Lentz - Monroe Wedding Held Friday Evening

In a Christmas setting of holly, pine and candlelight at the Christ Lutheran church, west of this city, on Friday, December 12th at 7 p. m. Miss Maria Lentz, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Lentz of Louisville, became the bride of James L. Monroe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Monroe of Omaha.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, who also performed the marriage service.

The fitted bodice of the bride's gown was Alencon lace with a dropped net yoke. Forming a cuff on the sleeves and accenting the dropped yoke and waistline were lace flowers centered with clusters of seed pearls. The skirt was eggshell satin with a veil and a half yard train. The veil of eggshell French illusion fell from its own plated tiara. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible with streamers tied with Stephanotis.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Robert Scherer of Omaha and bridesmaids were Cheryl Roche and Marlynn Gardner. They both wore red velvet gowns and carried cascade bouquets of white carnations and pompons.

The bride's sister, Joanne, sang "I Love You True" by Grieg. She wore a red faille gown with a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Edward Wehrbein was the accompanist for the song.

Miss Joanne Lentz played the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" for the entry of the bridal party and Mendelssohn's wedding march for the recessional.

The bride's mother wore royal blue with a gardenia and Stephanotis corsage. The groom's mother wore black with sequins and corsage of gardenia and Stephanotis.

Robert Putt, Jack Roche and Bill Otis of Omaha served as ushers for the service.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony for 225 guests. The four tier wedding cake was baked by a friend of the bride, Mrs. Forrest Engelke-meier, and cut by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Harold Duis, of Fairbury, Nebraska. The Misses Norma and Betty Schaefer of Omaha assisted with the serving. Miss June Keil was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Elmer Maatsch of Odell, Nebraska, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Glen Kraeger, and Mrs. Franklin Wehrbein of Plattsmouth arranged the gifts.

The couple left immediately following the reception for a southern honeymoon and will be at home at 504 South 37th St., Omaha after January first. The bride's going away costume was a brown tweed suit with brown alligator accessories and white orchid corsage.

SECURE EXTRA HELP
With the Christmas rush on at the local postoffice Postmaster Edward Egenberger has secured additional help for the next few weeks.

Catherine Gall, Mark Muller and Lowell Hopkins are assisting in the office and the handling of the fast increasing flow of the Christmas mail.
