Help Wanted

OPPORTUNITY FOR GI

We are in a position to offer a World War II veteran, preferably married, an opportunity to learn the printer's trade. Earnings to start under the GI Bill are more than ample to assure a comfortable salary while learning a trade for which there is great demand. The man we are looking for must have a sincere desire to get ahead, be a conscientious and accurate workman, and should have at least a high school education. If you are looking to the future and feel that you can qualify, make application by LETTER ONLY to R. R. Furse, The Plattsmouth Journal, and interview will be arranged.
