Weeping Water

Mrs. Thomas Murty

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Philpot are spending two weeks with their daughter, Mrs. Fern Colbert, in Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. John Heebner, Sr., have bought the M. N. Nelson home, west of the park. They expect to move into town some time before the first of March, as they have to give possession of their farm, by that time.

Danny Stratton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stratton, informed us that he has joined the Navy. He expects to leave in about three weeks for San Diego.

Opportunity Extension Club met last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Knaup.

with Mrs. Harold Harmon as assistant hostess, and Mrs. William Jamesen and Mrs. Lester Parsons as leaders of the program, with "Kitchen Cupboards" as their theme. Mrs. Louis Noble was an invited guest at the meeting.

Dorcas Circle of the Christian Church met at the home of Mrs. Cecil Nichols, with Mrs. Ed Freeman assisting as hostess. Work is progressing toward their bazaar, which will be held during the early part of December.

M. L. DeCraen was called to Kewanee, Illinois last week by the death of his father.

Henry Knaup left early last Sunday morning for Rock Rapids, Iowa on a business trip.

Mrs. C. E. Tefft, Miss Esther Tefft, Mrs. Ralph Keckler, Mrs. L. P. Wolcott and Mrs. Ben Olive went to Nehawka last Tuesday afternoon to attend a meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution, at the home of Mrs. Marion Tucker, when Miss Wilda Mitchell was the guest speaker. She told of her travels in Japan during the war, and showed some interesting things brought home from that country.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Day left Saturday for Bradenton, Calif., where they will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar Hamilton of New York City visited recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Munkres.

Roy Harshman is the owner of a new Piper Cub plane, and he and his friend, Mr. Heil, of Louisville, flew to the northeast part of South Dakota for a hunting trip.

DeForest Brown is erecting another hangar to accommodate three more planes, out at his Air Port, east of Weeping Water. This is the second hangar which he has built. It's a busy place out there, with planes being brought there for overhauling. Mr. Brown and his assistant mechanic, Mr. Duwe, are kept very busy.

While still on the subject of planes, we must add that Weeping Water has an enthusiastic woman flyer. Mrs. Neil Munkres, one of the busiest women in Weeping Water. Mrs. Munkres owns and operates a Beauty Parlor. She assists at the "Chief" moving picture theatre each evening where she sells tickets. Mr. and Mrs. Munkres are owners of the theatre, and until last week she spent two days in Nehawka where she owned and operated another Beauty Parlor. All those activities, besides the care of her home makes Mrs. Munkres a busy woman, but not too busy to enjoy a ride in her plane, which she keeps at Brown's Air Port.

Mrs. Fred Gorder is spending two weeks at Grand Island with her daughter, Miss Helen Gorder.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wolcott were week end visitors last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Wolcott.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Day spent last week end at Des Moines visiting with relatives of the family.

Robert Resso and a friend flew down from Lincoln Sunday of last week to visit his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Brown.

Mrs. George Domingo had as her guests last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ogen and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lowe and son, all of Underwood, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Little entertained at a dinner, Oct. 19, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Earl Oldham. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Klemme, Wehsh. The annual Sunset Banquet was held Thursday evening in the basement of the Methodist Church. This in an event which is eagerly looked forward to each year by the older people of this community. The hostesses are the Woman's Society for Christian Service.

Sunday evening, Oct. 19, Clyde Baxter, Jr., John Sterling, Richard Appling and Bob Hammons, were in a car near the Walter Lühning home, with Clyde Baxter, Jr., driving, when the car swerved and went into a ditch, leaving the boys badly shaken up, and the driver with a gash in his face, which took six stitches to close.

Elmer Philpot, of Santa Monica, California, spent last week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Sterling. Another dinner guest was Richard Appling, with the Edward Slatery family spending the afternoon at the Sterling home.

Union

Mrs. L. G. Todd

Mrs. Delbert Lindsey, Norma and Freddie left Union last Thursday morning for Missouri where they will be joined by Mrs. Burris, mother of Mrs.

Lindsey. They will then go on to Kansas where they will visit relatives.

We have enjoyed the special music at the Methodist Church the past few Sundays. Mrs. Sanford, with a group of her high school students were at the service two weeks ago. The girls sang "Saviour Like A Shepherd Lead Us" and were accompanied by Mrs. Sanford at the piano. Last Sunday Ramona McQuinn sang a beautiful solo. On Oct. 26th Mrs. Harold Finch will sing a solo for the morning service.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell McQuinn were callers at the Donald McQuinn home last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Todd attended a recital last Friday evening given by Mrs. Olin Morris and her pupils of Murray. Her granddaughter, Nancy Kay Todd, was one of the pupils on the program. The little folks did splendidly and Mrs. Morris deserves much credit for her fine recital.
