Miss Johnson Is Married to R. Meisinger

Last Thursday morning in an eleven o'clock ceremony at the Kountze Memorial church in Omaha Miss Margaret Frances Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Christine C. Johnson of Ralston, became the bride of Rube Phillip Meisinger, son of Jacob C. Meisinger. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend Walter Traub.

The bride wore a sheer pink crepe dress with a shirred bodice. Her accessories were beige and brown. She wore a corsage of white gladioli.

Mrs. Edward F. Taylor was her sister's bridesmaid. She wore a light blue crepe dress with navy accessories. Her corsage was pink gladioli.

Best man was Mr. Edward F. Taylor. A luncheon was held at the Blackstone hotel.

When the couple left for Colorado the bride was wearing a beige and brown suit with matching accessories.

They will live in Plattsmouth.

Dianna Laine Coghill

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Coghill are the parents of a daughter, Dianna Laine, born August 11 at Brown's hospital, Nebraska City. This is their first child. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Coghill and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Harper.

Hallas-Schafer Nuptials Friday

Miss Mary Lou Hallas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hallas of Shelton, and James Schafer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schafer of Nebawka, Nebraska, were married at four o'clock Friday afternoon, August 1, 1947, at the Sacred Heart manse with Rev. Vincent Neppel performing the ceremony.

They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Nickerson of Omaha, brother-in-law and sister of the bride. The parents of the bride and groom were also present.

The bride wore a blue suit with red accessories and her sister a green suit with pink accessories.

The bride graduated from Shelton high school with the class of 1945 and attended Duquesne College in Omaha one year. The groom graduated from Weeping Water and during World War II was a radio operator in the Army Air Corps serving in the European Theater.

Following a wedding dinner for the newlyweds and members of the immediate families at the Fort Kearney hotel in Kearney Friday evening, the young couple left on a wedding trip to Denver and other points in Colorado.

They will live on a farm near Nebawka where the groom is engaged in farming.

Homecoming Picnic Held at Rock Bluff

The annual picnic of the Rock Bluff Homecoming association was held Sunday in the Hutchinson grove with 250 attending. The occasion brought out many oldtimers who renewed old acquaintances and found time to refresh memories with reminiscences of childhood days.

Rex Young, as master of ceremonies, with the assistance of Dr. George Gilmore, president, presided at a short program. Letters and telegrams of regret were read from those who were unable to attend: Clifford, Frank and Winnie Calkins and Grant Mann.

David Fowler presented his high school band in a concert which won high praise from the listeners.

Beverly Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sullivan and granddaughter of Arthur Sullivan, did a tap dance number as a special feature with the band.

Hersel Eurlong, of Denver, with the record of having come the longest distance, was called on for a few remarks. Others who gave short talks were Jeff Lewis, Ernest Hutchinson, Ray Franz, Judge Graves, Mrs. Georgia Cremer, Art Pearsley, Chase Patterson, Art Sullivan, T. I. Friest, Judge Fauquet who all paid tribute to the pioneers.

The speaker of the afternoon was Attorney Richard Peck who further paid tribute to our highly esteemed forefathers, whether in our own community or in our countries as nations.

The homecoming picnic is an annual event held the third Sunday in August to which all Rock Bluff pioneers and former residents look forward.

SEE FRIENDS IN CALIFORNIA

Returning from a five-week trip to California, Wynne Babbitt and Pete Hill report an interesting and enjoyable trip. Making the trip west last month with Mr. and Mrs. Harley Wiles who were here from Long Beach, they stayed with relatives and friends. They made excursions to several neighboring cities and were able to see many friends and former Plattsmouth people.

At Torjuna they saw the "June" Marshalls and at Los Angeles they saw the Cary Marshalls family. At San Diego they saw some of the navy families the Hubert Babbitts, the "Doc" Estons, the Ralph Grabisches, and Kenneth and Pete Hill. They visited the George Rhodens in San Fernando and the Dick Nobles in San Francisco. They also saw the John Sanders at San Pedro.

Visitors from The Northwest

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Campbell of Portland, Oregon, stopped in Plattsmouth for a few hours Monday to visit friends. They were enroute home from a trip to Galveston.

Mr. Campbell is the son of Frank A. Campbell, former pastor of the First Methodist church who served here in the middle '90s. Rev. Campbell will be remembered by older residents as the pastor who raised the debt on the old church and burned the mortgage on the Sixth street pavement.

Mrs. Frederick Feldhausen, Jr. August Bride

Last Thursday morning, August 14, Miss Jane Hengst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Hengen of Wahoo, became the bride of Frederick J. Feldhausen, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Feldhausen of Plattsmouth. The double ring ceremony was performed at 9:30 o'clock in St. Mary's cathedral, Lincoln, by the Reverend Thomas Daly.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of eggshell satin with a circular train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a band of orange blossoms. She carried a crystal vase, a gift from her groom, and a colonial bouquet of gardenias.

Miss Adelle Hengen, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a white marquisette gown. Her hand maid was Lucille Gladioli and her colonial bouquet was of white and fushele gladioli. Serving as best man was Harvey Anderson of Wahoo, Ushers were Lloyd Hengen and Don Hengen.

After the ceremony a wedding luncheon was held at the Hotel Lincoln. Later in the day a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in Wahoo.

Guests attending from Plattsmouth were members of the bridegroom's family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Feldhausen, Wayne and Kathleen.

The bride was graduated from the Wahoo high school and later studied art at the University of Nebraska. Mr. Feldhausen was graduated from the Wahoo high school and after serving in the Army Air Corps he attended Creighton University and is now completing his course at the University of Nebraska. The couple will live in Lincoln.

Catholic Daughters Supper Tuesday

A large number attended the annual August covered dish supper at the home of Mrs. John Cloude Tuesday evening. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. John Hedraha, Mrs. Joseph Wooster and Mrs. John Kubicka.

The tables were arranged on the lawn where the group enjoyed the meal in the cool evening. Following the supper Rev. Casimir Brobrowski was presented in an interesting talk.

Rev. Brobrowski, here during the vacation of Msgr. Apius of St. John's church, has devoted his time for the past several weeks helping war refugees. He gave a vivid account of the deportation by the Russian government of Polish people to Siberia. He related many incidents told him by the young people who survived the ordeals.

Father Brobrowski has recently completed his mission to this country by placing Polish war orphans, older boys and girls, in religious institutions in this country where they will continue their education for a religious life.

A social hour followed the talk by Reverend Brobrowski.

Recent Guests

At Parsonage
Overnight visitors at the Methodist parsonage last Friday were the Rev. and Mrs. Walter Jewett and family who were enroute to their home at Sidney, Nebr., after spending a month in New York state with friends and relatives.

Weekend visitors with Rev. and Mrs. Williams at the parsonage were the Rev. Clinton W. Swengel and two sons, Peter and John. Rev. Swengel is pastor of the Methodist church at Logan, Ohio. While here he was guest speaker at the Methodist church last Sunday morning. In addition to preaching the sermon he sang a vocal solo.

A native of Nebraska, Rev. Swengel comes from Plainview where his father still lives. He is a graduate of Nebraska Wesleyan university. Mrs. Swengel, who resided in Ohio with the Swengels' children, is a niece of Mrs. Williams.
