Methodist WSCS Elect Officers

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met Thursday evening in the church parlors, with the Gleaners Circle as hostesses.

New officers elected for the coming term included Mrs. Earl Carr, secretary; Mrs. Sam Hatcher, treasurer; Mrs. Edgar Newton, secretary of spiritual life; Mrs. Dwight Edwards, secretary of student work; Mrs. Lester Dalton, secretary of supply work; Mrs. Harold Stewart, secretary of literature and publications.

The election of a new president was postponed until next month.

Hold-over officers include Mrs. H. B. Perry, vice president; Mrs. John Schreiner, corresponding secretary; Miss Margaret Mapes, secretary of missionary education; Mrs. R. C. Humiston, secretary of children's social relations; Mrs. Charles Janacek, status of women; Mrs. Harold Alkire, youth work; Mrs. Theodore Yelick, children's work; Mrs. E. C. Williams, conference advisor.

Mrs. Lester Dalton was in charge of devotions. Miss Mapes gave a talk on missionary work and received the missionary mite boxes for the past year.

The Dorcas circle conducted a fish pond of parcel post boxes.

On the serving committee were Mrs. William Heinrich, Mrs. V. T. Arn, sr., Mrs. Agnes

Moore, Mrs. Vic Schreiner, Mrs. Pearl Mann, Mrs. Robert Mann, Mrs. Charles Walden, Mrs. Fred Busch, Mrs. Everett Newton, Mrs. Don Seiver and Miss Ruth Patton.

Children Give Program Friday

A children's program was given at the First Presbyterian church on World Community day, November 7, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Orville Nielson, with children secretaries of other churches assisting.

Children had brought school supplies that were put in boxes containing a pair of shoes each, to provide needs for children from six to twelve attending school. There were at least fifty-three boxes brightly trimmed with pictures of home life and childhood as representative of our country.

The program was beautifully given by the children with secretaries assisting. It was opened by the candle lighting service by the children in white robes, who formed a procession and lit candles as they marched to the choir loft to lead in singing. Two songs were used by them during the program, "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations" and "Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Us." Mrs. Theodore Yelick, secretary of children of the WSCS announced the numbers of the program and Mrs. Paul Kiel led the children in the singing. Mrs. Howard Davis gave the story of the hour, "The Line on the Mountain"—the international line between two countries which become acquainted through two boys with their herds of goats and sheep. This story filled the general theme of the program.

Dr. H. G. McClusky then gave the closing prayer and benediction and the children marched and faced the altar where they placed the offering.

Historical Society to Meet Here Nov. 19

The Cass County Historical society will hold its next meeting in Plattsmouth on Wednesday, November 19, with a noon luncheon at the Hotel Plattsmouth.

The program scheduled will be a discussion of the histories of the churches of Plattsmouth.

Dr. George Gilmore, Murray, president of the organization, will be in charge of the meeting.

Everyone interested in furthering the preservation of the annuals of Cass County is invited to attend the luncheon and program.

The flute trio was composed of Bonnie Meisinger, Kathleen Feldhausen, Alice Ann Read, giving several much enjoyed selections.

The always delightful clarinet quartet was presented in several numbers. The members of this group comprised David Friest, Florene Duda, Carol Rakow and Joan Cecil.

The committee of the evening served sandwiches and coffee at the close of the evening.

Knits Record Number of Items For Red Cross

Knitting 46 sweaters in a lifetime is a record for any woman to be proud of. But when one woman knits that many sweaters and many more items besides, the whole community sits up and takes notice.

Miss Mabel White, 618 Ave. F, Plattsmouth, marks off the 46 sweaters as only one item on her list of garments and articles knitted for the Red Cross during the war and since. Miss White was commended at the annual meeting of the Cass County chapter of the Red Cross a few months ago for her splendid achievement.

Other items include 35 pairs of gloves, 19 helmets, 13 pairs of rifle mitts, 6 pairs of toe socks, 9 pairs of bed socks and several miscellaneous garments.

Clair Shellenberger and sons, Jerome and Michael, and Miss Audrey Dow went to Lincoln Wednesday where they visited at the Charles Dow home and brought back Mrs. Shellenberger who had been there for several days.

St. John's Church Scene of Wedding Ceremony Sat.

St. John the Baptist church in Plattsmouth was the setting for the wedding Saturday morning of Miss Virginia Bierl and Mr. Terrence J. Smith.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bierl of Plattsmouth and the groom a son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Smith, of Omaha, formerly of Elmwood.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. George Agius, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums. Bill and Joseph Smith, of Omaha, brothers of the bridegroom served the Mass.

During the service Mary Phyllis Troop was soloist while the accompaniment was played by Kathleen Feldhausen.

The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin with long pointed sleeves, net yoke with off the shoulder flounce, trimmed in cut out satin, and three yard train. She wore a finger tip veil with orange blossom tiaras. The bride carried an arm bouquet of red roses.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Frances Bierl, as maid of honor. She was gowned in pink satin with bustle back. She carried a nosegay of bronze chrysanthemums.

Mrs. John Baye, bridesmaid, wore a matching gown of coral satin.

A family dinner for thirty guests was served at the St. John's hall following the wedding Mass.

The bride is a graduate of the Plattsmouth high school. The groom spent three years in the Navy and is a graduate of the University of Texas.

After a wedding trip to Texas, the couple will be at home in Omaha.

Legion Auxiliary Meets Thursday

The Plattsmouth Legion Auxiliary met Thursday evening at their rooms in the Forty and Eight club.

The ladies had a very pleasant treat in two musical groups from the high school under the direction of David Fowler, musical instructor at the school.

The flute trio was composed of Bonnie Meisinger, Kathleen Feldhausen, Alice Ann Read, giving several much enjoyed selections.

The always delightful clarinet quartet was presented in several numbers. The members of this group comprised David Friest, Florene Duda, Carol Rakow and Joan Cecil.

Parents Night at High School

Thursday evening, November 13, 7:30 to 10:30. All parents of the high school students, and all friends of the school are invited to attend the program at the high school, Thursday evening, November 13th.

The building will open at 7:30, and the program will begin at 8:00 when all visitors will meet in the assembly hall. After a brief explanation of the program for the evening the parents may select the class schedule they would like to follow. These classes will be brief but should be very interesting, and they will be varied in their nature.

Following the visits to classes there will be a program in the assembly put on by the students and the teachers. At the conclusion of the assembly program the class rooms will be open for inspection and the teachers will be available for conferences. The members of the Student Senate will be present and act as guides to help direct visitors about the building.

Return Home From Summer Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Petersen returned home Wednesday night from Henning, Minnesota, where they have spent the summer outing at their cottage on Battle Lake.

They have had a most delightful time in the pleasant surroundings of the lake country and Charley enjoyed the fishing very much.

They report that October in that country was delightful, but is now growing quite chill, and the trees are denuded of their leaves as the chill of winter draws near.

On their trip home they stopped overnight at Onawa, Iowa, and also at Omaha with their daughter, Shirley.

On the homeward journey they found a great deal of rain that followed them into Nebraska.

Mrs. Tessie Copenhagen was in Omaha Wednesday to visit her brother, Guy Stokes of Percival, Iowa, who was there for the day.

SCHREINER PHARMACY

Giles-McFarlane Vows Said at High Noon Wednesday

Fern, candelabra and white chrysanthemums were used as a background for the informal wedding of Miss Lois E. Giles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Giles, and John S. McFarlane, Salinas, California, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McFarlane of Tigard, Oregon.

Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, performed the double ring ceremony Wednesday noon at the home of the bride's parents. Relatives and close friends were present.

Miss Lois Wolph, Nehawka, namesake of the bride, lighted the tapers. She wore a pastel green rayon dress with white accessories.

The bride wore a dress of sheer white wool crepe which she had made. It was fashioned simply with shaped neckline, long fitted sleeves, fitted bodice with lowered waistline, falling into a flared skirt. She wore heirloom bracelets of braided yellow gold, the gift of the bride's grandfather to his bride on their wedding day. She carried a lei of Vanda orchids from Honolulu, a gift of the groom.

Miss Marjorie Greybill, David City, Nebraska, was the soloist. The bridal music included "All For You," "The Lord's Prayer," and "The Pledge."

For going away, the bride chose a two piece all wool dress in peccan, with dark brown accessories.

The couple left by United Air Lines for the Pacific coast. After November 10th they will be at home in Salinas, California.

Assisting at the wedding reception were Mrs. George C. Sheldon and Miss Evelyn Wolph of Nehawka; Mrs. Ben Olive, Weeping Water. In charge of the guest book was Mrs. Glenn Thacker of Nehawka, cousin of the bride.

Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. George C. Sheldon; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Thacker, Miss Evelyn Wolph, Mr. and Mrs. Conant Wolph and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wolph; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tucker; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Pollard; all of Nehawka; Mrs. Ben Olive, Weeping Water; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wolph, Avoca; Miss Marjorie Greybill, David City; Mr. and Mrs. Carroll L. Garey, Lincoln.
