Young-Scott Vows Said in Ashland

Fall flowers decorated the Christian Church at Ashland, Nebr., Sunday evening October 26 when Miss Shirley Young became the bride of Lloyd Scott, jr. Miss Young, the daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Young, was given in marriage by her brother, Jack Young. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Utterback. The bride wore a light grey suit. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and button chrysanthemums. For going away she wore a short brown cape with an orchid corsage.

The maid of honor, Miss Verna Young, sister of the bride wore a brown suit with a yellow carnation corsage.

Jack Scott was best man. A reception was held in the church parlors.

Miss Young was graduated from the Ashland high school last spring. She has since been employed by the telephone company in Ashland.

The bridegroom served two years in the United States Navy. Since his return he has been engaged in farming. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Scott, former residents of the Plattsmouth area. He grew up in Cass County and attended the Plattsmouth high school, graduating from here in 1944.

The young people will live on a farm south of Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Inman, of Louisville, were here Saturday to look after some business at the local business houses.

RETURN FROM HUNT

A group of former Plattsmouth men have just returned home from a deer hunt in Wyoming, an annual event that they have enjoyed for the last few years.

The hunting party secured several deer and had a fine time in the mountain country. The hunters were Francis Yelick and George Dolan, of Omaha, Edward Yelick of Des Moines and Richard Yelick of Greeley, Colorado. They are sons and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. James Yelick of this city.

TO VISIT HOME FOLKS

Lowell Hopkins arrived home Monday evening from Seattle, Washington, where he was discharged from the navy. "Gus" however is to re-enlist according to his present plans, after a visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hopkins, Sr. During his stay here it is hoped that Gordon Hopkins, a younger brother, also in the navy, may be here for a reunion with the members of the family.

Mrs. Clark Quite Ill

Mrs. Ward Clark is still confined to her home on First Avenue where she has been bedfast for the past ten days. The condi-

Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Larson

Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Glen Larson were honored on their eleventh wedding anniversary by a most attractive party at the Pine Room of the Rainey coffee shop.

The large and spacious room had been arranged in decorations of the holiday season, carried out in streamers and in the table settings. The Halloween theme prevailed through the evening.

There were some sixty guests present for the evening and in honor of the event Mr. and Mrs. Larson received many very lovely gifts from the friends in the community.

The dinner which was served at the small tables heightened the pleasures of the evening for all of the group.

tion of Mrs. Clark was very critical for several days but she seems to be doing as well as possible at this time.

Returns from Hospital

Albert Todd, who has been for the past several weeks at the Methodist hospital at Omaha, has returned home this week.

Mr. Todd has suffered from an infection of the leg that made his condition very serious for some time. He is still feeling the effects of the infection and unable to resume his usual activities on the farm.

With Mrs. Todd and their son, he was down in the business section of the city Wednesday to visit with the many friends who were very much pleased to see him around.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dow were in Lincoln Sunday to visit at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dow and to see the new grandson. Making the trip with them were their son, Bernard, and a nephew, John Fester of Alliance. The young men, students at the state university, were here for the weekend.

Inklers Card Club

Wednesday evening Mrs. Frank A. Clout was hostess to the Inklers card club at her home on high school hill. In the bridge contests Miss Marie Horn and Mrs. Fred Lugsch were the winners.

Two guests were present Mrs. Chris Bulin and Mrs. William Schmidtmann.

The hostess served delicious

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks for all the friends who remembered our Beloved Mother, while she was in the hospital, by sending her cards, flowers and gifts and to those who called on her personally. She appreciated them so much, and was so proud of her remembrances.
We also wish to thank her many friends who sent cards after her passing.
We especially want to express our gratitude to all who took part in the funeral services, those who loaned us cars and for the vast amount of beautiful flowers, for all the food that was sent to us.
We wish we could thank you personally. These acts will be cherished along with the memory of so wonderful a mother. The children of Mrs. Louise Klingler
