Altar Society Elect Officers

The St. John's Altar society met Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the St. John's hall with a good attendance of the members to take part.

The election of officers was held with Mrs. Edward Berlett, re-elected as president; Mrs. Joseph Bierl, re-elected as vice-president; Mrs. Fred Feldhousen, re-elected treasurer; Mrs. Charles Thomas was named as the secretary to replace Mrs. Albert Case, retiring secretary.

Mrs. Fred Rea was elected as the president of the St. John's guild. Mrs. Fritz Fricke was the retiring president of this organization.

Plans were completed for the annual Christmas party that will be held at the St. John's hall on Tuesday, December 16th at 1 p. m., and will be a covered dish luncheon. Christmas gifts will be exchanged.

At the close of the social hour luncheon was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Walter Smith, chairman; Mrs. Emery Doody, Mrs. Frank Toman, active and Mrs. Henry Lutz and Mrs. M. D. Brown inactive.

The special prize was awarded to Mrs. John Bauer, Jr., with Mrs. Albert Altschaffl, Mrs. Anna Pittman and Mrs. Fred Feldhousen winning first, second and third in the games contest.

Credit Women Hold Party

The Plattsmouth Credit Women's Breakfast club held their Christmas party on Friday evening at the dining room of the Rainey cafe with some sixteen of the ladies in attendance at the event.

The dining room table was arranged with the decorations of the small Christmas trees of pop corn with green and white marshmallows at each place making a very pretty setting for the party.

The ladies enjoyed a business session that was presided over by Mrs. F. P. Busch, president of the club.

The members of the club held an exchange of Christmas gifts as a part of the program of the evening.

The committee in charge of the entertainment was composed of Mrs. L. W. Egenberger, Lucille Horn Gaines and Ann Hassler.

Mollie Gobelman, one of the active business women of the city was a guest of the club.

Legion Ladies Hold Meeting

The American Legion Auxiliary held their monthly meeting on Thursday at the Forty and Eight club with a good attendance of the membership present.

The business session was presided over by Mrs. Alpha Mauzy, unit president.

For the Christmas season the ladies were urged to donate gifts of clothing, glass canned food, and toys for the baskets. These donations will be greatly appreciated and help make the holiday much more pleasant for many.

The Auxiliary voted to join with the Legion in an oyster supper that will be served on Sunday, January 11th, at 5:30 in the afternoon.

There were nineteen new members initiated into the Auxiliary with the usual appropriate ceremonies.

During the evening Miss Phyllis Bourek gave a very delightful vocal number to add to the pleasures of the evening.

Mrs. Henry J. Donat presented a fine review of "Miracle on 34th Street" by Valentine Davis, one of the most successful books of the year.

The hostesses were: Mrs. Cora Baumgart, Mrs. L. A. Caldwell, Mrs. Don Sievers, Mrs. J. A. Quigg, Mrs. Russell Nielsen, Mrs. Merle Furse, Mrs. Vic Schreiner.

Hear Speaker At Youth Meet

Representatives of the Youth Fellowship of Christian Church who attended a youth meet at Nebraska City Saturday, December 6th, heard Carroll Lemmon, executive secretary of the Nebraska Council of Churches, outline a program whereby Disciples youth could assume a worthy leadership in inter-church activities and fellowship.

Commenting upon the desire of early Disciples leaders to work cooperatively with other Christian communions, Mr. Lemmon pointed out that their spirit was entirely missible with that of the present Federal council and World Council fellowships.

The Youth Fellowship meet convened in Nebraska City Christian church at 9:30 A. M. The all-day sessions were concluded with a consecration service at 7:00 P. M. Plattsmouth church was represented by a delegation of seven young people including: Bonnie Topf, Beverly Brown, Bill White, Albert and Betty Brown, David Robinson, and Rev. Sherman R. Hanson.

Other program features included discussion workshops, banquet, fellowships, and talks by F. R. Stevens, president of Cotner college, Miss Mary White, secretary of the Nebraska Christian Women's missionary society, and Emmett Hass, pastor of the Christian Church at Nebraska City.

The Christian Women Honored

Christian women were honored for their sacrificial service at a Women's Day service in First Christian church Sunday, December 7th. During the service the Rev. Sherman R. Hanson commended the work of all the women of the church, and asked that four representative women specifically report upon their departmental programs.

In reporting on the work of the Ladies Aid, Mrs. E. G. Ofc, president of the group, told of their complete program of work, worship, fellowship and service.

The group meets weekly for service, monthly for fellowship, and is ever ready to undertake specific jobs of work in the life of the church.

Mrs. P. F. Rihn, president of the missionary society, discussed the program of that organization. She told of its local, state, national and inter-national objectives, and showed how its missionary arm is extended all around the world.

Mrs. Maxine Keil, Superintendent of the Junior department of the church school, commended the work of the loyal women who are responsible, as teachers, for the large classes and effective work of the educational department of the church. She appealed, however, for a more complete cooperation upon the part of parents in the tremendous task of giving proper religious training to the children.

Mrs. Clovis Day's statement of the work of the United Council of Church Women dealt with its recent organization, its present program, and its future plans.

The groom is a graduate of the class of 1942 of the Plattsmouth high school, and served thirty-seven months with the Army in the Pacific War theatre. He is now with the Western Electric Co., and is located at Grand Island.

Cub Mothers Picture Treat

The fourth and final meeting of the Cub Mothers was held at the Central School building on Thursday, Dec. 4. This meeting was a picture show and was a fine climax to the series of meetings which were held in past months.

The movie showed the Cub in the Den, the Cub in the Pack, and the Cub in the Home. It was an educational and interesting picture from the start to finish and all those in attendance enjoyed the meeting.

Those in charge have been well pleased with the meetings and feel that now a larger number of Cub parents are acquainted with the Cub Scout program and the problems which are faced by the workers in this youth work.

Plans are completed for the Cub Pack meeting for December. This meeting will be a Christmas party and will be held at the Christian Church on Dec. 19.

At the November Pack meeting which was held last Friday of November, Richard Beverage and Van White graduated into Boy Scout work. Stephen Woster was eligible to graduate but was unable to attend so will receive his advancement at the next meeting. At this same meeting two new Cubs, Murray Mayer and Donald Gerbeling, were taken into the Pack.
