

Society and Personal
BY THELMA OLSON DIAL 241

Altar Society Aids AT Vet Hospital

Members of the St. John's Altar Society went to Lincoln Wednesday to help out at the Veterans hospital. The various church women's organizations are cooperating with the American Legion Auxiliary in this worthy effort to roll bandages and do other jobs to help the nurses at the hospital. Mrs. John Bergmann drove her car and was accompanied by Mrs. Ed Berlett, Mrs. Fred Feldhousen, Mrs. William Woolcott and Mrs. Helen Smith.

Also at the hospital Wednesday were five women from Swanton and eight from Louisville. The nurses gave high praise to the entire group for their cooperation and expressed their appreciation for the work of all the women coming into the hospital to give their assistance.

Mrs. Woolcott, speaking for the Legion Auxiliary, said that the gift shop at the hospital is now open for the Christmas season. The shop is made possible by gifts sent by auxiliaries. Patients are allowed to select items to send to their families, the gifts are wrapped and mailed without charge to the patients. This is but one phase of the work of the American Legion Auxiliary which gives visible evidence of the good the organization accomplishes.

TO CHICAGO MEETING
Rev. Roy Morris of the United Presbyterian church, Murray left Tuesday evening for Chicago to attend a committee meeting Wednesday of the board of directors of the Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological Seminary. Two new instructors for the school were to be selected.

Daughter is Born
Announcements have been received here telling of the birth of a daughter, Dixie Leigh, born November 9 to Captain and Mrs. C. B. Butcher of Tulsa, Oklahoma. The Butchers lived here for three years when the captain was stationed at Fort Crook. They have one other child, a son, Dana.

Camp Fire Leaders To Have Dinner

Next Monday evening at 6:30 in the Pine Room of the Hotel Coffee Shop the guardians and sponsors of the Camp Fire girls will hold a dinner. About 25 people will be present. These will include the guardians of the five Camp Fire groups and the Bluebirds, the assistant guardians, the Mother Sponsor of each group and the board of review. Also present will be Miss Hortense Geisler, executive director of the Omaha district of Camp Fire who will bring one or more assistants with her.

Following the dinner the group will adjourn to the auditorium of the Public Library at eight o'clock where Miss Geisler will lead a discussion and forum in which the local workers will participate.

Mrs. Glenn Jones is president of the Guardians Association.

Omaha Parties Married
Thursday evening at the parsonage of the First Methodist church occurred the marriage of Daisy Bell and Howard Sitzman, both of Omaha. The marriage lines were read by Rev. E. C. Williams and the wedding witnessed by Miss Margaret Mapes and Mrs. Williams.

Following the wedding the parties returned to their home in Omaha.

Enroute to Northwest
Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clark this week were Mr. Clark's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Fisher of Guthrie, Oklahoma. The couple, driving through to Washington and Oregon, arrived Monday and left this Thursday morning to resume their trip.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY
The Junior class of the high school is presenting the mystery comedy, "Home, Sweet Home," this evening and Friday at the high school auditorium. This was a great success both as the book and in the dramatization. The play will be presented at the high school auditorium and the curtain at 8 o'clock.

November Meeting Of Garden Club

The Plattsmouth Garden Club met in regular session at the library on Tuesday, November 4. Mrs. Ed Berlett, chairman of the flower show committee gave her report of the show held during the Korn Carnival. Exhibitors numbered 35 and visitors registered 1285. A committee was appointed to buy and send a gift of appreciation to the judges, Mrs. Parkinson and Mrs. Piccolo of Omaha.

Re-elected to office for the ensuing year were Mrs. Berlett, president, Mrs. Fritz Fricke, vice president and Mrs. William E. Brown, secretary-treasurer.

A book selected by the librarian will be presented to the juvenile section of the Garden Club. New membership cards were ordered. Plans were made to make wreaths or suitable decorations for Christmas at the next meeting. Members discussed the idea of planting a tree somewhere in the city in honor of the boys in service.

Lorenz Family Have Gathering

In the past two weeks the E. A. Lorenz family have had a very pleasant visit with their children from the west coast. They departed this morning for their homes.

The members here from out of the city were, Mrs. Emily Lorenz Johnson and small daughter, Janie and Edward Lorenz, both of Burbank, California.

Miss Marie Prohaska, sister of Mrs. Lorenz, came from Baltimore, Maryland, to meet the niece and nephew, the first time they have been together for ten years.

Jack Lorenz, the youngest member of the family, was unable to be here as he is attending school in Idaho.

Ta-Wan-Ka Group Meets
The Ta-Wan-Ka Camp Fire girls met at the farm home of Barbara Sullivan on November 8 which was Barbara's birthday. Mr. Sullivan took the girls out to the farm in his automobile. The girls took winners and buns with them and enjoyed a winner roast. Mrs. Sullivan served hot cocoa, cake, candy bars and marshmallows to celebrate Barbara's birthday. The girls had a very nice time.

The next Saturday they met at the home of their guardian, Mrs. Harold Gaines. After selecting the articles they wanted to make, the girls began their work in leathercraft for Christmas gifts for their parents.

On November 22 the Ta-Wan-Kas will meet at 1:30 in the afternoon at the home of Janice Caldwell—Mary Lou McCarthy, scribe.

To Attend Meeting In Illinois Next Week
Rev. E. C. Williams, registrar of the Nebraska Board of Ministerial Training, will leave Sunday night for Evanston, Illinois where he will attend a three-day session of the Committee of Ministerial Training. The meeting will be attended by deans and registrars from all over the country. The churchmen will hear about 30 lectures on the general theme, "The Church and Secularism." Rev. Williams will return the latter part of next week.

Guests Here Sunday
Dr. and Mrs. Felix Funde, of Omaha, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Drusty, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, were here Sunday as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rosborough and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hanson. They enjoyed a very delightful duck dinner.

Have Pinochle Club
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Snell were hosts recently to six couples of pinochle. Prize for high score for men went to Henry Vinduska. Mrs. Henry Vinduska won the prize for women's high. The traveling prize was awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Vinduska.

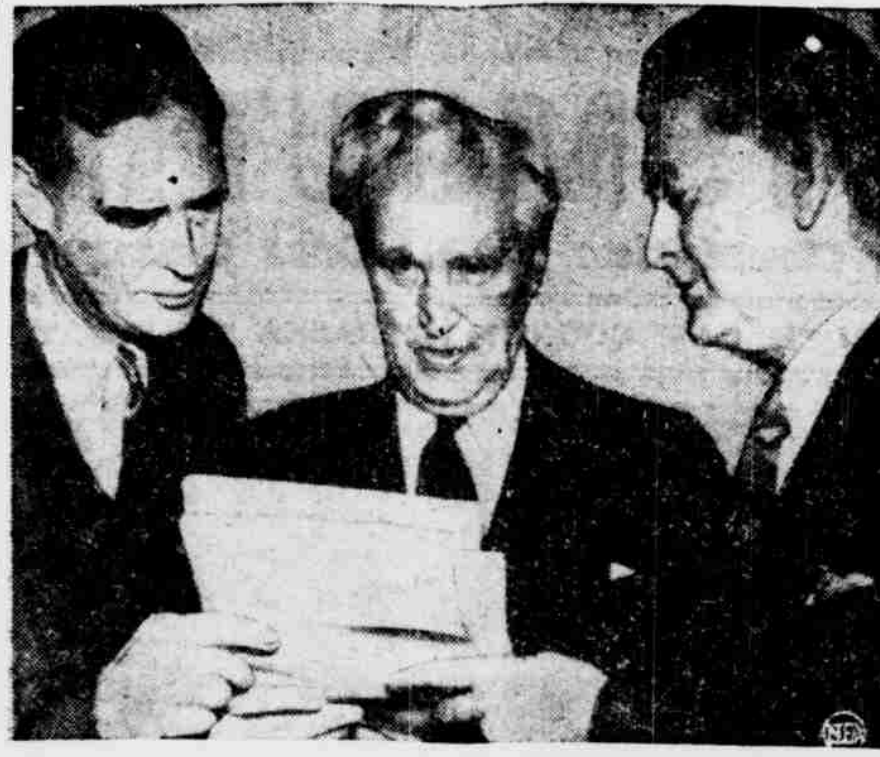

Merford Hutchison and H. H. Haver of Louisville with Henry Herold of Coleridge, Nebraska, were here Tuesday to look after some matters of business. Mr. Herold was called to Louisville by the death of Mrs. Frank Thustus, a mother-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Jackson and son, Danny, Jr., of Nebraska City have been enjoying a few days visit here with Mr. Jackson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jackson, as well as his brothers, Bernard and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Jackson.

Mrs. A. F. Fritchey of Decorah, Iowa, has been here visiting with her sister, Mrs. Mollie Gobelman, and also at Council Bluffs, with her mother, Mrs. David Hiatt.

Mrs. Fred Newman is spending a few days at St. Louis and East St. Louis with relatives and friends. She departed the last of the week.

Suits, Coats and Dresses made new again by Plattsmouth Cleaners.

Harvey D. Gibson (left), president of the Manufacturers Trust Co. of New York, presents a check for $143,027.00 to Robert M. Littlejohn, Director of the Texas Assets Administration. The check represents final payment for the Big and Little Inch Pipeline properties by the Texas Eastern Transmission Co. Looking on are (left to right) George R. Brown of Houston, Texas, chairman of the board of the Texas corporation, and R. H. Hargrove of Shreveport, La., president of the Corporation.

Calendar

Thursday, November 20—
Women's Guild coffee social at St. Paul's church at 2:00 p. m. Thursday.
W.E.C.S. circles meet Thursday as follows: Dorcas circle at 2:30 p. m. with Mrs. Harry White; aomi circle at 2:30 p. m. with Mrs. C. C. Cotner; Gleams circle at 8:00 p. m. with Mrs. Pearl Mann.
Cass County Couple Observe Silver Wedding
Weeping Water (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Chris Holt celebrated their 25 wedding anniversary Saturday evening at their home four and one half miles north of town. Thirty relatives were present to help them to celebrate the day. They all arrived in time for dinner at six in the evening and a most enjoyable evening was spent visiting and playing pinochle. Those who attended were Louis Holt, of Minden, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Holt and young daughter, Kristy, of Milwaukee; Dennis Holt, P.F.C. of San Diego, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holt, and son, Cotesfield, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Christensen, Cotesfield; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hansen Elba; Mr. and Mrs. Sophus Christensen, Dannebrog; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Peck and daughter, Central City; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hansen, Greenwood; Mr. and Mrs. George Kopf, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holt and daughter, Weeping Water.
Miss Elma Hansen and Chris Holt were married November 15, at St. Paul. They came to Weeping Water about eight years ago and have made many friends since coming to this community. The guests left many beautiful gifts for the bride and groom of 25 years ago.

Lt. Rebal and Wife Visit Here

Lieutenant R. F. Rebal, USMC, with Mrs. Rebal is visiting here in Nebraska with the relatives and friends for a short time. Lt. Rebal is stationed with the army at Fort Knox, Kentucky, where he has been assigned since being graduated and commissioned as a member of the army medical corps.

Lt. Rebal and Mrs. Rebal came west to Omaha to look after some business affairs and are enjoying the opportunity of visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Rebal, parents of Lt. Rebal, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Rebal and Mrs. Josephine Cechal. They are planning to return to the army post in a few days to resume active duty.

Tuesday Club has Pleasant Meeting

The Tuesday bridge club were entertained this week at the attractive home of Mrs. L. S. Puccelik on North 3rd street, all of the members being present to enjoy the afternoon.

In the play Mrs. Fred Bourck was the winner of the high score, Mrs. Herbert Schuetz, second honors and Mrs. Robert M. Walling, the special prize.

The hostess served delicious refreshments at an appropriate hour.

Celebrate Fifth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Tunnel, who observed their fifth wedding anniversary last Friday, November 14, were in Kansas City for the weekend where they visited with friends in celebration of the occasion. Mrs. Tunnel is enjoying a week's vacation from her office duties in an Omaha insurance company.

Mrs. Ray Larson and her father, Mr. P. Wheelton were in Lincoln Tuesday where they visited with Raymond, Jr. who is attending the University of Nebraska.

BIRTHS

Sons:
A son, Roger Harlan, weight seven pounds, 15 ounces to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Baumgart this Thursday morning at Methodist hospital in Omaha. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Heil and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Baumgart.
Mr. and Mrs. Dale Steinkamp, Louisville.
Mr. and Mrs. Donald Blotzer are rejoicing over the arrival of their first child, Donald Franklin, who was born in the Methodist hospital, Omaha, on Tuesday morning. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James Holubek and John Blotzer.

McCook Junior To Pasadena

In the teams that has been suggested for the "Little Rose Bowl" at Pasadena, California, on December 13th, Nebraska has one that should receive serious consideration.

This is the McCook Junior college football team. McCook has won championship both in the Nebraska Junior college conference and Nebraska Intercollegiate athletic association.

The record of McCook makes them a worthy foe for the Little Rose Bowl competition and they can be depended upon to give a good account of themselves.

Have Fine Visit With Their Son

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gradoville and daughter, Joan, with Louis Swoboda, had a most pleasant visit with Cadet Edward Gradoville, Jr., after the recent Army-Notre Dame football game.

They were unable to see Ed until after the game but met him as soon as the team completed their changes for the street.

One happy feature of the occasion was that they were able to ride the football special from South Bend to Chicago giving them a much longer stay with the son and brother. The Nebraska visitors left Chicago over the Burlington while the cadets returned to West Point.

Visit at Annapolis

Mr. and Mrs. John Livingston of Fort Wayne, Indiana are visiting at Annapolis Naval Academy this weekend with their brother, Midshipman Richard Livingston and taking in the Army-Navy game, according to a message received by their mother, Mrs. Lillian Livingston.

C. A. Johnson left for Kansas City Wednesday to join Mrs. Johnson who is visiting at the home of M-Sgt. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller and family. The Johnsons will remain there until their granddaughter, Judy Miller returns from the hospital after having her tonsils and adenoids removed this week.

Miss Norma Jean Siemers returned to her duties as student nurse at Clark hospital, Omaha, Monday after a visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Siemers.

Celebrate Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Rhylander, son Kenny, Mrs. C. J. Rhylander and Mrs. John Zatopek were in Lincoln Sunday where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Rhylander and participated in a celebration of Stewart's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Gray and family of Weeping Water, were in Plattsmouth Sunday to spend the day visiting at the home of County Assessor W. H. Puls and Mrs. Puls.

BACK AT DUTY

Mrs. Troy Cotner was back at her work as clerk in the office of County Treasurer Ruth Patton Monday. She has been enjoying her annual vacation at the home in this city.

L. A. Meisinger Given Surprise

L. A. Meisinger was given a pleasant surprise Sunday when friends and relatives came to help him observe his birthday which was Sunday, Nov. 16.

A delicious dinner was served at noon after which the remainder of the day was spent in visiting.

Those present for the occasion were: Mr. C. A. Meisinger, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Meisinger and Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Meisinger and Sandra, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Tritsch, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Meisinger, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Meisinger, Janelle and Betty Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Emmons Meisinger and Tommy Coy, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Meisinger, Wilbur, La Vonne and Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Zeimer, Mrs. Florence Eates, Mr. John Bennett, Katherine Meisinger and the guest of honor and wife Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Meisinger.

Charles Kaffenberger, who was called here to attend a funeral at Omaha, departed Tuesday evening for Compton, California, where he has been making his home. While here he visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kaffenberger at the farm, also with the other relatives and old friends in this vicinity.

Attends Canners Meet this Week

This week the Nebraska-Iowa Cannery association is meeting at Des Moines, Iowa, attracting a large number of those interested in this industry.

E. H. Bernhardt, manager of the Norfolk Packing Co., who is a member of the board of directors of the company, has been in attendance at the meeting since Sunday.

Others of the staff of the Norfolk plant at the meeting are John V. Svoboda, Lester Thimigan and W. A. Campbell, Jr.

Herman Reichstadt was in Omaha Wednesday where he visited with his brother, Dr. Paul Reichstadt and undergoing a check up. Mr. Reichstadt has not been well of late.

McCook Junior To Pasadena

In the teams that has been suggested for the "Little Rose Bowl" at Pasadena, California, on December 13th, Nebraska has one that should receive serious consideration.

This is the McCook Junior college football team. McCook has won championship both in the Nebraska Junior college conference and Nebraska Intercollegiate athletic association.

The record of McCook makes them a worthy foe for the Little Rose Bowl competition and they can be depended upon to give a good account of themselves.

BACK ON ROUTE

James Bridgewater, Jr., who is in charge of the Alamito route in this territory, is back on the job and has been able to look after the needs of the patrons as usual.

He has been suffering from an attack of pneumonia that confined him to his home for some time.

Taken to Hospital

Mrs. Earl Becker was taken to Omaha Thursday afternoon where she was placed in the Methodist hospital for observation and examination. She was taken to the hospital in the Sattler ambulance.

R. F. Jones of Bartlett, Iowa, was a visitor in the city Wednesday to look after some matters of business and calling on his friends in the community. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are former residents of near this city.

CASH available at Mutual Loan & Finance Co.

Mrs. T. B. Farmer arrived from her home in Whiting, Indiana for a visit this week with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mann and children.

Hans Plahn and sister, Miss Sarah Plahn, drove up last week from Caldwell, Kansas for a visit of several days with relatives and oldtime friends and schoolmates. They formerly lived in the vicinity of the Glendale precinct. Last Sunday they were dinner guests in the W. H. Meisinger home.

“GETTING A CHILL?”
Don't Dread Winter . . Dress for It!

Come in and buy one of our Winter Coats—the price won't chill you, but they keep you warm and you won't dread winter.

Junior Sizes 9 to 17
Regular Sizes 12 to 44
Prices $19.95 to $49.75

Dresses long on Beauty if you wear
Sizes 9 to 17 or 12 to 50
We Have These Three Special Groups
$3.98 - $7.98 - $10.98

Flattery Starts with Your Hat
Exclusive Distributors for Gage and Fisk Hats in Cass County
Priced $3.98 to $12.50

PRICED BELOW PRESENT DAY MANUFACTURERS COST. WE SAY — FORGET PRICES BUT COME IN AND SEE THESE DRESSES AND YOU BE THE JUDGE —

SPECIAL! Children's SWEATERS Sizes - 7 to 14 $2.98 to 3.98	CINDERELLA DRESSES For Little Sister 3 to 6 - 7 to 14 $1.98 to 3.98	CHILDREN'S Coats and Snow Suits Sizes 1 to 6 - 7 to 14 $7.50 to 22.50	NANETTE TODDLERS Sizes 1 to 3 Priced $1.98 to 3.98
---	--	--	---

Ladies Joggers
515 Main St.
DIAL 5113

Sunbonnet Garden Club

The Sunbonnet Garden club met Thursday afternoon, November 13, at the home of Mrs. Charles Manners with 14 members and two visitors present.

Mrs. Ethel Wall presented the lesson on "Care of Roses in Winter." Mrs. Celia Lancaster read her original poem, "Housecleaning Time." The group voted to have each member bring a cash donation for Christmas for veterans in the Veteran Hospital, Lincoln.

Mrs. Manners was assisted in serving by her daughter, Mrs. Frank Strough.

The next meeting will be a covered dish Christmas dinner and gift exchange on December 11 at the home of Mrs. Louis Hansen.

McCook Junior To Pasadena

In the teams that has been suggested for the "Little Rose Bowl" at Pasadena, California, on December 13th, Nebraska has one that should receive serious consideration.

This is the McCook Junior college football team. McCook has won championship both in the Nebraska Junior college conference and Nebraska Intercollegiate athletic association.

The record of McCook makes them a worthy foe for the Little Rose Bowl competition and they can be depended upon to give a good account of themselves.

BACK ON ROUTE

James Bridgewater, Jr., who is in charge of the Alamito route in this territory, is back on the job and has been able to look after the needs of the patrons as usual.

He has been suffering from an attack of pneumonia that confined him to his home for some time.

Taken to Hospital

Mrs. Earl Becker was taken to Omaha Thursday afternoon where she was placed in the Methodist hospital for observation and examination. She was taken to the hospital in the Sattler ambulance.

R. F. Jones of Bartlett, Iowa, was a visitor in the city Wednesday to look after some matters of business and calling on his friends in the community. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are former residents of near this city.

CASH available at Mutual Loan & Finance Co.

Mrs. T. B. Farmer arrived from her home in Whiting, Indiana for a visit this week with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mann and children.

Hans Plahn and sister, Miss Sarah Plahn, drove up last week from Caldwell, Kansas for a visit of several days with relatives and oldtime friends and schoolmates. They formerly lived in the vicinity of the Glendale precinct. Last Sunday they were dinner guests in the W. H. Meisinger home.

Attends Canners Meet this Week

This week the Nebraska-Iowa Cannery association is meeting at Des Moines, Iowa, attracting a large number of those interested in this industry.

E. H. Bernhardt, manager of the Norfolk Packing Co., who is a member of the board of directors of the company, has been in attendance at the meeting since Sunday.

Others of the staff of the Norfolk plant at the meeting are John V. Svoboda, Lester Thimigan and W. A. Campbell, Jr.

Herman Reichstadt was in Omaha Wednesday where he visited with his brother, Dr. Paul Reichstadt and undergoing a check up. Mr. Reichstadt has not been well of late.

McCook Junior To Pasadena

In the teams that has been suggested for the "Little Rose Bowl" at Pasadena, California, on December 13th, Nebraska has one that should receive serious consideration.

This is the McCook Junior college football team. McCook has won championship both in the Nebraska Junior college conference and Nebraska Intercollegiate athletic association.

The record of McCook makes them a worthy foe for the Little Rose Bowl competition and they can be depended upon to give a good account of themselves.

BACK ON ROUTE

James Bridgewater, Jr., who is in charge of the Alamito route in this territory, is back on the job and has been able to look after the needs of the patrons as usual.

He has been suffering from an attack of pneumonia that confined him to his home for some time.

Taken to Hospital

Mrs. Earl Becker was taken to Omaha Thursday afternoon where she was placed in the Methodist hospital for observation and examination. She was taken to the hospital in the Sattler ambulance.

R. F. Jones of Bartlett, Iowa, was a visitor in the city Wednesday to look after some matters of business and calling on his friends in the community. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are former residents of near this city.

CASH available at Mutual Loan & Finance Co.

Mrs. T. B. Farmer arrived from her home in Whiting, Indiana for a visit this week with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mann and children.

Hans Plahn and sister, Miss Sarah Plahn, drove up last week from Caldwell, Kansas for a visit of several days with relatives and oldtime friends and schoolmates. They formerly lived in the vicinity of the Glendale precinct. Last Sunday they were dinner guests in the W. H. Meisinger home.

Gigantic!
IS THE WORD

Used by our customers to describe the every day savings made by trading at Feldhousen

1.25 Absorbine Jr. $.89
1.50 Ampho Jel 1.29
1.25 Petrogalar89
1.25 Anacin Tablets98

Hot Water Bottles $1.29
Electric Heating Pads 4.95
Yes, Facial Tissue, Lge.33
Vaporizers, Electric 2.00

50c Iovana Tooth Paste $.43
1.25 Jergens Lotion & Cream79
1.60 Fitch Special99
1.00 Jeris Deal51

Naylon Nail Polish $.60
Forever Amber Cologne 2.50
Cutex Nail Brilliance39
Lustre Cream Shampoo 1.00

Greeting Cards!
● THANKSGIVING ● CHRISTMAS
● EVERY DAY
Your Choice 5c to 50c
Boxes Asst. 39c to $1.00

Greeting Cards made with your favorite snapshot
7 1/2c each

We Give S and H Green Trading Stamps

Feldhousen Drugs
"Your Friendly Drug Store"
— ALWAYS SERVING YOU BETTER —
522 Main Street Phone 6117