

Harold-Kraeger Wedding Held at St. Paul's Church

The St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church was the scene of one of the lovely weddings of the early winter season Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Betty Jeanne Kraeger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Kraeger, was united in marriage to Mr. Raymond O. Harold, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond O. Harold, Sr.

The church was very beautiful in the decorations of pink and white. The altar was banked with large baskets of pink gladioli tied with bows of white. On either side of the altar were the large white candelabra with the pink tapers.

Tapers in the windows were white, set in foil holders, which were tied with sprigs of huckleberry.

Before the flower dressed altar the marriage lines were read by the Rev. E. J. Moritz, pastor of the church. The double ring service was celebrated by the pastor.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride had chosen as her wedding gown white taffeta with fitted bodice, marquisette yoke edged with deep lace bertha, leg of mutton sleeves tight from the elbow and pointed at the wrist. The full skirt had a two and a half yard train edged in lace. She wore a three-quarter length net veil which fell from a beaded tiara. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and gardenias. Her necklace was pearls.

The bridesmaid was Miss Donna Meisinger. She wore a gown of dusty pink moire and carried a colonial bouquet of blue carnations.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Eldon Vroman, wearing a gown of dusty pink moire a shade lighter than the bridesmaid's. Her colonial bouquet was yellow roses.

Candle lighters were Peggy Highfield and Darlene White. They wore identical full length gowns of shell pink. They carried tapered tapers with miniature carnation bouquets.

Mary Sullivan was flower girl. Her gown was of pink taffeta in floor length. She carried a foil basket filled with pink rose petals.

Jimmie Kraeger was ring bearer. He carried the rings on a white quilted satin pillow.

The groom was attended by Eldon Vroman as best man.

The ushers at the church were Bob Brookhouser and Dale Rhoden.

The mother of the bride wore a gray tailored wool dress with a corsage of red roses. The mother of the bridegroom wore a black and white dress with a corsage of the red roses.

Miss Jan Klous of Omaha sang two selections, "Because" and "With This Ring I Thee Wed". She was accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Fisher of Lexington, Nebraska, who played the organ prelude as the guests were seated. Miss Fisher played the traditional wedding marches for the service.

The reception followed in the church parlors. The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake iced in white and decorated with roses of pink iced. A circlet of pink rosebuds set in Baby's Breath and ferns completed the centerpiece.

Mrs. Gladys Ofe of Council Bluffs cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Louis Kief poured. Miss Norma Jean Siemers was at the guest book and Miss Dorothy Warga and Janice Long presided at the gift table.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Loren Hester and family, Council Bluffs; Mr. and Mrs. James Dwyer, Glenwood; Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Bowman, Nodaway, Missouri; and Fred J.

The bride and groom are both graduates of the Plattsmouth high school. After his graduation in 1943 Mr. Harold was in the armed service for forty-three months. He was stationed with the army of occupation in Austria for eighteen months. The bride was graduated in 1946 and was in training in the nurse school at Clarkson hospital, Omaha for one year.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to Siloam Springs, Arkansas, they will be at home in the Coronado apartments.

For her going away suit the bride wore a Burgundy suit with accessories of matching color. Her corsage was of white gardenias.

Ray Cook to Holdrege

Raymond Cook left Saturday for Holdrege where he was scheduled to speak in the pulpit of the Hollinger Evangelical and United Brethren church Sunday morning and at a Brotherhood rally at Alma in the afternoon.

Mr. Cook was home for Thanksgiving with his family after an absence of several days on business matters pertaining to the church and to the Masonic lodge. His work took him to lodges at Fremont, Rising City and Springfield. He also attended the reception at Grand Island for the Grand Master of the Masons of Nebraska. At Laurel, Nebraska he was present at the Thanksgiving church services.
