50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Knabe, of Lincoln, returned to their old home on the farm near Nehawka to celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Knabe, where in spite of the icy conditions of the roads about one hundred and fifty friends and relatives gathered to help them celebrate the happy event.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Knabe received the visitors at the door, and after greeting the bride and groom of fifty years ago, they were ushered into the dining room, where the three daughters, presided at the table. Mrs. Eugene Fitch cut and served the huge wedding cake; Mrs. Earl Hockman served the ice cream, and Mrs. Earl Murdock poured the coffee, and they were assisted by the granddaughters, Mrs. Arnold Yearsley, of Avoca; Mrs. Julian Johnson, of Nehawka; and Mrs. LeRoy Ahrens, of Weeping Water.

Miss Margaret Ann Knabe had charge of the guest book and some very fine music was furnished by Mrs. Ivan Hansen, soloist, and her accompanist Mrs. John Hansen, both of Nehawka. The home was profusely decorated with yellow flowers, the gift of relatives and friends, and one organization "The Blue Birds" sent a bouquet of yellow jonquils.

Returns From Trip to Illinois

Mr. and Mrs. Troy Cotner, who have been spending a weeks vacation trip in Illinois, have returned after a very pleasant outing. They were at Pekin and Peoria, Illinois, where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wallinger, Harley Wallinger and Guy Wallinger and family. The men are cousins of Troy.

Mr. and Mrs. Cotner were royally entertained on their trip. The local people report that the snow was not so heavy in Illinois but they found plenty in Iowa on the return trip and increasing as they came into Nebraska.

John Chalfant is Recovering

John Chalfant, for many years a resident of Cass county, is recovering nicely at Auburn, where he has been for the past few months recovering from a very severe fall sustained on September 2 at Omaha, where he was engaged in some construction work.

Mr. Chalfant fell from a scaffold and since that time has been under constant care and the greater part of the time bedfast. The patient was unable to get around or have use of his legs or arms for a long time. Vern Hendricks, of this city, a nephew, was at Auburn last week to attend the opening game of the district basketball tournament and while there had the opportunity of seeing the uncle.

Mr. Chalfant is now able to be about in a wheel chair and is able to use his right hand to some extent and is able to feed himself, something that he has not done since the accident.

Death of Margaret Allgayer Friday at Family Home

The communities of Weeping Water and Avoca were saddened by the death at 8:40 Friday evening, of Mrs. Margaret Allgayer, 71, widow of the late Louis Allgayer, Sr.

The deceased lady has resided in the community south of Weeping Water for a long period of years and was a loved and honored figure in that section of Cass County where she was active as long as her health permitted.

She is survived by one son and three daughters, Louis Allgayer, Jr., Mrs. Louis Carsten, Mrs. George Small, Nebraska City and Mrs. Harry Neumeister of Weeping Water. She was preceded in death by the husband in 1944.

The funeral services will be held at the Congregational church at Avoca on Tuesday afternoon at 1:30.

Death of Miss Mary Carnes at Lincoln

Miss Mary A. Carnes, 320 North 26 street, Lincoln, died Thursday at her home. She was a former resident of Cass County. Surviving are four sisters, Mrs. P. M. Johnson, Lincoln; Mrs. Nellie Van Duran, Carpenter, Wyoming; Mrs. N. O. Coleman, Greenwood; Mrs. Della Wiles, Weeping Water; three brothers, Oliver, Lincoln; J. S. Neligh, Nebraska; and Melvin J., Johnson, Nebraska, several nieces and nephews.

The funeral services were held Saturday at Helmsdoerfers chapel at Lincoln with Rev. W. P. Hill officiating. The burial was in Greenwood.

K-B Club Meets With Mrs. Lugsch

The K-B card club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Lugsch with the membership braving the winter weather to enjoy the pleasant evening.

In the bridge games Mrs. Frank M. Bestor and Mrs. Lugsch were the winners of the high score.

Mrs. W. E. Hickey was a guest of the club for the evening.

At the close of the evening dainty and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

FAMILY HAS ILLNESS

The Estil Jenkins family, residing on Wintersteen hill, have been having more than their share of sickness the past week, making it very difficult to care for the sick and conduct the household affairs.

Mrs. Jenkins was taken ill on Wednesday and it was found that she was suffering from kidney stones and suffered greatly. The son, Larry, was taken ill on Thursday and is still confined to his home.

Mr. Jenkins works at the BREX shops and the sickness has made his task very difficult, although his aged father is assisting the best he can in the care of the sick.

NAMES ARE OMITTED

Through oversight the names of Mrs. Major Hall and Mrs. Fred Armstrong were omitted from the list of senior Woman's club hostesses in last Monday's issue.

Fleischman-Bornemeier

The Evangelical church at Elmwood was the scene of the nuptials of two of the popular and well known young people of that community Miss Edna Fleischman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Fleischman and Willard Bornemeier, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Bornemeier. The marriage occurred on Thursday, February 19, at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The marriage vows were pledged before an altar decorated with huckleberry leaves and lighted by candelabra.

Howard Vogt, cousin of the bride, sang accompanied by Mrs. Dale Fleischman, who played the wedding music.

The ushers and the lighting of the candelabra were Walter Fleischman and Herbert Leger.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of slipper satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and nylon skirt. Her fingertip veil, edged with lace, was held by a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations. She wore laguna pearls, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Charles Knex attended her sister as matron of honor, gowned in a blue marquisette dress and head piece. She carried a bouquet of briar cliff roses and white pompons.

Miss Phyllis Lee Bornemeier, niece of the groom, was the bridesmaid. She wore a gown of orchid and head piece. She carried a bouquet of Johanna Hill roses and white pompons.

George Bornemeier, attended his brother as best man. The groomsmen was Eldon Fleischman, brother of the bride.

Reception was held in the Methodist Church parlors. Mrs. Lawrence Stubbendick, sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

The cake was cut by Mrs. George Bornemeier and assisted by Mrs. Lawrence Stubbendick.

Those in charge of the gifts were: Mrs. Floyd Williams and Mrs. Faye Stolz, sisters of the groom, and Miss Marie Vogt, cousin of the bride.

Those attending at the reception were: Mrs. LaMoigne Spohn, Mrs. Henry Bornemeier, Mrs. El Backemeyer, Mrs. Lester Rosenow, Miss Lillie Muench, Miss Helen Kunz, Miss Viola Bornemeier, Miss Nettie Bornemeier, Mrs. Harvey Backemeyer, Miss Elsie Kunz, Mrs. Walter Oehlerking, Mrs. Oral Kuehn, Miss Margaret Vogt, Miss Beverly Stolz, Miss Una Jean Kunz, Miss Ahrenmeier, Miss Joan Backemeyer, and Miss Lila Oehlerking.

Plattsmouth Couple Married

The marriage of two Plattsmouth young people occurred on Friday, March 5th, at Glenwood, Iowa, at the residence of Rev. James W. Walker, pastor of the Grace Methodist church.

The bride was Miss Mary Jean Eledge, daughter of Mrs. Minnie Eledge, and the groom, Virgil F. Rouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Rouse, all of this city.

Attending the bride and groom was Miss Lavonne Eledge, sister of the bride and Mr. Marvin Winters.

Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Rouse and their attendants returned to Plattsmouth.

They expect to make their home in this city for the present, the bride being a member of the senior class of the high school.

Former Banker at Murdock is Dead

Herbert B. Waldron, 77 for a great many years interested in the banking business in Nebraska, died at his home in Omaha the past week. Mr. Waldron started his banking career in the state at Bennington, Nebraska and later was connected with other banks, being the president of a bank at Murdock for several years. He was named state counsel for the Lincoln Highway association in 1914. Funeral services were Friday at Omaha.

Annabelle Bucar, 33, of Clarion, Pa., resigned her position from the U. S. Embassy in Moscow and renounced her American citizenship for the Russian opera singer, Konstantine Lapkin, she secretly married 13 months ago. She said the Russians are "fine people" and she is convinced American foreign policy "is directed against these people." —NEA Telephone

"Bill" Hula Now With Refinery Co.

The many friends here of C. W. (Bill) Hula, will be interested to learn that he is now located at San Antonio, Texas, with the Atlantic Refining Co., one of the large oil refining companies of the southwest.

Bill was recently graduated from Colorado college at Colorado Springs, where he has been completing his work in geology and has received his degree. The new position at San Antonio is very pleasing to the Plattsmouth young man as it places him with one of the large companies of the United States engaged in the development of the oil industry.

Sunnyside Farm Bureau Unit Meets

Mrs. Egenberger Returns From The West Coast

Mrs. Louis Ward Egenberger reached home March 1st from a month's stay on the west coast that led her from San Pedro, California, to Anchorage, Alaska, affording the opportunity of greeting and visiting with many of the friends and former residents of Nebraska.

She left here on January 23th for the west coast and spent a short time at Long Beach, California, where she was a guest of Mrs. F. G. Egenberger and her sister, Mrs. William Hooper, as well as with Dr. and Mrs. Tom Rogers, the former Helen Egenberger, as well as Mrs. Sophia Baumgartner and husband, Mrs. Egenberger had a fine time visiting at Long Beach, and then stopped at San Pedro, where she was a guest of Miss Ann Sanders, who has a very beautiful new home, visiting with Henry Sanders, father of Ann and the John Sanders family while there. She had the opportunity of seeing Mrs. Edith Vandervoort and her son, Paul Jr., at Costa Mesa, California. She also visited Mrs. Phillip Albert at San Pedro, and Mr. and Mrs. John D. Egenberger and family.

Stopping at Los Angeles, Mrs. Egenberger enjoyed seeing a number of the former residents of Plattsmouth, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sattler at their ranch near that city, as well as meeting Mrs. Edith Grassman Romero, Mrs. Martha Vallery Crutthers called on Mrs. Egenberger. A very delightful visit was with Mrs. Phillip Thieroff and daughter, Elsa, lip Thieroff is spending the winter on the west coast. She also visited Mrs. Anna Thieroff at Long Beach while in that area.

Reaching San Francisco and Oakland, she spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Narvaez, whose wedding was one of the reasons for her going to the coast, and also was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lemke and family, who took her to many points of interest that included trips over the great bridges over the San Francisco bay.

Mrs. Egenberger stopped at Portland, Oregon, where she was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heitzhausen and family, who showed her the many points of interest in that area.

She made the trip by plane from Portland to Seattle, Washington, and from there to Anchorage, Alaska, and reports a most delightful trip with clear weather and the opportunity of seeing a great deal of the country. At Anchorage she was the guest of her niece, Margaret Bauer Williams, who was having her vacation at the time and was able to take Mrs. Egenberger to many places of interest. Mrs. Williams is engaged in the large store of Mrs. Crocker, a resident of Anchorage for the past thirty-eight years.

At Anchorage the weather was very pleasant and pussy-willows were out and many of the rugged spring flowers were taking on life. She visited many of the large government buildings, one being the farm administration building. In the markets Mrs. Egenberger found venison on sale with the other meats and the store equipped with frozen food containers as in the United States.

On her return to the United States she stopped for a short time on her plane trip, having the pleasure of seeing Richard Hath formerly of this city, who gave her a ride over the city and took her to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hatt for a short stay.

She then returned to Portland, Oregon for a visit with the Heitzhausen family and from there departed for Sand Point, Idaho, to visit an old friend, Mrs. Fred Mezer and sister, Martha. She also visited some old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Will Schavey, who formerly lived at Grand Lodge, Michigan.

One of the pleasant surprises in California was the visit with Captain Marvin Tritsch and sister, Mrs. Estella Nola, at Huntington Beach, California. Captain Tritsch is showing a great deal of improvement after a long illness due to his war service.

Shirley Meintz is Home From Hospital

Shirley Meintz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Meintz, of this city, has so far recovered from her appendectomy at a Beatrice hospital, that she was returned home Sunday. She is feeling fine and her return has brought a great deal of pleasure to the family and the young friends.

The Navy Mothers club will meet at the home of Mrs. Leroy Covert on Friday, March 12th, at 10:00 a. m. for an 21 day meeting. A covered dish luncheon will be served at 1:00 o'clock.

Let Us Vacuum Clean Your Heating System!

A clean furnace saves Fuel . . . Eliminates Dust in Your Home . . . Preserves Your Heating Equipment!

A dirty heating system deposits dust and dirt on drapes and home furnishings which ruins them.

Soot and ashes left in the castings and smokepipe gathers moisture which rusts and destroys the heating system.

Home owners pay for having their heating systems cleaned — whether they have the work done or not. The loss in efficiency would pay for the cleaning in a short time.

Our modern, efficient cleaning equipment enables us to vacuum clean and service your heating system at attractive low cost.

Economy and Cleanliness Special

By placing your order now, we will vacuum clean your furnace, smokepipe, chimney base, all the hot and cold air pipes, including all registers for only within Plattsmouth City Limits.

$5.00

For each order received while this special lasts we will clean free the dust accumulated on top of every furnace pipe in your basement. All work done by experienced and efficient workmen.
