

Working Meals for Working Men

Restaurant and cafeteria service is available in manufacturing plants where about nine million industrial workers are employed. Before the war, only about two and one half million workers had similar services.

The Production and Marketing Administration is credited with having much to do with promoting the development. Although the services of the administration were suspended in May 1947, most of the food services it helped to inaugurate have been continued by employers.

The restaurant and cafeteria service was started during the war when the cry for maximum production efficiency showed the need for providing adequate meals on the job. It was continued because it supplied a need in industrial plants and was a large and concentrated market for foods available in abundance.

Both management and labor quickly recognized the benefits of the program through the increased production efficiency and better health of workers.

The farmer benefits from the program because nine million workers can consume a lot of the products of the farm.

Margaret Iverson Given Recognition

Miss Margaret Iverson has been notified by Archer L. Burnham, Executive Secretary of the Nebraska State Education Association of her appointment by the Executive committee as one of the six members of the state's Committee on Teacher Welfare. This committee concerns itself to such items as salaries, contractual relations, retirement, sick leave, etc.

She has also been appointed by Dr. W. I. Nicholas, president of the Peru State Teachers College and president of District 2, N.S.E.A. as chairman of the Elementary Division of District Number 2.

Miss Iverson is principal of Columbian School and president of the Faculty Club of the local teachers.

Fontenelle Chapter D. A. R.

The members of Fontenelle chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution were entertained at the home of Mrs. George B. Mann on Tuesday evening.

The report of all committees were received and reviewed by the members planning for the forthcoming state convention of the society that will be held on March 9, 10 and 11 at the Paxton Hotel in Omaha. The local chapter will be represented by Mrs. Violet Dodge Hunsford of Omaha, delegate, Mollie Gobelman, local regent and Mrs. E. H. Wescott, past state regent of the society.

The members also discussed the Stratton bill, now pending before Congress, seeking to increase the quota on persons coming into the United States from foreign lands. The DAR has opposed for a great many years the increasing of the quota at any time and have reaffirmed their stand and opposition to the pending bill.

The members of Fontenelle chapter also had a quiz on "Uses of the United States Flag" that proved most interesting to all of the members.

Mrs. Mann served a delicious luncheon at an appropriate hour to close the evening.

Plattsmouth Library News

The library board met with Miss Leonard on Wednesday morning. The circulation for the month of January was 3,596 books. There were 495 references given.

Each week new books are added to our shelves. Many are fiction. Some are classified. Two of the latter are "Phunology" (a book of good times) by Harbin and "The Great Rehearsal" by Carl Van Doren. This is a fascinating book on how the United States became a great nation. It is said that this book is arousing wide interest because no doubt it is rehearsal of what takes place to build a world organization such as is hoped will evolve out of the present "United Nations."

Two of our new books for children are "Beney and the Beast" by Olaf Baker and "Hide-out" by T. Morris Longstrech. The "Children's Activities" magazine is one of the most popular. Our magazines may be checked out on your book card.

Livestock Values Pounded Lower at Omaha Market

Livestock values, sharply down last week, took further battering Monday and Tuesday on the Omaha market. Scattered lots of shorted yearlings selling at $22.00-24.50 sold about steady but most fat cattle were 50c-$1.50 lower, some steers with weight $2.00 or more off. Highest selling steers were $31.00, best heifers $26.00. Cows were 50c-$1.00 or more off, canner and cutter cows $14.50 to $16.00, best beef cows to $20.00. Stockers and feeders broke $1.00 to $2.00 and more, grass steers stopped at $23.75 and feeders that had had some grain, at $25.50. Steer calves sold to $25.00, heifer calves to $22.50. Hogs Monday were hit even harder than cattle—$2.00 to $3.00 or more, then on light supply Tuesday sold unevenly 50c off to 50c up, the advance on heavy butchers. Porker peak Monday was $22.00. Tuesday $21.75, with real heavy butchers, and sows, $17.00-$17.50. Fat lambs lost a dollar Monday and 50c-$1.00 Tuesday, cutting Tuesday's top to $22.75. The full break Tuesday was on heavy lambs. Slaughter ewes, to a 28-year high of $13.75 last week. Monday and Tuesday skidded

Sow Testing Way for More Pork

Sow testing, says K. C. Fouts, extension livestockman, is one way to produce more pork with less labor, feed, and equipment. Sow testing involved three simple practices—ear marking pigs at farrowing time; weighing pigs when they are approximately 56 days old or at weaning time; and selecting replacement gilts from the best litters. In areas where sow testing has been carried on for several years, weaning weights of litters have been increased from 275 to 440 pounds. In addition, the feed requirements for each 100 pounds of pork produced have varied from 570 pounds for inefficient litters to 340 pounds for those more efficient. Fouts has prepared an extension circular on "The Swine Production Record" which has just been sent to the offices of county agricultural agents. Copies may be had at the nearest county agent office for the asking. Say that you want the circular numbered 249 or "Swine Production Circular."
