

Greenwood

By Connie Osburn

Mr. Henry Hansen of Greenwood was struck by a westbound Burlington passenger train Saturday at 5:11 P. M. and was fatally injured. Mr. Hansen had been making his home with his sister, Mrs. Louise Anderson of Greenwood. Other relatives in this community are Mrs. Emma Aphun, sister; Mrs. Everette Cape and Mrs. Lillian Jardine, nieces. Mr. Hansen also had one son, Ralph, of California.

Mrs. George Rouse was hostess at a Stanley party Wednesday afternoon. Twelve ladies were present and a very enjoyable afternoon was spent by all.

Mrs. Clinton Green was shopping in Lincoln Monday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Joe Kyles spent Saturday and Sunday in Lincoln at the Elton Keller home.

Mrs. Claude Osburn and Mrs. D. E. Buckingham were shopping in Lincoln Saturday.

A miscellaneous shower was given in honor of Mrs. John Grady nee (Maxine Hurlbut) at the Methodist church on Monday, Dec. 1. There was a very large group present and Mrs. Grady received many lovely gifts. Hostesses were Mrs. D. S. Saccia, Mrs. Kneet and Mrs. Lloyd Grady.

The M.W.M. club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Clara Brackaga.

The Dorcas Society of the Christian church will hold their annual Christmas party Friday, Dec. 12. It will be a one o'clock luncheon and an exchange of gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Gayl Walters and family to Cresco, Nebr. were Sunday afternoon and supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Rouse and Larry.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wright spent Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Osburn and Roger.

The Happy Homemakers club will have a family Christmas party at the Legion hall, Dec. 14. Mothers are to bring a 25 cent gift for each of her children.

Mrs. John Agena entertained a group of young people in honor of Wayne Agena's birthday, Wednesday night at the Legion hall. Mrs. Agena served a very delicious lunch which consisted of angel food cake, jello and pop. Wayne received many nice gifts.

Professor A. H. Harding of Brookings, South Dakota, was a dinner guest of Dr. and Mrs. N. D. Talcott Saturday. Mr. Harding and Dr. Talcott were former schoolmates.

Miss Evelyn Grady celebrated her 10th birthday Friday. She treated the pupils and teacher at her school.

Miss Margaret Greer suffered a partial stroke Friday. Her right side was affected. She is not seriously ill, but was taken to Bailey's Sanitarium for care.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Pigg of Fremont called on Dr. and Mrs. N. D. Talcott Monday morning. Mrs. Pigg remained until Wednesday and Mr. Pigg drove on to Omaha where he was to conduct a meeting. Rev. Pigg is minister of the First Christian Church in Fremont. Mrs. Pigg is a niece of Mrs. Talcott.

Mrs. Elmer Leadabrand, Mrs. A. J. Leadabrand, Mrs. Johnny Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Howard spent Friday evening at the Clinton Green home. The ladies made candy for the bazaar at the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Lloyd Grady and Evelyn were Lincoln shoppers Saturday.

Union

Mrs. L. G. Todd

The Junior Class play was given at Bannings hall last Friday night. There was a fair crowd due to bad roads and changing of dates. The play, "Aunt Emily Sees It Through" was a very amusing plot and the students did their part well. Those in the cast were Mary Lou Ervin, Gertrude True, Phyllis Grunwald, Harold Fahrlander, Wayne Bennett, Bill Crawford, and Gene Klein.

Dorothy Mae Schanot and Nancy Kay Todd were taken to Lincoln by their mothers last Saturday morning where they spent the week end visiting relatives. They were very busy indeed those two days with visiting Santa, shopping, shows and of course the first train ride for Nancy Kay gave her quite a thrill.

Miss Vivian Meisinger spent the week end visiting in the home of a sister and her family who live in Waverly.

The Flu bug has been keeping many of the pupils from school the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford, Miss Vivian Meisinger and Mrs. Todd were guests of Miss Dorothy Dunn and Nancy Anthony last Friday evening after the show.

The W.S.C.S. of the Methodist Church met at the church last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Vita Snodgrass was hostess. After the usual time given to business, new officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, Jane Paasch, Vice-President, Lora Faris, Treasurer, Myrtle Christensen, Secretary, Mrs. Todd, Secretary Christian Social Relations and Local Church Activities, Mrs. McQuinn and Mrs.

At The Cass County Court House

In the district court Wednesday a decree of divorce was granted Raymond J. Carnicle from Lauretta Carnicle. The voluntary appearance of the defendant was entered in the case. The parties were married at Camp Carson, Colorado, May 24, 1943.

In the county court Tuesday morning a hearing was had on a complaint charging Jewell Nichols with operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor. The case was the outgrowth of an accident Monday evening in which a car driven by Nichols was involved. Deputy Sheriff Shradler Rhoden was called to Weeping Water Monday where the defendant signed by Marshal Rookstool and John Meade. The defendant made a plea of guilty to the charge and was given a fine of $50 and costs and had his driver's license suspended for a thirty day period.

Cross, Secretary Spiritual Life, Nettie Mougey, Secretary Missionary Education, Mrs. Earl Upton, Secretary Literature and Publications, Minnie Comer, Secretary of Supplies, Francis Crawford. Lovely refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. L. R. Upton.

Elmwood

Mrs. Grace Plybon

Rev. and Mrs. Val Johnson motored to southern Kansas on Tuesday, because of the illness of Mrs. Johnson's mother. Mr. Johnson will return home on Saturday, but his wife plans to be in Kansas until after Christmas.

Mrs. Earl Horton reviewed the book "The Bishop's Mantle" by Agnes Slight Turnbull, for the December meeting of the W.S.C.S. at Eagle.

Elmwood basketball team has won two games recently, the first with Alvo and on Friday night the bells pealed out telling of the victory over the Palmyra team.

The first Christmas afternoon party was held on Friday, Dec. 5, by the Royal Neighbors at the home of Mrs. Emily Gonzales. A one o'clock luncheon, a Christmas tree and other decorations with exchange of gifts made it a pleasant affair.

Mrs. Watson Jones had an appendectomy at Bryan Memorial hospital last Saturday. She is reported doing well.

The choir members and others who can, are practicing each Monday evening for the cantata to be given Sunday, Dec. 21, under the capable leadership of Mrs. Willard Clapp. Mrs. Clapp has sung in different Lincoln churches for a number of years.

Among the Lincoln shoppers on the sunny Monday of this week were Mrs. L. Hollenbeck, Mrs. Nettie Mendenhall, Mrs. Cora Gerbeling, Mrs. Plybon, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pool and Mrs. Eveland.

The sale of household goods at the Dreamer residence on Saturday, Dec. 6 was well attended. Mr. Lacy of Avoca was the auctioneer, and Leonard Dreamer of Lincoln the manager. This property has been vacant for several years, as Mrs. C. Dreamer, owner, is living with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Liefert near Palmyra. It is to be rented in the near future, however.

County Attorney Walter H. Smith was at Lincoln Monday where he was called to look after some matters of business, trying a case in the district court.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Johanns and Mrs. C. J. Rhylander, were in Omaha Tuesday to look after some business matters for a few hours.

LINCOLN DAILY JOURNAL
9 Weeks $1—A Year $5

People taking 32 cents a week papers pay $14 a year, and due to not being paid ahead can easily switch. They get their other mail through the postoffice.

The Daily Lincoln Nebraska State Journal can give two to ten hours later news out on rural routes and in many towns because it is the only large state daily between Omaha and Denver printing at night. In fact after 5 P. M. The Lincoln Journal prints editions right up until train time, day and night. The Morning Journal comes in time for mail delivery the same day. Dailies printed on the Iowa line cut for Iowa readers.

The Lincoln Journal sells for four to seven dollars a year less than any other big State morning daily, and is priced as low as day late afternoon papers.

By mail in Nebraska and North Kansas, nine weeks daily $1.00; daily with Sunday twelve weeks $2.00; a year $5.00 daily, $8.00 with Sunday.
