

Weeping Water

A group of neighbors went to the home of Mrs. S. Ray Smith, Monday afternoon, to help her to celebrate her sixtieth birthday. All enjoyed an afternoon of visiting.

Gerald Appling spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Appling, Gerald is employed by the Cushman Motor Works, of Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wiles, Mrs. Homer Jameson and Mrs. George Domingo all went to Lincoln, Saturday evening, to meet and have a short visit with Mrs. Wayne Domingo, who spent a short time in Lincoln, after attending her mother's funeral, at Campbell, Nebraska. They all met at the home of a niece, Mrs. John Horton (Mildred Smith). Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ruby entertained at a birthday dinner, Sunday, honoring their son, Floyd Ruby, of Shenandoah, Ia., when other guests were Mrs. Floyd Ruby and their daughter, Charmaine, and Mrs. Edith Ra-

SUDDUTH WATCH SHOP
Watch & Clock Repairing!
421 Main St. - Plattsmouth

The Rt. Rev. Megr. Edward J. Flanagan, founder and director of Boys Town, shown receiving Royal Jupiter, grand champion steer of the 1946 International Livestock Exposition, from Russell A. Firestone, assistant treasurer of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company, at a presentation ceremony held at Weeping Water, Sept. 14. Also shown are (left to right) Father Flanagan, Mr. Firestone, Mr. Glen Larson, held secretary of the American Shorthorn Breeders' association, and Mr. J. E. Vents, Omaha district manager of the Firestone Company. In the background are Boys Town citizens. The Firestone Company purchased Royal Jupiter for $10.50 a pound.

ciné, mother of Mrs. Floyd Ruby, all of Shenandoah; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cooper and family, and Miss Mary Lou Hammons of Weeping Water.

Mrs. E. G. Steckley left Thursday, for Oakland, California, to visit her brother, William Teegarden and wife. She made the trip by plane.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Potts and family, Mrs. O. C. Hinds and Miss Ruth Ann Hinds went to Maryville, Missouri, Saturday, and remained until Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Elgaard.

O. C. Hinds expects to return home Thursday after a two and a half weeks visit with Captain and Mrs. Doyle, in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph John will have as their guests, Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Vallier, of Bellevue, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Park, of Sterling, Nebr.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Norris and Mrs. Norris' sister, Mrs. Wm. Coppel and her son, Lee, have returned home after an eight day trip, which took them to the Ozarks, northwestern Arkansas, and Missouri. On their way south they visited relatives at Ahamont, Kansas. They found the country made famous by the book, "The Shepherd of the Hills" to be a most delightful delightful vacation spot.

Mrs. Victor Wallick and Miss Viona Schomaker were hostesses at a kitchen shower, Tuesday afternoon at the Wallick home, for Miss Naoma Andersen, whose wedding to William Muttter is scheduled for Sunday, September 21. Twenty guests were invited for the afternoon. Mrs. Wallick was acting hostess in place of her daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Morris, who was unable to be present.

Workmen are busy, this week, building large storehouses for county machinery and materials, which are to be stored in Weeping Water. The new building is being erected on the Missouri Pacific right of way, just east of the new Trunkerholz Oil Co. office.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Jones, of Lincoln, spent Sunday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones, and they all enjoyed an afternoon at Nebraska City, and other points south of here. The Clifford Jones were on their first day of a two week vacation. Mr. Jones is ticket agent for the Burlington Railroad in Lincoln.

Mrs. C. E. Tefft, Miss Esther Tefft, Mrs. Ben Olive and Mrs. Thomas Murty went to Nehawka, Friday, to attend the district meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Rev. and Mrs. Harold Baker and family, of Bassett, Nebraska were called to Weeping Water by the serious illness and the death of Mrs. Baker's mother, Mrs. Anna Miller. They returned to their home Wednesday.

Charles Gibson, Ben Gibson, of Omaha, and their sister, Dr. Katherine Gibson Von Breton, spent the first part of last week in the western part of the state, visiting nephews and nieces, son and daughters of the late Mrs. Mabel Gibson Dwinell.

Mrs. Dorothy Faulkner left Friday, via plane, for the western coast. A card received from her, said that they ran into a heavy snow storm, near Denver, on their way to Salt Lake City.

Rev. Paul M. Hillman, superintendent of Omaha district, had charge of the Sunday morning services at the Nehawka and Weeping Water Methodist churches. A covered dish dinner followed the morning service, after which the first quarterly conference meeting was held at both churches. Nehawka Methodist church voted to install a new oil burning furnace.

Mrs. E. A. Worman, Miss Maude Moutlen, of Weeping Water, Mrs. Eugene Nutzman, Mrs. Glen Rutledge of Nehawka, and Pev. Paul W. Walker, pastor of the two churches, attended the district meeting of the Woman's Society for Christian Service, at Hancock Park Church, Omaha, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Woodruff, of Lincoln, and Mrs. Frank Lamoreaux, of Storm Lake, Iowa, were guests of Mrs. Fred Gordier, Saturday. Mrs. Lamoreaux remained for a few days visit at Mrs. Gordier's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gibson and Ben Gibson, of Omaha, were hosts at an informal gathering of friends of their sister, Dr. Katherine Gibson Von Breton, of Los Angeles, Sunday afternoon, at the Gibson home from four to six o'clock. Dr. Von Breton had come from Minneapolis where she attended the Oxford Group for Moral Rearmament. As this organization is new to the Weeping Water people, they asked the guest of honor to explain its basic principles to the guests. The afternoon proved to be all too short. The guests were ushered into the dining room which was gay with fall flowers, with pink and white roses and tall pink tapers used as a centerpiece for the table. Assisting in the dining room were Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hays. Dr. Von Breton left Monday evening, via plane, for her home, after spending Monday at the home of her brother, Ben Gibson and wife, in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ranney entertained at a dinner, Friday evening, when their guests were Miss Eula Wintermote and her father, John Wintermote, of Chambers, Neb., and Miss Virginia Kovak. Miss Kovarik left Saturday to enter the state university in the Cass County extension office.

Miss Eula Wintermote took her father, John Wintermote, home Saturday and she remained with her parents for a weekend visit returning here Monday.

$3.98

Down to business ...

or out for fun ... you'll be dressed appropriately in this future-focused Jean Allen felt.

Jean Allen

Ladies Jogger

Back Again... AT AK-SAR-BEN

WILD and WOOLY!... THRILLS... SPILLS!

WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP RODEO

10,000.00 IN CASH PRIZES

THE MOST SPECTACULAR INDOOR RODEO IN THE ENTIRE NATION

WORLD'S TOUGHEST, ROUGHEST BUCKING BRONOS AND BRAHMAS!

20th Annual AK-SAR-BEN STOCK SHOW

WRESTLING CHAMPIONSHIP MATCHES

WORLD'S TOUGHEST... RODEO

8 BIG NIGHTS AT 7:15 P.M.

TWO SUNDAY MATINEES AT 2:15 P.M.

STARTING SATURDAY SEPT. 27th THROUGH SUNDAY OCT. 5th

Send mail orders to AK-SAR-BEN, 291 Patterson Bldg., Omaha, Neb. Prices including tax: $1.20, $1.50, $1.80 and $2.10. All seats reserved.

AK-SAR-BEN COLISEUM OMAHA, NEBRASKA

Don't Lose All!

You cannot rush to our insurance agent while your home is in flames to ask him for more insurance.

The only time you can get more insurance is ... before you have a fire.

Stephen M. Davis

Second Floor Plattsmouth State Bank Bldg. PHONE 9

EGGS - EGGS

DO YOU WANT MORE MONEY FOR YOUR EGGS?

For some time we have been trying to secure a connection that would pay a PREMIUM PRICE for QUALITY eggs. That is, eggs that are gathered often, from clean nests, properly cooled out and properly handled from hen to consumer. If you are a producer of QUALITY EGGS, you need not take the price that is paid to those who produce stale, or heat damaged eggs.

We Are Paying for Quality Eggs

LARGE AA	50c Per Dozen
LARGE A	44c Per Dozen
MEDIUM	42c Per Dozen
UNDERGRADES and PULLET EGGS	28c Per Dozen

Come in and Get the Details of This WONDERFUL OFFER

OTIS HACHERY

326 Main Plattsmouth Phone 192

Weeping Water American Legion Post Number 237, honored one of their members, Joseph F. John at a Stag Party, Sunday afternoon, September 14 at the American Legion Club rooms, when all members of the American Legion in the twelfth district were invited to meet their new district commander. Two hundred fifty guests were present. Prominent among them were Past Commander, Richard D. Marvel, of Hastings; Public Relations Officer Warren Baker, of Lincoln; and the district chaplain, Rev. Father McFadden of Syracuse; and Oliver Shriber of Union, past post commander.

Lunch was served to all guests during the afternoon and evening, with John Bender and Frank Wildrick, acting as cooks. Joseph John, the new district commander, appointed Arthur Melles, of Nebraska City, as the new vice-commander.

Meisinger Family In Reunion Sunday

Descendants of the late George and Eva Meisinger held a picnic Sunday, September 14, 1947, in Garfield park, Plattsmouth. Special honor was given to John Meisinger and Fred Meisinger, sons of the late couple, and only surviving members of the immediate family.

The occasion was arranged so that all relatives could meet and visit with Mrs. Flora Meisinger Farrar of Richmond, Calif., who, with her husband, Ralph Farrar, had been visiting for two weeks with her mother, Mrs. Nettie Meisinger of Plattsmouth, her sister, Mrs. Chester Minniear and family, her brother, Mr. Harley Meisinger and family of Omaha. This was the first opportunity in nearly 20 years that Mrs. Farrar had to be with all the members of the Meisinger families who were present at the picnic.

Various diversions were offered but most of the group enjoyed reminiscing and recalling old times.

Present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. John R. Meisinger and Floyd, South Bend, Nebr.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meisinger, Murray, Mo.; and Mrs. Ralph Farrar, Richmond, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Milford Meisinger, and Betty Lou, Murdock, Mo. and Mrs.

James Dwyer, Glenwood, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. William Brandt and Ruth, Avoca, Mo. and Mrs. Harley Meisinger, Lois, Lorene and Larry, Omaha, Mo. and Mrs. Kenneth Heard, James and Janet Sue, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Meisinger and Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Urwin, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Barnes, Dennis and Joyce, all of Louisville, Mo. and Mrs. Clifton Meisinger, Bob and Lucy Ann, Mrs. Blanche Meisinger, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kraeger and Jimmy, and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Minniear, all of Plattsmouth.

Farmers held 262,000,000 bushels more corn on April 1, 1947, than a year ago.

Interior Cass Motors Gets New Paint Job

Painters were busy during the fore part of the week giving the display rooms at the Cass County Motors a fresh coat of paint and adding to its attractiveness during the Korn Carnival Flower Show being displayed in the rooms.

The walls were treated to a coat of cream colored paint, while the ceiling is covered in aqua, making a most attractive and refreshing change from its former appearance.

DDT is the most satisfactory insecticide for eliminating leaf hoppers on beans.

Wash Day is a Snap!

with those WESTINGHOUSE WORK SAVERS

Wash Without Work With the LAUNDROMAT AUTOMATIC WASHER

Put the clothes in, set the dials, take 'em out. Yes, washing's that simple with the Westinghouse new Laundromat Automatic Washer. It fills with water, washes, rinses, spins the clothes damp-dry, cleans and drains itself. Your hands never touch water.

Ironing's Easy - This Westinghouse is so light - - - so fast!

Weights only four pounds - - - glides like a feather with no lifting. Speedy, too, thanks to its ample ironing surface and automatic heat control.

Wm. SCHMIDTMANN

Home of Westinghouse

A MILLION FEET ARE WEARING

Massagic

AIR CUSHIONED Shoes

MADE WITH EVERY STEP

Woster's Shoe Store

X-Ray Fitting X-Perf Shoe Repair

Who Wouldn't Be Proud?

Farm Bureau's Record of Action and Accomplishment is One All Farm People Are Proud

4 THE LINCOLN STAR—FEBRUARY 12, 1947

Farm Bureau Group To Study Wheat Program

Men From 15 States Will

Farm Bureau Head Seeks Fertilizer

Dakota Co Boats 4-H Work

N.F.E. Proposes Revolutionary Changes In the Nebraska State Tax System

AFBF Men Confer With USDA Officials

Phelps Unit Discusses Redistricting

1011 FAMILIES MAKE THIS POSSIBLE ARE YOU A MEMBER?

Farm Bureau Emphasizes Need For Co-operation

War on Crop Losses Start

A portion of the Delegates at the Annual State Convention Establishing Policy for the Coming Year.

When You Enroll - Be An Active Member

YOUR STATE and NATIONAL ORGANIZATION

- Worked for Better Farm Roads.
- More Equitable Taxation.
- Better Schools.
- Research for Agriculture.

YOUR COMMUNITY and COUNTY FARM BUREAU

- Gives you a voice in its policies.
- Provides recreation.
- Sponsors projects you are proud of.

ENJOY THESE SPECIAL SERVICES

- Certified Seed Corn at Cost.
- Non-Profit Hospital & Surgical Care at Cost.
- Fertilizer at Cost.

Cass County Campaign Drive

SEPTEMBER 23 - 24 - 25