

Elmwood

Mrs. Grace Plybon

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hooley and six children are living in the Loren Parish property. They came here from Nehawka.

Mrs. Edna Wolph of California is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Laura Deles Dernier and other relatives in Cass and Otoe counties.

On Monday evening Rev. Val Johnson was given a surprise birthday party when his relatives from the Avoca community were in attendance. These present were his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Harman, his uncle, Don Harman, and his sisters and brothers, Neal Johnson, Miss Ramona Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William Klemme and son, Steven.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ewell attended the bridge ceremonies at Omaha on Thursday.

Callers on John McKay recently were Frank Dix of Woodson, Kansas on Sunday, and on Friday evening Harry Laffler claim agent for the Missouri-Pacific railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Leavitt started on their return motor trip to Los Angeles Wednesday morning. They spent two enjoyable weeks here visiting and calling on old friends and relatives. They were entertained in the following homes: Mrs. Ruth Monning, Mrs. Emily Gonzales, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Pheasant, Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rudolf, Eagle; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mills, Murdock; Mr. and Mrs. Orest Cook; Mrs. William Cook; Mrs. Creamer and daughters; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Clements; Mrs. G. G. Douglas and Mrs. Cora Gering; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Plybon. Mr. Leavitt sang a solo at the Methodist Church Sunday morning. He finished his musical study in New York City some years ago.

The Thursday Fun Night at the Community building was much enjoyed, and a nice sum was netted for the curtain fund. Vernon Clements was Professor I. Q. and he gave out a number of prizes. Mrs. Ray Parsell was the winner of the fine radio. Arthur Lorenz won the main guessing contest. Music was furnished by the Stock Quartette from Murdock, and Oro Lee Fisher and Miss Wolf from Eagle, accompanists Mrs. Luella Fisher and Mrs. Reuben Stock. There was also an accordion number.

John McKay was an Auburn visitor on Tuesday. Sixteen members of the Elmwood W.S.C.S. of the Methodist Church attended the seminar at Epworth Church, Lincoln, on Wednesday of last week.

The Vernon Clements home is being enlarged by a new room on the south side, and other improvements are being made.

Mrs. J. W. Meehan of 405 East Sixth Street, Long Beach, California and Mrs. E. Jacobson of Chappell, Nebr., were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed James the past week. They called on old friends in and around Union and Nebraska City being accompanied there by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hauptman of Avoca.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McCartney and son, now of Clay Center, Kansas, were week end visitors of the Don McKinnos family of near Avoca. Meple Buell is now able to go about in the car and he attended church on Sunday. He is wearing his fourth cast, each one a little lighter than the one before. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wendt celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on Sunday, September 14 with a family reunion at their home.

J. F. Hadraba Home
Joseph F. Hadraba returned Friday night from Bismarck, North Dakota where he has been visiting for some time at the home of his sister, Mrs. Louis Jiran and Mr. Jiran. Leaving here nearly four months ago, Mr. Hadraba accompanied a nephew and wife living in North Dakota on an extended trip which took them to Yellowstone Park, Glacier Park through the Northwest and into Canada.

Joe Nobles Conclude Visit
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Noble and daughter, JoAnn left Suaday for their home in Downers Grove, Illinois after a two week visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Libershal and with other relatives. Mrs. Noble, a former Karnival Queen, took part in the Koronation ceremonies.

Return from Black Hills
Returning last weekend from the Black Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Stander, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Tritsch and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kaffenberger stopped in Sioux Falls, South Dakota for a visit with Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Astrup. Mrs. Astrup is a sister of Mrs. Hugh Stander.

Mrs. Elmo Sexton, accompanied by Mrs. Mary Mae Troop, left Monday evening for Boston. Enroute they stopped at Des Moines where they visited the Edward Yelick family. Mrs. Troop plans to return next week. Mrs. Sexton will remain for a longer stay.

Paper Products Are Demonstrated at Club

About 35 members and visitors were at the meeting of the Good Cause Kensington Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. George Hetrick on North Third street. Mrs. Murphy of Omaha demonstrated paper products designed to make housekeeping easier. Business matters included discussion of plans for the bazaar. On display was the handmade lace tablecloth just completed by members of the Kensington. A delicious lunch was served at the close by Mrs. Hetrick and the assistant hostesses, Mrs. Charles Manners, Mrs. Frank Strough and Mrs. Lorenze Roloff.

Has Minor Operation

Mrs. Herbert Nelson underwent a minor operation in Methodist hospital in Omaha last Wednesday for the removal of a growth on her right hand. The growth developed after Mrs. Nelson failed to find a blackberry thorn which entered her hand while she was picking berries during the berry season. The punctured spot did not fester but later formed a hard growth which doctors diagnosed as skin cancer. Mrs. Nelson reports that the hand is healing satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. Mads Madsen of Minden returned to their home last Sunday after a week's visit here with their daughter, Mrs. Orville Nielsen, Mr. Nielsen and the children. The Nielsens went part way with them when they drove as far as Lincoln from which place the Madsens took the train to Minden.

Midshipman Charles Sheehan of Fernley, Nevada, enroute to the naval academy at Annapolis, Maryland, was a guest last week end at the Joe Libershal home.

C. H. Cobb of Waterloo, Nebr., arrived Tuesday morning for a visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. P. Stewart and Mr. Stewart. Mr. Cobb is leaving shortly for a visit at Springfield, Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McNeel and son, Ronny, of North Platte left Wednesday for their home after a three-day visit here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Farney and Mr. and Mrs. Ray V. Bryant.
