Plattsmouth Library News

More than 2500 books were drawn from the library during the month of May, according to the librarian's report. The general public used 2488 and the Masonic home, 198 eight new borrowers were registered. Most of the 24 books purchased were junior books for the summer reading club.

Now with vacation time here boys and girls are going to have many free hours when a good book would make a splendid companion. There's special fun if you belong to the Public Library Reading Club! Sixty juniors have already joined. If you're smart you'll go to the library and sign up as a member right away so you, too, can begin your summer adventure with books. There is a treat at the end of summer for all who read and finish the required number of books on the lists that have been prepared for the club reading.

Recent additions to the bookshelves are: Left Hand is the Dreamer, by Nancy W. Ross; Magnificent Bard, by Dana Farralla; High Places, by Helen Todd; Cowboy Songs, by John A. Lomax; Plastics in Industry, by J. Perry; Rain Forest, by Armstrong Sperry. Miss Verna Leonard, Librarian

Soil Conservation Tour June 18th

The Soil Conservation Tour which had to be postponed last March will be held June 18th. The tour will start at the Cass Soil Conservation office at 9:30 a. m. Stops will be made on the Lloyd Ranney, Richard Hobson, Sterling Ingwerson and Hugo Meisinger farms. Lunch will be served by the Ladies' Aid at the Christ Lutheran church. If you live on a farm, own a farm or are otherwise interested in agriculture and soil saving practices time will be well spent to attend and take part in the tour. Practices and soil saving devices to be shown and discussed include grassed waterways, concrete drop outlets, terrace farming, contour farming, strip cropping, tree plantings and approved rotations.

4-H Judging Day Friday, June 20th

A 4-H practice judging day will be held at Lincoln at the College of Agriculture, Friday, June 20th, at 10:00 a. m. All Cass county 4-Hers are welcome to attend. Other counties taking part include Gage, Otoe and Lancaster.

No practice judging day will be held in Cass county this year. Leaders and members can and will benefit by attending this event. It would be desirable for all attending to take a picnic lunch. Liquid refreshments will be provided at the picnic grounds west of the Ag Engineering Bldg., on the college campus.

4-H News

4-H leaders that could not attend the leaders meeting in Nehawka, Elmwood or Louisville, and want material in judging and demonstrations, and information on entering any contests, please contact the county extension office.

Any 4-H Club member that wants to enter any exhibit at the State Fair should be in an organized club by June 1, and their names in the state office by June 10. To date, we have twenty-nine home economics clubs organized in Cass county.

Extension Study Clubs

All material for the Extension Study clubs has been sent to the vice-president of your club. D. EULA WINTERMOTE, Home Extension Agent.

CLARENCE SCHMADEKE, County Agricultural Agent.

BLUE RIBBON BABY BEEF On May 30 the Blue Ribbon Baby Beef club met at the home of Peter Halmes with 13 members present. After the members responded to roll call they read and discussed the lesson and took a test on the material read. Mrs. Bill Halmes, assisted by Bernice and Betty, served refreshments at the close of the meeting. The rest of the evening was devoted to games. The next meeting will be July 6 at the home of Emerson Wiles.
