

Society and Personal

Just Dial 241

Young People Wed Saturday at Omaha Church

White carnations and gardenias decorated the altar of the Kountze Memorial church in Omaha at the wedding of Miss Edith Beck and Mr. Gerald Sebade on Saturday.

Miss Sebade is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Speck of Plattsmouth and Mr. Sebade is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sebade of Creighton, Nebraska.

The Rev. Walter H. Traub, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Miss Flora Nehan played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Laura Jones who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a powdered blue gabardine suit and a white blouse with lace collar and cuffs. Black accessories completed her costume. Her shoulder corsage was a large purple orchid.

The bride's sisters, Miss Shirley Speck and Mrs. Charles Kostka were bridesmaids. Both wore identical costumes of black and white ensembles with black accessories and pink gardenia corsages.

Verl Glee and Sterling Jones of Lincoln attended the groom. The acquaintance was made while in the military service.

The groom and his attendants wore dark conventional suits.

The mothers were presented with white carnation corsages by the groom.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony.

The bride's cake centered the serving table. Ice cream in the shape of hearts and coffee were served. Mrs. Earl Berglund, sister of the bride cut the cake. Mrs. Charles Kostka passed and Miss Shirley Speck served the ice cream.

Mr. and Mrs. Sebade will make their home in Creighton.

P. E. O. Holds Meeting Friday

Chapter F. P. E. O. held their regular meeting on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. F. Goos to enjoy the fine program that had been prepared.

The program of the occasion was in charge of Miss Pearl Staats, it being based on the "Composers of Nebraska." In carrying out the program, several musical numbers of Nebraska composers were given. Mary Todd was heard in the number "By the Waters of Minnetonka," while Mrs. R. B. Hayes was presented in "The Land of the Sky Blue Waters" and "My Nebraska." Mrs. R. O. Cole played the accompanist.

Among the composers listed on the program were Howard Hansen, of Wahoo, noted orchestra leader and the head of the Eastman School of Music of New York City; Thurlow Lierence, of Lincoln, composer of many of the Indian songs; J. D. Park, of York, Nebraska, and Charles G. Dawes, former vice-president, who when a resident of Lincoln, had written a number of selections. Wilbur Chenoweth, of Lincoln; one time pupil of Mrs. Cole.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Goos served a most enjoyed luncheon.

Young People Wed in Glenwood, Iowa

The announcement was made today of the marriage of Miss Clarice Rouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Rouse and Tom Morrison, son of Mrs. Lee Eastridge.

The wedding occurred at Glenwood, Iowa, on Monday, January 19th. The young people were married by Rev. Walker.

Attending the bridal couple were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson, the latter a sister of the groom.

The groom has returned to the west coast where he is in service in the United States Army, while the bride will remain here for the present and continue her work as a member of the staff at the Nebraska Masonic Home.

READ THE JOURNAL FOR THE LATEST IN NEWS.

Wedding Held at Holy Trinity Church in Omaha

The Holy Trinity cathedral at Omaha was the scene Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock of the wedding of Miss Harriett Ann Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Gordon and Robert West Wunderlich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Wunderlich, of Nebraska.

The Very Rev. Chilton Powell, canon of the cathedral, celebrated the Episcopal marriage service, using the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with bouquets of white snapdragons.

Tall cathedral candles lined the center aisle and bouquets of white snapdragons marked the family pews. Baskets filled with snapdragons and surrounded with woodwardia were used at the chancel rail. Albert Sand, organist of the cathedral, played the wedding music.

The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin made with a sweetheart neckline, bustle back and a full skirt ending in a three-yard train.

Her full-length veil of illusion had a wide band of rose point lace and was held in place by a Juliet cap of net and satin. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and bouvardia.

Mrs. Carlton A. Ranney Jr., of Houston, Texas, was matron of honor for her sister, Miss Janis Whitcomb was maid of honor and Mrs. Alfred W. Gordon Jr., of Spokane, Washington, bridesmaid.

Gowns of Biscayne blue faille, made with short jackets, bustle backs and short trains were worn by the attendants. They wore matching mitts and carried crescent bouquets of American Beauty roses. Their headresses were tiaras of American Beauty roses.

Richard B. Press of Winnetka, Illinois, was best man. Ushers included Dr. Harry Hebard of Nebraska City, George Pollard of Nebraska City, Paul Brown of Broken Bow, Alfred W. Gordon Jr., of Spokane, Washington, a brother of the bride and Leonard Jacobson.

The bride's mother wore an oriental crepe gown of boulder gray and a corsage of talisman roses. Mrs. Wunderlich's gown was tangerine tan oriental crepe. With it she wore a corsage of aqua hyacinths.

Woodwardia and southern smilex decorated the home of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Davis, where the reception was held. Assistants were Mesdames C. A. Ranney, E. P. Boyer, S. R. Gordon, Glenn Whitcomb, W. H. Stokes, Francis Gaines, Harvey Milliken, Harry Hebard of Nebraska City and George Pollard of Nebraska.

Others were Mesdames Norbert R. Wolke, Norman Hogan, Burnell Adams, Lee Secmann, Leonard Jacobson and the Misses Anne Marie Henighen and Marjorie Vanderlippe.

The bride wore as her going away gown a three piece suit of Bermuda green gabardine with an oriental scarf and brown accessories. Her corsage was green orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. Wunderlich motored to Kansas City, New Orleans, Houston, Texas and Tucson, Arizona. They will return by way of Colorado. They are to make their home at Nehawka.

W. S. C. S. Meeting Thursday Night

The WSCS of the Methodist church held their general meeting Thursday evening in the Fellowship Memorial Room of the church. Mrs. R. C. Humiston, president, presided over the business session. Mrs. Charles Walden was devotional leader and Mrs. Pearl Mann had the lesson topic.

Refreshments in keeping with the season were served by a committee from the Gleensers circle, the Valentine motif being used in table decorations. The committee members were Mrs. Glen Jones, Mrs. Harold Stewart, Mrs. Frank Biles, Mrs. Vernon Waterman, Mrs. F. M. Casey, Mrs. Clem Woster, Mrs. Theodore Yelick, Mrs. William Highfield Sr., Mrs. William Highfield Jr., Mrs. C. L. Green, Mrs. Cleo Capper and Mrs. Clyde Brittain.

GIVE FRIEND FAREWELL
About 40 people from the Friendly Farmers unit met with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Meisinger and family at their home Sunday evening, February 1 to give them a farewell party for they are leaving the farm soon to make their home in Plattsmouth, where Mr. Meisinger is employed. Cards and games furnished the entertainment for the evening, after which lunch was served.

Coal bin should be filled today? MUTUAL FINANCE can help you pay!

Read the Journal for News

Jeep-Joring

Violet Grafton waves early with one hand and clutches a rope with the other as she enjoys a new sport—jeep-joring at Greenwich, Conn. All you need is a jeep, the rope, a pair of skis and a lot of padding in the proper places.

At The Cass County Court House

In the office of County Judge Paul E. Fauquet on Friday, marriage license was issued to Richard I. Lauritzen, son of Rasmus Lauritzen and Miss Virginia Alice Gish, daughter of Vernon Gish, all of Weeping Water. Hearing was had in the county court on Friday in the estate of Edward F. Brunkow and will admitted to probate as prayed for.

Determination of heirship was had in the estate of Samuel W. Ball, deceased. Hearing was had in the estate of William L. Hull, deceased, but no discharge entered. Mrs. Zella Leonard, daughter, is the administratrix, c.t.a.

In the case of the State of Nebraska vs. Ellen Boesche and in the State of Nebraska vs. Phyllis Frederick, charged with forgery, hearing was postponed until February 25th.

In the office of the clerk of the district court Saturday, an appeal was filed from the county court in the matter of the Probate of the Last Will and Testament of I. N. Campbell Klepser, deceased. The contestants of the will allege that the will was not properly attested; that the deceased was incompetent to make a will; that the deceased was influenced in making the will.

The will provided that after the funeral expenses was paid that the property be divided equally between the two sons, Elmer and Fred Klepser. Monday, Judge Thomas E. Dunbar, was here from Nebraska City, to hold a short session of the district court. In the divorce action of Edgar W. Coghill vs. Mildred L. Coghill, the default of the defendant was entered and the court granted the plea of the plaintiff for a decree of divorce as well as the custody of the minor child.

In the case of William P. Kracker vs. County of Cass, et al., the court granted the request of the plaintiff to file additional briefs in the case. This is the action involving money paid for painting at the court house. Plaintiff given five days to file.

Visiting at Weeping Water
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Puls were over Sunday visitors at Weeping Water with Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Gray and family. They returned home Sunday night after a most pleasant time.

23,000,000 of the 28,000,000 homes in America are built of wood.

NEW — SENSATIONAL
Newly-Wed
ICE CREAM CAKE ROLL
Chocolate Cake Folded into
Sealtest Vanilla Ice Cream
10c
Schreiner Drug

Rauth-Rose Wedding Held in Omaha

The wedding of a well known Cass County lady was held at Omaha on Saturday, January 31st.

The bride was Miss Anna V. Rauth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rauth of Weeping Water, who was married to Mr. John P. Rose of Auburn. The wedding was at 10:00 o'clock at the St. Peter's Catholic Church, with the Rev. Joseph O'Brien, pastor of the church, officiating, and the Rev. H. L. Sullivan, S. J. in the sanctuary. Father O'Brien also sang the nuptial Mass that followed.

The wedding music was furnished by Mrs. F. M. Tushla of Auburn as the soloist and Mrs. Robert McCormick of Omaha at the organ.

The bride, a graduate of Rosary College, River Forest, Ill., was given in marriage by her father. She wore a suit of soft olive green with matching accessories, and an orchid corsage. Mrs. John R. Hauptman, Omaha, was her attendant, and wore a gray suit, matching accessories and corsage of gardenias.

Mr. Rose, a graduate of St. Mary's College, St. Mary's, Kan., was attended by his brother, Harry Rose, of Omaha, as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Rauth were hosts at the wedding breakfast at the Blackstone Hotel at 11:30 a. m., attended by 36 relatives and close friends.

On their return from a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Rose will make their home in Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mocken-haupt of Manley, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Herman Rauth were among the guests at the wedding.

Mynard Farm Unit Holds Meeting

The Mynard Farm Bureau met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy O. Cole, Wednesday evening, February 4. Fourteen families were present. The meeting was called to order by President George Mayhubb.

Group singing was followed by the secretary's report.

Guy Wiles was appointed on the Natural Resources committee. Automobile insurance sponsored by the Farm Bureau and available only to members was discussed. The advantages of being a charter member will be of increasing importance in years to come. The program has proved successful in 26 other states.

Judge Paul E. Fauquet, guest speaker, spoke on "Planning for the Disposition of Our Property and the Community Property Law." He presented the subjects in a clear and instructive manner, much appreciated by the unit.

Delicious refreshments were served. Next meeting will be March 6th at the home of Sherman Cole.

Young People Are Married Thursday

Thursday afternoon Judge Paul E. Fauquet was called upon to officiate at the wedding of Willard Glen Tigner of this city and Miss Pennie Genevieve Knudsen of Salinas, California.

The wedding was witnessed by Misses Velma and Anna Tigner. Friday morning at the office of Judge Fauquet, Herbert C. Wredt and Geneva M. Roach, both of Nebraska City, were married. The wedding service was witnessed by Mrs. Marie Behrends and Miss Thelma Kruger, clerk in the office of the county judge.

Returns From Trip to Hot Springs

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Hiatt, who have been visiting in Hot Springs, Arkansas, for the past few weeks, returned home Thursday night. They are feeling fine after the course of treatments at the natural springs sanitarium.

They found the weather rather chilly during their stay and which had greatly checked the usual flow of tourists. They enjoyed the trip very much and the opportunity of viewing the sights of the resort city.

READ THE JOURNAL FOR THE LATEST IN NEWS.

Eagles' Costume Dance!

Eagles and Wives and Sweethearts

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 14TH

Music by Gene Lingford and his Orchestra

PRIZES WILL BE AWARDED

Calendar

Wednesday, February 10—

The regular board meeting of the Cass County Farm Bureau will be held Tuesday evening, February 10, at 8:00 p. m. at the Louisville City Hall.

Thursday February 12—

The Golden Rod study club will meet on Thursday, February 12th at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Virgil Perry.

Legion Auxiliary Has Fine Meeting

The American Legion Auxiliary met Thursday, February 5th, and had a very interesting business session and many matters were discussed.

The Auxiliary is sponsoring the Americanism contest this year in the high school and the Junior high school which will soon be underway.

The ladies also talked over plans for the American Legion birthday party in March in which the Auxiliary will assist with the refreshments and entertainment features.

The Poppy sale program was talked over but no definite date was fixed by the group.

Mrs. Alpha Mauzy, unit president, thanked all those who had made trips to the Veterans hospital at Lincoln to assist for a day in looking after the care of the veterans. There is a crying need for help at this time and any ladies of veterans that wish to take part are urged to get in touch with Mrs. Mauzy or Mrs. Vera Lewis and arrangements to have them taken out for a day will be made and allow them to help in the worthy cause.

The members contributed to the March of Dimes and also to the Little Red School House fund for the aid of girls seeking nurse training. The Red School house contribution will be taken to the Mid-Winter conference at Grand Island February 23-24.

It is hoped at this conference that the president, secretary, rehabilitation chairman and the chairman of the child welfare committees can attend.

Mrs. Glen McClure gave a short talk on Americanism and Patriotic service as a part of the evening program.

Friendly Farm Bureau Unit

The Friendly Farm Bureau met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weiss Friday evening. General business meeting was held. Problems that have arisen in the unit were voted upon. Mrs. Emil Schmidt was chosen as song leader. A collection of $5 was taken from the treasury to be contributed to the Children's Memorial hospital as a gift from the unit.

Next meeting will be held at the Christ Lutheran Church on the Louisville road with two other units. Full particulars will be announced later.

A delicious lunch was served at the close of the meeting after which cards were played as entertainment.

S. N. Nelson of Iowa City, Ia., was in the city Thursday where he visited at the home of V. M. Wilson, local baker, and looking over the many points of interest in the community.

CASH LOANS!

$25 to $1000
For worthwhile purpose—to any employed person—single or married. A re-payment schedule to fit your income. Pleasant and confidential Service.

Phone, Write or Come in Mutual Finance Company

DON J. ARUNDEL
Phone 3213
North of Cass Drug
112 N. 5th — Plattsmouth

BIRTHS

Son: To Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warner, of Glenwood, Iowa, a son, Friday at 4:45 a. m. at the Jennie Edmondson hospital at Council Bluffs. The little one is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Warner of this city.

SPRANDEL HONORED

Lincoln, Neb.—Lewis Sprandel, Plattsmouth, has been initiated into Phi Tau Sigma, honorary mechanical engineering fraternity, at the University of Nebraska. Sprandel is a senior in the College of Engineering and Architecture.

Use Journal Want Ads

Billy O'Donnell Home for Visit

William C. O'Donnell, of Elkton, Maryland, arrived here last Thursday for a visit with his relatives and many old time friends in this city and vicinity. He is now engaged in the M. & W. Radio Sales Service, a large bonded electronic technical firm and likes his new position very much.

H. M. BURDICK
346 Avenue A
PHONE 3123
INCOME TAX SERVICE
Auditing and Bookkeeping

IT SEEMS BUT YESTERDAY
... that the valentine box at school afforded an opportunity to show the state of our affections for that certain boy or girl. Puppy love was wonderful, wasn't it? And those comics that some of the roughneck boys put in the box were terrific. Remember?
CALDWELL FUNERAL HOME
—Ambulance Service—
Dial 3111 702 Avenue B

Hinky-Dinky is Headquarters for Low Prices on Lenten Foods
CELLO WRAPPED COD FILLETS, lb. 37c
CELLO WRAPPED HADDOCK FILLETS, lb. 43c
CELLO WRAPPED PERCH FILLETS, lb. 43c
CELLO WRAPPED WHITING, lb. 32c
STEAKS—
HALIBUT, lb. 55c
A Complete Line of Pickled and Salt Fish
LEAN, FRESH PORK SAUSAGE OR GROUND BEEF, lb. 45c
LEAN AND MEATY RIB BOIL, lb. 32c
CENTER CUTS PORK CHOPS, lb. 59c

Pillsbury, Gold Medal or Omar FLOUR, 25-lb. sack . . . $1.97
Pillsbury, Gold Medal or Omar FLOUR, 50-lb. sack . . . $3.89
Mother's Best FLOUR, 25-lb. sack . . . $1.93
Mother's Best FLOUR, 50-lb. sack . . . 3.79
Fancy Idaho Rome Beauty APPLES, 4 lbs. 29c
Excellent for Baking, Cooking or Eating Ring Pack Bushel Basket . . . $2.45
FRESH CRISP SOLID CALIF. ICEBERG LETTUCE, 1ge 5 dz. size, ea. 12c
FRESH GREEN SOLID, NEW CABBAGE, lb. 6c
U. S. NO. 1 TEXAS PORTO RICAN YAMS, lb. 11c
Fresh Tender Florida Golden Heart CELERY, lb. 12c
CALIFORNIA GOLDEN HEART CARROTS, lb. 15c
Nebraska Washed, Red Triumph, 1g. sz. A POTATOES, 10 lbs. 45c
100-lb. bag (when packed) . . . $3.89
Gen. Red River Cobblers, 100-lb. bag $3.69
Calif. Sunk at Large Size, full of juice LEMONS, lb. 15c

AMAIZO WHITE SYRUP, 5 lb. 49c
AMAIZO GOLDEN SYRUP, 5-lb. 47c
HINKY-DINKY

DAVIS & PECK
Lawyers
Plattsmouth Phone 264

10 WISCONSIN GUERNSEY HEIFERS
Heavy Springers
WILL BE SOLD
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 14
AT THE
PLATTSMOUTH SALE BARN

IT'S TIME TO THINK ABOUT
PAIN!
SELF-CLEANING HOUSE PAINT
YOU'LL WANT THE BEST THAT MONEY WILL BUY — WE THINK WE HAVE IT IN THE FAMOUS DUPONT PAINTS FOR EVERY PURPOSE
WHETHER IT'S AN INSIDE OR OUTSIDE JOB WE HAVE IT—
● ENAMELS
● UNDERCOATS
● FLAT COATS
IN ALL WANTED COLORS PASTELS AND WHITE
SAVE THE SURFACE AND MONEY AT
Warga Hardware
AND APPLIANCE STORE
517 Main Street Dial 3171