Evans-Cloidt Wedding Saturday

Miss Winifred Evans of Kenesaw, Nebraska, became the bride Saturday morning, May 31, of John J. Clويدt, jr. The marriage lines were read by Msgr. Agius in St. John's church in a ten o'clock ceremony. The double ring ceremony was used. Only the immediate families were present.

Attendants were Mrs. Virgil Urish and Raymond Woster.

The bride wore a powder blue suit with black accessories. She had an orchid corsage. Her bridesmaid wore a black and white dress with white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Fred Evans of Kenesaw. Other out-of-town guests included Cedric Evans, New York, New York, brother of the bride, and Miss Esther Evans of Lincoln, aunt of the bride.

Mrs. Clويدt attended the University of Nebraska. For the past three years she has been teaching at the Columbian school.

Mr. Clويدt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Clويدt. He is a graduate of the Creighton University in Omaha. He was in the service for five years, being in General Patton's Third army during the European invasion. Since his discharge early last year he has been associated in business with his father.

After a trip through the south-east states the young people will live here where Mr. Clويدt is manager of the Clويدt Service station.

Gurley, Nebr.; Mrs. Henry Maseman, Richard and Marilyn, Mrs. Dana Ruge and Frances, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Balfor and John of Nehawka.

The Ehlers received many beautiful gifts, flowers and cards. The guest book was signed by 117.

Mrs. Alpha Mauzy Heads Auxiliary

Mrs. Alpha Mauzy was elected unit president of the American Legion Auxiliary last Thursday night. She replaces Mrs. Reed Wolever who has served the past year.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Leonard Brothers, vice-president; Miss Vera Lewis, secretary; Mrs. Karl Grosshans, treasurer and Mrs. Glenn McClure, chaplain.

Mrs. C. J. Baumgart was elected sergeant-at-arms, and Mrs. A. L. Nierste, historian.

Executive board members are Mrs. Reed Wolever, Mrs. Dick Novak and Mrs. C. A. Ruse.

Installing officer was Mrs. Edgar Glaze, past president.

The meeting was opened with the singing of the national anthem. After the election and installation of the officers Mrs. Glaze and Mrs. Wolever were presented with the past president's pin. The meeting closed with the singing of "America."

Hostesses on the refreshment committee were Mrs. Joe McMaken, Mrs. Joe Abrahms, Mrs. Joe Capwell, Mrs. Robert Cappell, Miss Mildred Hall, Mrs. Eugene Vroman and Mrs. Edgar Glaze.

Shower Given for Miss Walters

The Misses Deloras Ruse, Margaret Smith and Pat Libershal entertained a group of young women at the Claude Ruse home the evening of May 29th, honoring the fourth coming bride, Miss Bonnie Jean Walters.

The evening was spent in appropriate games for the occasion, and then Miss Walters opened the gifts which were cleverly tied to and arranged under an umbrella.

The centerpiece of the dining table was a miniature bride surrounded by flowers.

Refreshments consisted of ice cream molds of pastel gowned bridesmaids, individual decorated cakes and coffee. Out of town guests included Mrs. Joan Shaw, Miss Mary Ellen Leary and Miss Jane Applegate, all of Omaha, and Mrs. George Fine visiting here from Monongahela, Pennsylvania.

Ehlers Observe 40th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Ehlers of Bertrand, Nebr., observed their 40th wedding anniversary June 1st, by holding open house to their many relatives and friends.

Refreshments were served from a table decorated with red roses and ruby red and white ruffled tablecloths.

The cream and sugar sets which were used 40 years ago at the Ehlers wedding, were also used in serving.

Mrs. Ehlers modeled the wedding gown she wore when married to Mr. Ehlers.

There were eleven of the original guests present who attended their wedding, also one of the bridesmaids and ring bearer.

Mrs. Julia Kohler, sister of the bride, served the dinner to the out-of-town guests, using the table cloth that was used at the original wedding dinner.

Earl High sang the vocal number "The 23rd Psalm."

Those attending from a distance were Mrs. Lena Nutzman, of Idaho Falls, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ehlers of Dalton, Nebr.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grunwalt and daughter Betty of

The gift table was arranged on the stage in a garden setting of spring flowers against a white picket fence. Under a huge decorated umbrella was the honoree's chair, also appropriately decorated. A white wedding bell with pink and white streamers was suspended above the gift table. The honored guest was invited to open the gifts in a message brought to her by her cousin, Bobby Kief, who came into her presence in a stroller pushed by her nephew, Roger Roberts.

After the many gifts were opened a luncheon was served by the hostesses. Ice cream, cake and coffee were served.

MRS. BUTTERY HONORED

Mrs. E. M. Buttery was pleasantly surprised at her home last Tuesday afternoon when several neighbors came to honor her with a handkerchief shower on her birthday.

Those present at the occasion were Mrs. John Leyda, Mrs. Fred Range, Sr., Mrs. James Rebal, Mrs. Elmer Taylor, Mrs. Matt Sulser, Mrs. C. L. Kniecke, Mrs. Julius Hall, Mrs. George Hall of Goodland, Kansas, Mrs. Earl Leesley, Miss Anna Heisel and the guest of honor.

Refreshments were ice cream and cake, cookies and coffee.

Annual Meeting of First Church of Christ, Scientist

BOSTON, Mass., June 2.—Affirming that God rules the affairs of man, The Christian Science Board of Directors told the annual meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, that neither fear nor animality can give evil power to boast itself over good.

Supporting this challenge, Mrs. Helen Chaffee Elwell, newly elected President of The Mother Church, urged both pulpit and press to unite in a crusade of righteousness.

To "the harassed employer and the dissatisfied worker" and to nations generally, the Directors and the President of the Church held out the hope of harmony.
