

Elmwood

Mrs. Grace Flynn

Mr. Clifford Jewell of Gordon, Nebr., Mrs. C. W. Jewell and Miss Rhea Jewell of Lincoln attended the home talent play at the community building Friday evening. Clifford is now attending summer principal of the Gordon high school the coming year.

Rev. E. F. Haist has been returned to the pastorate of the Nebraska preparatory to become school at the University of Evangelical United Brethren church for this year, which is good news to his many friends.

Don Long is working on a farm in Iowa this summer not far from where one of his sisters resides.

The Vincent Phillips and Ray Preen families visited at South Bend recently.

Mrs. Skyle Miller, jr., the intermediate teacher is attending the summer school session at Peru. Miss Fern Pearson of St. Edwards will have charge of the music here next year and teach in high school. Miss Esther Merritt of Peru will be second primary teacher. One high school teacher remains yet to be elected. Miss Jane Jewell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jewell of Gordon, Nebr., will represent the Wesleyan Chapter of the Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority at its National Convention at Lake Louise, Banff, Alberta, Canada, the later part of June. Miss Jewell received some honors at her graduation from Wesleyan in June and she was also an attendant at the May Queen festivities.

Mr. Herbert Hulfish, caretaker at the school building had June as his vacation, but he will take up work in July on repairs and getting the building in readiness.

Mr. and Mrs. James Moore of Cincinnati visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Sid Moore and other relatives this month.

Seward visitors a week ago Sunday were Mrs. Emily Gonzales and Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph of Eagle.

The repeat performance of the play "Take Your Medicine" was a success last Friday night. $132 were received and more would have been taken in had the weather been more favorable.

The two showings netted a good deal over $300 for the Library repair and curtain fund.

Mrs. Frank Buell and Mrs. Ralph Dorr attended the D. A. R. Charter club luncheon at the Cornhusker Hotel in Lincoln recently.

Mrs. C. W. Jewell, Miss Rhea Jewell of Lincoln, Mr. Clifford Jewell and daughter Jane of Gordon, Nebr. were visitors at the home of Mrs. Ralph Creamer last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Whittmore, Marshall and Lynn visited her mother, Mrs. L. W. Upton at Union last week. Mrs. Upton recently returned from a visit with another daughter at Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gerbeling and daughter Lyndell of Nora, and Mr. Ralph Gerberling of Peru, Illinois drove to Elmwood last Sun. afternoon and brought Mrs. Cora Gerbeling home from her visit at Nora. While there, she and Ralph were given a party at the Dale Gerbeling home. The guests returned to Lincoln Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Nickles of Wauwata and Mrs. Mary Williams are visiting Glenn's parents in Portales, New Mexico this week.

Marshall Whittmore is quarantined for chicken pox.

son, Francis Hebard and family. Leroy Munsinger, second place winner in last year's national plow terracing contest, has already entered for this year's contest. Mr. Munsinger is from Tabor, Iowa.

Dinner guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Norris were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kelly; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Larson, Miss Barbara Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Larson, and daughter Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Crook, all of Lincoln. They were invited to a one o'clock dinner, but flood conditions kept them on the south side of town, until the receding waters allowed them to leave their car and walk across the bridge, arriving in time for evening dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Norris were also guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kelley and family have arrived home after a three weeks visit at Lockout, Wyoming, and at Boise, Idaho.
