Christmas at C. L. Wiles Home

On Christmas Day, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wiles in Mynard, was the scene of a happy family gathering featuring a turkey dinner. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wiles, Janice and Alan, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Grosshans, Jimmy and Marjorie.

A telephone conversation to their daughter, DeLores, was an added enjoyment at the Christmas season, they having called the Fred Trikey home in Cincinnati and talked with Mrs. Trikey and Nancy.

Guests Here From St. Louis, Missouri

Mrs. Chester Couch and son, Jack, of St. Louis, Missouri, are here for a holiday visit with their relatives and friends. They are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Rebal, parents of Mrs. Couch.

Mr. and Mrs. Rebal and Mrs. Couch and son were Christmas Day guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rebal and daughter, Mary Jo. Other guests included James Alkire.

Guests Here at Home of Mrs. Heldt

Mrs. Henry J. Heldt has had as her guest, for a time, at her home in this city, a distinguished figure in the religious field in this country and in mission field of the Evangelical church in this country and in China.

This was Sister Ilma Aho, a deaconess from Helsinki, Finland, where she took nurse training, also attending mission college, going to China in 1927 as a missionary, serving for nine years. She came to the United States in 1946 before going to the China field.

She has just completed a tour of lectures in Minnesota and Michigan on religion and on her experiences in the China field of work.

She is planning a tour east again this year to tour throughout the entire Suomi synod of the Finnish Evangelical church of this country.

She is planning also to go to college in California to work for her degree before returning to the mission field.

Sister Mina Carlson of the Immanuel deaconess school at Omaha joined Sister Ilma Aho and Mrs. Heldt here over the week end, Mrs. Heldt taking them back to Omaha Sunday evening.

Young People Married Here Monday Afternoon

The marriage of Miss Frances Solomon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Solomon and Mr. Merlin J. Jochimsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jochimsen, of Vail, Iowa, was celebrated Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church.

The church was attractively arranged with decorations of asters and large candelabra making a very pretty setting for the event.

Mrs. Verna Goos, organist, played the pre-nuptial music and the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengren" as the wedding march. Mrs. Goos also played the recessional, Mendelssohn wedding march.

Frank A. Cloldt sang preceding the service, "I Love You Truly" with Mrs. Goos as the accompanist.

The marriage lines were read by H. G. McClusky, pastor of the church, with a large group of relatives and close friends attending the service.

The bride wore as her wedding gown a two piece gray shark skin suit, with black accessories. She wore a bouquet of red roses and gardenias.

The bridesmaid was Miss Edith Solomon, sister of the bride, who wore a two piece gabardine suit of gray, with Beaver picture hat, wearing a corsage of white carnations. Her accessories were black.

The groom was attended by his brother, Ralph Jochimsen, of Denison, Iowa. Both of the men wore dark business suits.

Following the services, a reception was held in the Fellowship room of the church, where refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee was served. The serving was carried out by Mrs. H. G. McClusky, Mrs. Raymond Larson, Mrs. W. F. Kraeger, Mrs. H. A. Jacobs and Mrs. Herman Tiekotter. There were some thirty-five attending the reception.

The young people will enjoy a short honeymoon and then return to this city, where they are planning on making their future home.

The bride is a graduate of the class of 1942 of Plattsmouth High School and since graduation has been engaged here where her father is in the operation of a grocery store, with the exception of one year spent in Washington, D. C., where she was engaged in secretarial work.

The groom spent three years in the U. S. Navy during the war and at the present time is with A. B. Rogers in this city.

Sketch of Life Of James A. Kiser

James Addison Kiser was born August 15, 1863 at Davenport, Iowa and passed away at the home of his son, R. Guy Kiser near Plattsmouth, Nebraska, Dec. 23, 1942 aged 84 years, three months and eight days.

He came with his parents to Plattsmouth in 1875 being 12 years old. Here they settled on a farm seven miles southwest of that city.

On January 6, 1887, he was married to Miss Cora Metteer, granddaughter of pioneer Robert Metteer.

To this union were born four children: one son, R. Guy Kiser of Plattsmouth; three daughters: Mrs. Mabel V. Hardin of West Palm Beach, Fla.; Mrs. Edna Ackerman and Miss Della Kiser of Lake Worth, Florida.

He united with the United Brethren Church at Cotton school house when Rev. Carter was evangelist. He was then about 30 years old.

His father, mother, three brothers and two sisters preceded him in death. His wife passed away in August, 1944.

Surviving are his four children and four grandchildren: Noble A. Kiser of Fort Worth, Tex.; Robert G. Kiser of Plattsmouth; Mrs. Beulah Kiser Harper of Omaha, Neb.; and Jimmie Hardin of West Palm Beach, Florida.

He made his home with Guy Kiser and wife for the past 37 years. Throughout his failing health of the last five years he was patient and tried not to be a burden to those that cared for him.

Now Engaged at Feldhousen Store

Miss Margaret Taylor of this city has accepted a position at the Feldhousen drug store and is assisting in looking after the trade. Miss Taylor should make an excellent addition to the sales force.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Stone and family of Denver, Colorado visited at the home of Ray O. Cole, during the holidays.

They also made brief visits at the homes of Glenn Wiles, Sherman Cole, and C. L. Wiles. The Stone family had attended the wedding of the son, Edward, in Wisconsin, and were enroute to their home in Denver.

Death of Cyril Janda Jr. at Omaha

The death of Cyril Janda, Jr., 48 former resident of Plattsmouth and a member of one of the old families of the community, occurred suddenly Tuesday evening at Omaha.

Mr. Janda had not been feeling well for the past few days and Monday noon had gone to his home to recuperate. Tuesday he was still ill and Tuesday night he suffered a hemorrhage of the lungs and was rushed to a hospital but was in a dying condition when he reached there.

Mr. Janda was born in this city, the youngest of the members of the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Janda, Sr., growing up in this community where he received his education. In 1917 he enlisted in the naval forces of the United States and served in World War I.

With the close of the war he was discharged and returned to Plattsmouth to the home of the parents, but later located at Brooklyn, N. Y. for a few years and then located at Omaha where he has made his home for the past fifteen years.

Since locating in Omaha Mr. Janda has been engaged in the contracting business and was very successful in this line of activity.

He was active in the West Q street business men's organization and a leader in the work of the improvement of that portion of Omaha.

There is surviving, the widow, Ann, four daughters, Patty, Caroline, Bernadine and Veronica, all living at home; two brothers, Charles C. and Thomas, of Omaha; three sisters, Mrs. Antonia Pitz, of Plattsmouth, Mrs. Henry Brinkman and Mrs. Vincent Slatinsky, both of Sedalia, Mo.

The body is at the Larkin funeral home at Omaha to await the funeral services, which will be Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Mary's church at Omaha. Burial will be at the St. Mary's cemetery.

New Year's Greetings

As the New Year is ushered in, we wish to pause for a moment or two and look back on the past twelve months.

In doing so we can see innumerable instances where our friends have been very considerate—where favors have come our way, and friendships have been proven in more ways than one.

Consequently, it is with genuine enthusiasm that we step at the threshold of the New Year to wish each of you all the good things we can think of for the next twelve months. We are grateful for all you have done for us and take this means of expressing our thanks to each of you.

May the New Year be one of Health, Happiness and Success to all.

TO OUR FRIENDS

In appreciation of the loyalty of our many friends, we find ourselves again eagerly awaiting the opportunity of wishing each one a New Year filled with Health, Happiness and Prosperity.

Happy New Year and many more of them.
