saturday evening, May 17, at eight o'clock in the parsonage of the First Presbyterian church occurred the marriage of Miss Irene Alexen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Alexen of this city, and Merle Diekmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Diekmann of Louisville. The double ring service was used. The marriage lines were read by Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the church.

Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Chet Lagerstrom, sister and brother-in-law of the bride.

The bride and her sister each wore a street length dress of aqua with black and white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The bridegroom wore a blue suit and his best man wore a dark business suit.

A wedding dinner was held Sunday at the home of the bride's parents. The dining table was most attractive with cut flowers, glowing candles and a large three-tier wedding cake that had been prepared by the bride's mother. Attending the dinner were Mr.

NOW FOLKS, the situation is getting more difficult and Madman Lloyd is really getting worried, because the Crazy Trader sold three cars last week and fourteen of his wives have to walk or ride together. So Crazy Trader says we have to sell six more this week or buy twelve more good ones, so all of the family can ride in a good used car. Crazy Trader says he is going to have to buy cheaper cars for his fifteen wives so he won't have to suffer so much depreciation for instance cars in this class range. 1936 Ford 4 door sedan, $350.00 1937 Ford coach, $485.00 1936 Chevrolet 4 door sedan, $350.00 1938 Pontiac, $385.00 1940 Chevrolet pick-up, 1/2 ton, 1,025.00 1940 Buick station wagon, $1,275.00 1942 Chevrolet cab-over truck, $1,600.00 Lloyd Motor Co., Ralph Stratton, manager.
