Mrs. L. G. Todd

UNION (Special) — Spokane Valley Church, Spokane, was the scene of the marriage Thanksgiving Day of Miss Barbara Dimond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Dimond, Sr. and Ivan T. Hoback, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hoback, all of Coulee Dam.

Rev. Victor A. McKee read the marriage service. Mr. and Mrs. Hoback are well known in the area, the bride being a member of the 1946 Coulee Dam High School graduating class and at present an employee of the Bureau of Reclamation. Mr. Hoback graduated from the Grand Coulee High School in 1945, served in the Merchant Marine during the war in the Pacific Theater. He is employed at the Safeway store in Grand Coulee. The newly weds will make their home in Coulee Dam.

Donald Hoback is a grandson of Mrs. Lizzie Taylor of Union and used to reside in Union before going to the west.

The North Liberty Extension

Club held their November meeting at the home of Mrs. Gerald Paasch, Nov. 19th. There were nine members and four visitors present. The lesson on Kitchen Planning was given by Mrs. George Rieke and Jane Paasch. It was decided to hold the Christmas party at the Legion Hall, on Dec. 12th. The members will entertain their families at a "supper party."

The Lindsey families held a farewell dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brannon last Sunday in honor of Roy Lindsey of California, who has been visiting relatives around Union the past three weeks.

Miss Augusta Robb is spending a few weeks in Union in her home, but will return to the West again in a short time.

Last Friday evening as Frank Schlichtemier was driving home from Nebraska City, he and another car were in a collision at the Union Corner on Highway 75. Mr. Schlichtemier was in the hospital at Nebraska City for a couple of days but is now at home.

Mrs. Lessell returned to her home in Missouri after having spent several days in Union visiting some of her Union friends. She and her husband were residents of Union many years ago. Word was received several days ago, by Union relatives, that Will DuBois had died at his home in the west.

The Home Coming Services were well attended at the Methodist Church last Sunday. Frank Finch preached in the morning service. He and Mrs. Finch were in the Sunday School services later, and also held a short service with the Sunday School teachers and officers. A basket dinner at noon, was enjoyed by a large number and at 2:30 a dedication service for the Memorial Window given by Mrs. G. L. Welch of Omaha in memory of her mother, was conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. C. Williams.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met at the church last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Vita Snodgrass was hostess. New officers for the coming year were elected as follows:

Mrs. Gerald Paasch, president; Mrs. Lee Paris, vice-president; Mrs. John Christensen, treasurer; Mrs. L. G. Todd, secretary; Mrs. Donald McQuinn and Mrs. Carl Cross, secretaries of Christian Social Relations and Local Church Activities; Mrs. L. B. Moughey, secretary of Spiritual Life; Mrs. Earl Upton, secretary of Missionary Education; Mrs. Herman Comer, secretary of Literature and Publication; Mrs. Winnie Crawford, secretary of Supplies.

The Union Woman's Club held their December meeting at the home of Mrs. Gene Roddy last Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. George Stine was leader of the meeting her topic "Christmas Story" taken from one of Hess Streeter Aldrich's books called "The Drum Goes Dead." Mrs. Harold Finch sang a Christmas solo and was accompanied on the piano by her mother. At the close of the meeting the hostess served a lovely lunch in keeping with the Christmas season. She was assisted by her daughter, Mary, and sister-in-law, Margaret Roddy.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Todd and family and Mrs. L. G. Todd drove to Omaha Thanksgiving morning where Mrs. Todd stopped at the home of her daughter and family to spend a couple of days. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Todd drove to Des Moines to spend the day with a sister of Mrs. Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Loberg.

The Thanksgiving dinner and supper given by the Baptist ladies was attended by a large crowd and the ladies netted a neat sum to be used in the interest of their church.

Miss Jessie Reeve, who lives near Timblin, Iowa, about ten miles from Iowa City, spent a week visiting her nieces, Mrs. Monning and Mrs. E. Gonzales and other relatives on Tuesday she started on a western trip, when she will visit at Taccana, Washington and go from there to California.

Around sixty members attended the Eastern Star session on Tuesday evening. Some were there from near-by towns.

The Blackwood Brothers concert, which was scheduled to be given here on Wednesday evening under the auspices of the High School was postponed, because of the icy roads and streets. Also the Woman's Club meeting on Thursday was not held for the same reason.

Miss Fern Pearson, music instructor, was absent from school several days this week because of illness.

Miss Giralda Hayes of Los Angeles and her niece, Mrs. Harvey Wallace and son, Richard, of Long Beach, left for California on Tuesday after visiting relatives here.

On Wednesday morning, Mrs. John McKay went to Omaha to attend the meeting and banquet of veteran Masons. This organization consists of Masons of 25 or more years membership. Mr. McKay has been a Mason for 61 years. He is visiting relatives in Council Bluffs now.

Hoofbeat for Firemen
SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UP)—You might say suburban Alamo Heights firemen are burned up. The night dispatcher received a call and sounded the fire alarm. Before the trucks reared out of the station, some alert fireman remembered 6116 Broadway was the fire station's address.

City Bars Union
A resolution prohibiting the city from employing any person who is a member of a labor union. The action was intended "to guarantee safety, welfare and health of Cordele citizens against conditions which might arise from labor disputes and strikes."
