MEMORIAL DAY

Honor the Dead by Helping the Living!

The bugle echoes shrill and sweet, But not of war it sings today. The road is rhythmic with the feet IOf min-at-arms who come to pray.

The roses blossom white and red On tombs where weary soldiers lie; Flags wave above the honored dead And martial music cleaves the sky,

They kent the faith and fought the fight. Trough flying lead and crimson steel They plunged for Freedom and the Right.

May we, their grateful children, learn Their strength, who lie beneath this sod, Who went through fire and death to earn At last the accolade of God.

In shining rank on rank arrayed They march, the legions of the Lord; He is their Ceptain unafraid, Prince of Peace . . Who brought a sword.
