

Society and Personal

— Just Dial 241 —

Griffin - Eaton Wedding Held

The marriage of Miss Betty J. Griffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Griffin, Nebraska City, to Marvin D. Eaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rube Eaton, Union, was solemnized at a single ring ceremony Thursday, 2 o'clock at the parsonage of the First Evangelical Lutheran church in Nebraska City with the Rev. R. V. Davis officiating.

Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hill, Union.

The bride wore a pink gabardine suit with black accessories and had a corsage of white carnations. The matron-of-honor chose a teal blue dress with black accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations.

The couple is living at Seventh street and Third avenue in Nebraska City. The bride graduated from the Nebraska City high school and is working as a telephone operator at the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Company. The groom graduated from the Nebraska City high school and has been farming.

The ceremony was witnessed by Richard F. Valerice and June C. Molner, both of Omaha, who had accompanied the young people to this city.

Keentime Klub Christmas Party

Friday evening the Christmas party of the Keentime klub was held at the VFW club rooms that has been placed at the disposal of the Keentimers for their use. The club rooms had been decorated with the VFW Auxiliary with the Christmas colors.

The affair was a dress up party for the young people and made a most attractive scene as the young people danced the hours away until 11:15 to the delightful music that had been donated by Claude Ruse for the entertainment of the youngsters. There were 210 attending the party, one of the largest that has been out for the club functions.

Dr. and Mrs. P. T. Heineman, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meisinger, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tritsch and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hill were the chaperones of the evening.

While the group were enjoying the dancing party Carl Chriswiser secured pictures of the young people.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake was served at the close of the evening.

Married at Omaha On Saturday

The wedding of Miss Imogene Van Every of Omaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Van Every of Weeping Water, and Carlton H. Noyes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Halsey C. Noyes of Valley, took place Saturday in Omaha.

The Rev. E. G. Floyd performed the 4 o'clock ceremony before an altar decorated with chrysanthemums and white tapers at the Benson Presbyterian church.

The bride's gown of ivory satin was fashioned with a net yoke edged with embroidery, a fitted bodice and full skirt with a long train. The finger tip veil of illusion fell from an ivory coronet. She carried green orchids on a white bible.

Mrs. Edward Robinson of Waterloo, matron of honor, was dressed in forest green taffeta.

The bridesmaids, Miss Bonnie Lepley and Miss Eileen Schaefer, wore matching gold taffeta gowns and carried bouquets of bronze red pompons.

Edward Robinson of Waterloo was best man. Ushers were Glen McCue of Crete, Nebr., William Van Every and Donald Noyes.

A reception was held in the church. Mrs. Noyes was wearing a maroon gabardine suit with black accessories when she and her husband left on a short trip.

Death of Former Resident of City

The body of Mrs. Mary Barstow, former resident of Plattsmouth, arrived in the city Monday evening and was taken to the Sattler funeral home where services were held on Tuesday morning. Canon George St. George Tyner of the St. Luke's church celebrated the Episcopal service for the dead.

The pallbearers comprised relatives and old friends: E. C. Goddard, Henry Becher, Robert Benditvky, Ray Boehner, Clifford Forbes and L. W. Egenberger.

The deceased lady resided here some forty years ago, where the husband, Edward Barstow, was a foreman at the Burlington shops. She has been making her home in the east and died at Springfield, Ohio, December 20th at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Ray G. Goddard.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Ray C. Goddard, Springfield, Mrs. Helen Boehner, Lincoln; one son, Ross Barstow, Houston, Texas.

Celebrate 40th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Meisinger observed their fortieth wedding anniversary Thursday, December 18th, and in honor of the occasion a small group of relatives came to spend the evening.

Lunch was served at a suitable hour.

Those present were the honored couple, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Meisinger; Mr. and Mrs. Jake Tritsch; Mr. and Mrs. Jake Zeimer; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Meisinger; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Meisinger, Janelle and Bette Kay, Katherine Meisinger; Mr. and Mrs. Boyd O. Browner; and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Delafield and Sharon Kay.

Lieutenant (jg) Allan B. Carlson, United States Navy air corps, was in the city Friday to spend a few hours with his father, C. B. Carlson, day clerk at the Hotel Plattsmouth. Lt. Carlson is stationed at Miami, Florida at the present time.

Use Journal Want Ads

Mrs. D. Canahan and Pattyhouse on Saturday, December 13th, interview Santa Claus at court 13th. —Photo by Chriswiser

Scalping—1948 Style

As scalpers' tickets to the Michigan-Southern California football game in the Pasadena Rose Bowl, Jan. 1, become scarce, Los Angeles bars equipped with television sets advertise reserved seats at $20 and standing room at $10. Refreshments are extra.

Circles of St. Paul's Church Meet

The members of Circle No. 1 of the Woman's Guild of the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church, held their meeting Wednesday evening at the church parlors.

Mrs. P. A. Meisinger had charge of the program and business session. The members of the group enjoyed a 6:30 covered dish luncheon that was followed by the business session of the organization.

The program was based on the Christmas holiday with the beautiful story of the Nativity given and with the members joining in the group singing of the Christmas carols that was much enjoyed.

There were twenty-one attending the meeting.

Circle No. 2 held their meeting at the church parlors on Tuesday evening at seven o'clock, the event being in the nature of a Christmas party as well as the regular business session.

Miss Ann Hassler, the chairman of the group presided over the business session.

The ladies enjoyed a very delicious covered dish luncheon at 7 o'clock and later there was group singing of the Christmas carols that was followed by the exchange of Christmas gifts among the members of the group.

There were four guests and eighteen members present to enjoy the fine evening.

Give Farewell to Edwards Family

The employees and their wives of the Gas company, tendered a farewell Wednesday evening to their former manager, Dwight Edwards, who is leaving the first of the year for Norfolk, Nebraska, to serve as area manager.

The members of the group gathered after the dinner hour at the office to pass the evening at cards, pinocle being the diversion. In the card games Clyde Brittain proved the most successful in securing the high score.

The employees joined in the presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Edwards of a gift in token of the pleasant association that they have enjoyed in the past few years, and all joined in the expressions of regret at the departure of the Edwards family from the city.

At the close of the evening the members of the party enjoyed refreshments to complete the evening of good fellowship.

Bill Edwards to Have Knee Operation

Friday evening Bill Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Edwards, was taken to Omaha where he entered the Clarkson hospital for an examination and probable operation on a knee.

The young man has been troubled for some years by the knee and it was decided that an operation would be necessary to place the leg in proper condition.

He is a student at the University of Nebraska and was taken up by his parents for the probable operation.

In 1469 the English tenant farmer was first protected from having his property seized for the landlord's debts, beyond the amount of rent due.

When a man of the African Masai tribe marries, he is careful to introduce his bride to his guardian snake. Pythons and cobras are especially revered.

Here from Oregon To Visit Old Home

Mr. and Mrs. George Boedeker, of Medford, Oregon, arrived in the city Sunday for a visit with relatives and old friends. Mrs. Boedeker is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Finnifrock and they will enjoy a visit with the family here until later when they go to Nehawka to visit Mr. Boedeker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Boedeker, Sr.

The Boedekers have made their home in Oregon for the past seven months and may decide to again make their home here in Cass County.

Honor Visiting Soldier Sunday

Sgt. Robert Krejci, Chandler, Arizona, was entertained at dinner on Sunday noon at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Cotner. Other guests at the dinner were Tony LaHoda and Dwight Atteberry.

Sunday evening Sgt. Krejci was honor guest at a 6 o'clock dinner at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Robins. Other guests of honor was Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krejci, parents of the young soldier.

Mrs. Robert Will Breaks Right Foot

The many old time friends of Mrs. Robert Will will regret to learn that she suffered the breaking of the large bone in her right foot a few days ago at the family home at Alpadena, California.

She stepped off the porch at the home and turned her ankle, fell with the result of breaking the foot. It was placed in a cast for the next eight weeks.

Mrs. Will is a sister of Edward, William, Bradley and Marie Fitzgerald of this community.

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS

A Christmas party for the Civil Service inspectors and their wives was held Saturday evening, Dec. 20, 1947 at the home of the Industrial Planning representative, Mr. and Mrs. Halford B. McCune, 316 Main street.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester L. Cady, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Dibblee Jr. Dinner and cards were enjoyed.

TO SPEND WINTER HERE

Mrs. Mae Rose of Sidney, Nebraska, arrived in the city Thursday from her home and will visit here at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Siemers and with her granddaughter, Norma Jean Siemers. Mrs. Rose is expecting to spend the winter here in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Siemers met the mother in Omaha last evening.

TO VISIT GRANDSON

Mrs. Helen Gray Robertson, of Lincoln, widow of the late Judge William A. Robertson, departed Saturday for Baltimore, Maryland, where she will visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Lt. Commander and Mrs. James M. Robertson. The chief object of the trip was to see the new grandson, James McIntosh Robertson, III, who was born several weeks ago.

See Mutual Loan & Finance for that loan.

CASS THEATRE

TUESDAY ONLY!

—December 23—

BARGAIN DAY

ADMISSION 12c - 20c

Errol Flynn - C. Rains

and Brenda Marshall

"The Sea Hawk"

Brought back as the greatest of all sea pictures!

COLOR CARTOON

and NOVELTY!

WEDNESDAY - THURSDAY

—December 24 - 25—

BIG SPECIAL

FOR CHRISTMAS!

Walt Disney's

First Live-Action Musical

Drama!

"Song of the South"

All Technicolor— Including

Animated Tales of

Uncle Remus

SELECTED SHORTS!

COLOR CARTOON!

Special Matinee Thursday

at 2:30

Night Shows 7:00 & 9:30

Glenn White Home From Air Service

Pfc. Glenn E. White, who is stationed in the Air Corps at Lowery Field, Denver, is here for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. White and other relatives.

Glenn likes the air service very much and has, since entering the service, gained eleven pounds and is feeling in the pink condition. The many friends are very happy to have Glenn here for the holiday vacation.

DEATH OF INFANT

The death of the new born infant of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Aldrich, occurred Saturday evening at the family home on Maiden Lane. The little one was christened Norma Elaine.

The babe is survived by the parents and four sisters, Shirley May, Geraldine Marie, Claudia Ann, Dorothy Jean.

The burial services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Oak Hill cemetery. The Caldwell funeral home had charge of the services.

YOUTH HAS WHISKEY

A sixteen year old Plattsmouth youth was taken into custody Saturday night by the sheriff's office after he was caught with a open bottle of whiskey in his possession. The whiskey was confiscated and the youth turned over to his parents after they promised the sheriff that this would not happen again.

GUESTS OF MISS LEONARD

Guests of Miss Verna Leonard Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Leonard, their son, Lyle Leonard and wife, and Mrs. Edward Jackson, they were entertained at the Rainey coffee shop for dinner, then at the apartment of Miss Leonard for Sunday night supper.

CASH available at Mutual Loan & Finance Co.

Howard and Gerald Taylor, who have been at Fremont for the past few weeks looking after the erection of bins for the Lyman-Richey company returned home Saturday. The work is completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Madigan left Sunday for Middleton, Virginia, where they will spend two weeks with relatives.

AND
Best Wishes
FOR THE
New Year
Style Shop

Greeting You
at Christmas and
Wishing You
Every Happiness
THE TASTEE SHOP

Christmas
Wishes
Every good wish for your happiness at this joyous Christmas Season.
We have enjoyed the past year with you and are appreciative of your consideration.
TIM THE HAIR DRESSER
423 Main Street Dial 225

A Joyous Noel
We sincerely hope your Christmas will be filled to overflowing with happiness and good cheer and may the New Year be one of Health, and Prosperity
HANDY MARKET
OPEN EVENINGS AND SUNDAYS
On Chicago Avenue

"For unto us a Child is born, Unto us a Son is given."
Isaiah 9:6

May the Light of Happiness
Shine for You on Christmas Day
And Throughout the New Year

WOSTER'S

YOUR FAMILY SHOE STORE

WISHING YOU
A ★ MERRY
CHRISTMAS

We send you sincere and heartly greetings, full of good cheer for each of you.
And may the coming twelve months find you happy and contented in your every undertaking.

AND A HAPPY
NEW YEAR

WILSON'S BAKERY

510 Main Street

Dial 5138

It's Christmas, and with its coming we welcome the fine spirit of friendliness that goes with it, and are desirous of sending this Greeting to all those we serve and those whom we hope to serve.

OFE OIL COMPANY

7th & First Avenue

Dial 275

WITH THE
BEST OF GOOD WISHES

FOR CHRISTMAS AND THE NEW YEAR

FROM EACH OF THE MEMBERS OF THIS

FIRM TO EACH OF YOU.

COTNER & SON

Authorized Cass County Kaiser-Frazier Dealers
318 First Ave. Plattsmouth, Nebr. Dial 244