ing room except to serve the excellent meal, which had been prepared by the ladies of the Methodist churches of Nehawka and Weeping Water. Renos Anderson was dining room chairman, and Rev. Paul Walker had charge of the kitchen staff of workers, who were all men. This was a ladies banquet, a Mother-Daughter banquet, which had been planned and each small detail in the preparations had been carefully thought out by a little lady, who sat in the rear of the room and took no part in the events of the evening, except to watch that the program was carried out, as had been planned. This self-effacing chairman was the wife of the pastor, Mrs. Paul Walker.

Decorations were in gold and white, with the color scheme being carried out with autumn flowers, crepe paper bands, and gold and white candles. Two Nebraska City visitors were present. They were Mrs. Paul Conklin and Mrs. Elmer Nicman, and Mrs. Doris Anderson came from Omaha to be present with her mother. Mrs. John Norris presided as toast mistress, and Mrs. Eugene Nutzman led the group singing, with Mrs. Eugene Ludwick at the piano. The program opened with a piano duet of sacred music, played by Mrs. H. L. Kuntz and Mrs. Hal Hansen, both of Nehawka, after which "Grace" was sung by all at the tables. Mrs. James P. Howland gave the Toast to "Our Daughters", to which Mrs. G. Thacker, of Nehawka, responded. Miss Virginia Gish sang "Memories", accompanied by Mrs. Maude Moulton, and Mrs. Ivan Hansen sang "Little Old Lady" accompanied by Mrs. Ludwick. Then came the outstanding feature of the evening program, which was the address given by Mrs. Charles W. Mead, of Omaha, whose subject "Where Do You Live?" brought out many new angles on this oft asked question, for "we live where our mind and spirit are, not where the body lives." "As mothers and daughters in this new world, where do you live?" "The greatest thing we have to share is our faith in the great and living God. The daughters of today must be well equipped, inside, by their mothers influence, for we are now a part of the whole world, not just Nebraska mothers. "The women of today use only about one tenth of their physical capacity. We will have again, to learn the beauty and the value of work, and of the virtue of work with the hands. Each one is an undeveloped treasury, with doors awaiting your determination, discipline and discrimination. Take your daughters into this bigger and better world."

Mrs. Gordon Heneger and her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Endermiller, sang a duet "Our Way", after which the beautiful candle lighting service was in charge of Miss Twyla Miller, assisted by Marilyn Carnes, Marianne De Craen Dorothy McFadden, Mildred Smith, Patty Heebner, Nancy Brown Beverly Bonner and Ruth Rolph who lighted the large candles on the tables, then the mothers lighted the gold candles, and rising, repeated a pledge to their daughters; in turn, the daughters lighted their small white candles, and rose and repeated their pledge of allegiance to their mothers. After this impressive ceremony, lights were again turned on, and Mrs. Nutzman led in the singing of "Now the Day is Over", which closed the happy event. Many were heard to express the request that this Mother-Daughter banquet of the two churches, Weeping Water and Nehawka, become an annual affair.

Guests at the Donald Wiles home last Friday were Mrs. Wiles grandmother, Mrs. Alice Pentiman, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pentiman, all of Elmwood. Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Stoker of Shelby, Iowa, visited at the home of Mrs. Stoker's mother, Mrs. Thomas Murley last Sunday. Mrs. Herbert Ambler is in St. Elizabeth hospital. Her parents arrived here by plane early Sunday morning from Texas to be with her. Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Stratton and young son of Omaha, spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stratton. Mrs. O. K. Cromwell accompanied her son-in-law, Frank J. Davis of Broken Bow to Weeping Water Wednesday of last week, and remained until Saturday morning at the home of J. I. Corley. This is Mrs. Cromwell's first visit to Weeping Water, and her many friends who had the opportunity, were delighted to have a visit with her.

Miss Marne Rasmussen of Omaha, visited at the home of her brother, Chris Rasmussen, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. James Powers and their twin sons, have moved into the Mrs. Theodore Davis rental home which adjoins her home on the south. Mr. Powers recently moved here from Ozark, Missouri. He is employed on the extra board on the Missouri Pacific railroad, and is in Omaha at present. Mr. and Mrs. W. I. C. Lauceure of Newark, New Jersey, were the guests of Mrs. Lauceure's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Corley, Saturday and Sunday, while on their honeymoon. Eugene Kline arrived in Weeping Water from Pennsylvania, Monday, and Tuesday morning he and his grandmother, Mrs. Sam Marshall left for Denver to visit Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Klein. Mrs. J. M. Ranney and Miss Margaret Ranney spent Monday in Omaha, after which Margaret went on to Blair to spend the remainder of the week with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ling. Mrs. Murray Mutter is spending this week in Beatrice with her mother, Mrs. Lillian Saxton. She accompanied her mother home after the wedding Sunday. William Hohman is very ill at the University hospital in Omaha. Mrs. Hohman remains in Omaha to be close to him and to care for her mother who has been ill. Miss Pauline Rough is attending the Lincoln School of Commerce this fall. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schumaker (Fern Linch) are the proud parents of a baby boy, born September 25, 1947, at St. Elizabeth hospital in Lincoln. They have named him Michael Edward. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wade returned home Friday after a week's vacation which they spent in Colorado, in Estes Park, Denver and Colorado Springs. Weeping Water patients who were in St. Elizabeth hospital in Lincoln this week are Mrs. Carl Schumaker and baby; Mrs. C. C. Baldwin, Mrs. Herbert Ambler, Leonard Friesel and Martin Nelson. Leonard Friesel underwent an appendectomy at St. Elizabeth hospital Thursday of last week. Martin Nelson was taken to the hospital last week. He has been bedfast for several weeks. His condition did not improve, so it was thought best to take him to a hospital for observation. His son, Alfred Nelson, is at Bryan Memorial hospital where he underwent a major operation last week. Mrs. Herbert Ambler was taken to St. Elizabeth hospital last Friday for surgery, after months of poor health. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cole, son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Carlson of Chappel, came Friday for a short visit with Mrs. Olsen's mother, Mrs. Walter Cole. They returned home Sunday, taking Mrs. Cole with them for a visit with the Olsens at Oshkosh, Nebr. Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Wiles and family who are visiting Mr. Wile's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Arthur Wiles, a family reunion was held Sunday at the Wiles home, when the entire family were at home together for the first time since 1940. Those attending the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Trine of Madison, Nebraska, and their daughter, Patricia; Mr. and Mrs. Keith Sanders of Scribner; Mrs. George Morey, York; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Uffelman and two children, Valerie and Jean, of Syracuse; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wiles and family of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wiles and family; Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Wiles and family.

Prices May Be High; History Says Not New

By Harman W. Nichols

United Press Staff Correspondent CHICAGO, (AP) — So you think prices are high.

All right, so bread is high because wheat is selling for $2.50 a bushel on the Chicago Board of Trade. Eggs soared toward a dollar a dozen. The price of a new car is way up.

But history won't record our times of record sky-high prices. Simply because it's an old, old story.

Part of the story is told by Edward L. Throm, an expert on that sort of thing with the World Book Encyclopedia.

He came up with some eye-poppers.

For instance, back in Cicero's days — around 100 B.C. — people paid as much as $175 a pound for purple-dyed wool. Wool was all wool and a yard wide, too, in those days, and there was plenty of it. But the dye was a scarce item. It could be obtained only from a creature known as Pur-pure Murex — or shellfish found in the Mediterranean.

Nobles Wore Purple

Each fish was good for only a tiny squirt of dye. You know who dressed in wool in those days — the Roman nobles. That, as a matter of fact is where we got the expression "born to the purple," in case you ever worried about it.

It's hard to believe, but Throm says that pins once were a scarce item in old England.

Along about 1100, the situation got so rough that parliament passed a law allowing pins to be sold only two days a year, one of them New Year's Day, when people probably didn't feel much like standing in line to buy pins.
